BREATHTAKINGLY BEAUTIFUL is the only way to describe the flood of dogwood blossoms that have covered almost every corner of the Southport area this spring. Beautiful in their own right, the white and pink blossoms have combined with azaleas, camellias and other flowers to give (up until the past couple of days) a rich appearance of spring. But, this year, as in the past, appearance of dogwood blossoms has signalled "dogwood winter." According to tradition, it is the last real cold spell of the season. The dogwood season is also the signal for the Easter season, and it bears with it an old tradition dating back to the Crucifixion. The legend says the dogwood was once a tall, straight tree, but was cursed with its slight, crooked trunk of today because it was used as the wood for the cross. The brown marked petals are supposed to symbolize the blood of Christ.

Five Man Board Commissioners Idea Is Dropped

Representative James C. Bowman Says That Sentiment Appears To Favor Some Form Of County Manager Instead

LEAVING DETAILS TO COMMISSIONERS

Brunswick County Representative Expresses Belief That Legislature May Adjourn By May 31

By JAMES C. BOWMAN

One of the most dangerous things a legislator can do is to predict the date, even approximate, on which a session of the General Assembly will adjourn. Because there is some interest as to the probable date of adjournment, my prediction is that the General Assembly will adjourn on or about May 31.

This prediction is based upon the fact that the appropriations bill has been assigned to a subcommittee of the whole Appropriations Committee for study and report and that the Revenue bill has been assigned to a subcommittee of the whole Finance Committee for study and report. Work is progressing on these bills in the subcommittees and it is anticipated that the subcommittee reports will be presented on or about May 15 to the whole committees.

It is further contemplated that very shortly, the House will designate a cut-off date after which no further local bills may be introduced.

To date, 1,152 public and private bills have been introduced and 395 of these bills have been ratified. Members of the Senate have introduced 180 public bills and 155 local bills or a total of 335 bills. Members of the House have introduced by your representative have passed both the House and the Senate, and are now law with the exception. (Continued On Page Five)

More Candidates For City Offices

Red Cross Funds Now Coming In

activities came this week from Mrs. C. C. Carr at Long Beach. With only 10 permanent families in her area, she reported collections totaling over $90, and they came from more than 40 individuals. More than a dozen North Carolina towns were represented. Fund Chairman A. E. Huntley said last night the other scattered returns are coming in, and some of them are not so encouraging. He hopes to be able to make a full report next week, but adds that there still is time to make a contribution.

E. B. Tomlinson Enters Race For Mayor, Becoming Third Candidate To File For This Office

Eight men in two wards as greatest amount of interest in history is demonstrated

E. B. Tomlinson filed last week as a candidate for the office of mayor in the forthcoming city election, bringing the total number of aspirants to three.

Previously, Mayor Roy Robinson had filed for re-election and J. A. Gilbert, a former mayor, had also filed as a candidate. Robinson and Gilbert were opponents in a two-man race for this office in 1955.

Business picked up in the race for members of the board of aldermen, with a total of 14 candidates for the six vacancies.

Johnny W. Varen entered the race for board member from the first ward, joining Harold Aldridge and William Jenkins as candidates.

In the second ward there are now three candidates. They are Otto Hickman, for almost 10 years chief of police; Clyde Newton, formerly an engineer at the municipal power plant, and Kenneth Stiller.

But it is in the third ward that the field is really crowded. New candidates include Rees Swan, William Holden, DeArmand Swain, Harry D. Sell and Tom Gilbert. Last week there were three entries, including Phillip King, Roy Arntsen and Crawford Rouck.

Fire Fighters Receive Help

Sunny Point Fire Department Lends Hand In Extinguishing Woods Fire Near Southport Monday

Sunny Point Army Terminal, in coordination with state, county and city officials, turned out with personnel and equipment to help extinguish a blaze west of the County Home near Highway 87 Monday.

Gene Tomlinson, Plant Engineer and Sunny Point Fire Marshall, responded with Fire Chief Grant and the SPAT brush truck and pumping unit.

In the process of fighting the fire, Mr. Tomlinson again demonstrated Col. Frank T. Edson's desire to employ equipment and technically trained personnel from the terminal whenever the need exists. The terminal command is anxious to be called upon to render this assistance as early as possible in an effort to prevent brush fires from getting anywhere near the highly dangerous terminal area.

Tomlinson stated that this was the fourth occasion that they had had in recent months to place these mutual fire fighting agreement pacts into actual operation.

Keziah Memorial Fund

There is a growing sentiment that some permanent memorial should be erected in Southport to honor the memory of W. B. Keziah, and this week contributions have come from three different persons who expressed a desire to start the project.

The first contributor was Joseph J. Cox of High Point, who came by The Pilot office Saturday with a donation of $5. Letters came from G. Butler Thompson and General James Glore, each of which is being printed. G. V. Barbee is one of the first to suggest that a movement of this kind should be undertaken; and the letter from Bill Sharpe falls into that category. On Monday we received a long distance telephone call from Thomas D. Singletary, Philadelphia automobile dealer, saying that he would like to participate in such a movement.

So there you have it. There appears to be a strong senti- (Continued on Page Five)
