Mrs. Taylor Hostess To Winnabow Club

The Winnabow Home Demonstration club held its May meeting in the home of Mrs. Edwin Taylor.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Bertha Reid. The roll was called and 13 were present.

The devotion was held by Mrs. Hendrix Wolf. The message which she gave inspiring to all who listened. After the business everyone was invited to the kitchen where Miss Thelma Hinson gave a demonstration on "Out of the Frying Pan into the Broiler."

The social hour was most enjoyable. There were games played and prizes won. Those games winning prizes were Miss Judy Cumbee, Mrs. Sadie Cumbee and Mrs. Inez Clark.

At the close of the meeting, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

SCHOOL DAZE

Reba Duncan

Just a few more days until school will be out and exams over for the last time this year. It seems that this has been one of the most progressive years Waccamaw has ever known, but we sincerely hope it won't be the last. It will soon be time for the seniors to say goodbye to good old Waccamaw, and this time it will be for good. Although they won't be with us next year, this class will stick in the minds of every girl and boy in this school, because there seemed to be a closer tie between them and the rest of the high school than any other class before them. We'll miss your smiling faces and witty ways next year, but we wish each of you much success.

Another married couple has been added to the senior class this week. They are Geraldine (Jeanette) McLamb and McRoy McLamb. It seems as if there has been quite a few married people in the senior class this year.

The Bus Drivers test (driving test) was given Wednesday, and only two took it. Both passed. They were Jerry Long and Mary Lou Duvall.

The Home Economics girls are planning a party at the beach Tuesday, under the supervision of Mrs. Soles.

Seen Around: Jerry Long going in for high jumping . . . Juniors wanting to have a party . . . Mr. White running everyone off the grass. The reason was we wouldn't pick up the paper . . . Joyce Duval spending the week end in the mountains . . . Everyone taking State exams Monday . . . Glee Club singing "You'll Never Walk Alone" . . . Mrs. Soles daughter a flower girl in the May Day Court . . . Katie Smith with a new dress . . . Mazie Frink back in school . . . Lois Sommersett quitting typing . . . Melton McCumbee and Sam Forny Duvall directing traffic.

High Times

By: Carol Stanley and Jeannine Kincaide

Time really does fly. Here we are just a week before commencement exercises. The juniors and seniors have begun practice for this occasion. They have kept Mrs. Dallas Pigott, their music director, quite busy for the past week. We believe that the seniors have just begun to fully realize what all of this means. While everyone else is looking forward to a summer of leisure they will have a great problem to face in the fall.

The seniors received their caps and gowns this week and were really showing them, off. The colors are navy for the boys and white for the girls with the Beta Club members wearing gold tassels.

The final date for placing 1955-56 crop corn under support is May 31.

be held in the high school auditorium at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. This is a service you will want to attend.

The freshman class held a party at the U. S. O. last Saturday. Everyone had a grand time with plenty of food to eat and music to dance by.

The seniors will take their exams on May 22 and May 23, leaving the rest of the week to dedicate to practicing for the coming events.

Thursday and Friday are set aside for the remainder of the high school to take their exams. Believe us, they certainly aren't looking forward to it. But they are looking forward to vacation which comes on Saturday May 28.

SEEN AROUND: Al Trunnell trying to figure out which way his cap goes on . . . Leon Fullwood having fun stepping on people's toes . . . Barbara Johnson trying to make a carnation out of crepe paper . . . Teresa Fullwood getting beat up by a little boy in the second grade . . . Virginia Phillips trying to keep up with all her bookkeeping . . . Button laughing at some of his own poetry . . . Gene Drew and Bill Blake sweeping the halls to get out of class . . . Ernest Stanley with another moustache . . . Butch Harrelson with a new hair style . . . John Ganey bragging about his car . . . Helen Mallison proud of the prize she won in the flower show.

The final date for placing 1955-56 crop corn under support is May 31.

Waccamaw To Hold Finals

ASH — The Waccamaw High School commencement activities begin Sunday morning, May 22 with the baccalaureate service which will be held in the auditorium at 11 o'clock.

Dean A. R. Burkot of Campbell College, Buies Creek, will preach the sermon.

The eighth grades of Waccamaw School will have their graduation exercises on Tuesday, May 24, at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium. The title of the exercise is "Commencement at Waccamaw Corners. The program is a play, which honors all graduating students, as well as those students holding the highest scholastic honors.

There will be a piano recital Wednesday night, May 25, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. S. J. Frink of Thomasboro is the music teacher. The graduation exercise will be Friday night, May 27. Speakers for this event come from the graduating class, and are as follows: Harmon Smith, Janice Simmons, Gearldine McLamb, Evelyn Walton and Joseph Hughes.

Saturday morning, May 28, at 10 o'clock the Glee Club will sponsor a music festival. The second grade rhythm band and others in addition to the Glee Club will participate in this final event of the school year.
