Miss Kathleen Clemmons Becomes Bride Of Albert Parker In Sunday Ceremony

On July 3 at 3 p. m., the 23rd wedding anniversary of her parents, Miss Hazel Kathleen Clemmons became the bride of Albert Hemingway Parker in a ceremony performed at the Supply Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Clemmons of Supply and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Parker, also of Supply.

The Rev. Henry Register officiated at the double-ring ceremony and the Rev. Burt Bennett assisted. Pines, smilax, baskets of white gladioli, and candelabra holding lighted candles formed the setting for the vows.

Wedding music was presented by Page Shaw of Lumberton, organist, and Mrs. Floyd Kirby, Jr. of Shallotte, soloist. Mrs. Kirby sang "Because" and "O Promise Me." "I Love Thee" was played during the ceremony and the traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candlelight chantilly lace and tulle over satin, fashioned with a low scalloped neckline outlined with sequins and seed pearls.

The long sleeves ended in points over her wrists. The skirt was accented with lace scallops and tiers of tulle ended in a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a lace and net cap which was edged with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a white satin covered Bible topped with an orchid.

Miss Joan Parker, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a blue cocktail dress of crystallette fashioned with princess lines. Her headpiece was a matching nose veil and she carried a fan of white gladamellas.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Galloway and Miss Amelia Kirby. They wore dresses and nose veils identical to that of the maid of honor and carried fans of white gladamellas.

Junior attendants were Misses Nancy and June Lennon, nieces of the bridegroom. They wore pink organdy dresses styled like those of the other attendants and pink velvet head bands. They carried baskets of white gladioli florets.

Little Miss Wanda Parker, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and was dressed in pink organdy. She carried a basket of gladioli florets and rose petals.

Fred Parker of Supply served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Elmer Dance of Supply, Tylon Mintz of Leland, Clarence Lennon of Bolivia, and Richmond Galloway of Supply.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Clemmons selected a dress of imported Egyptian cotton and silk in sea green with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of pink gladamellas.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink rayon dress with cream and blue accessories. Her corsage was of white gladamellas.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's parents in the social hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth. On one end was the wedding cake and on the other was a silver punch bowl. Mrs. Fred Parker presided at the punch bowl and Miss Effie Sneed served cake. Others assisting in serving mints and nuts were Miss Emily Kirby, Miss Bertha Parker, and Miss Carolyn Holden.

For traveling the bride wore a two-piece dress of grey silk with a pleated skirt and navy accessories and the white orchid from her prayer book. After a trip through western North Carolina the couple will be at home in Charleston, South Carolina.

The bride is a graduate of Shallotte High School and received her A. B. degree from Meredith College in Raleigh.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Shallotte High School and for the past three years has served with the U. S. Coast Guard.
