

Miss Louise McKay Fuller Weds Herbert Kenwood Royal Tuesday

Miss Louise McKay Fuller was married to Herbert Kenwood Royal in the Westminster Presbyterian church on Tuesday at twelve o'clock noon. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lassiter Fuller. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Herbert Royal of Supply.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles W. Worth. Mr. Fuller gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of candlelight peau de soie designed in princess mode with appliques of Alencon lace, long sleeves, portrait neckline, and a full skirt ending in a Chapel train. Her triple tiered veil of French illusion was attached to a tiare of peau de soie and pearls. She carried a bouquet of orchids and roses.

Mrs. Franklin Alexander Baldwin, sister of the bride was matron of honor. Miss Leslie Gray McNeill was maid of honor. Miss Helen Lassiter Fuller was her sister's only junior bridesmaid. Other attendants were Miss Eleanor Glenn Phifer and Mrs. Richard W. Griffith. They wore dresses of Christmas rose velvet with matching accessories and carried muffs covered with gardenias.

Little Miss Delana Hewlett, niece of the groom was flower girl and wore a dress of white organza trimmed in velvet and carried a nosegay.

The bride's mother wore a wool dress in winter navy and white orchid corsage. The mother of the groom was attired in an electric blue dress with matching lace bolero and wore a corsage of pink hybrid orchids. The groom had as his best man, Vernon D. Thompson. The ushers were: Franklin Baldwin, Lake Waccamaw; Harvey C. Brown, Supply; Robert McLean Thompson; and James W. Warlick of Whiteville.

BREAKFAST

Following the wedding a breakfast was given at the Hotel Whiteville. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. John Camp Maultsby and introduced to the receiving line by Rev. and Mrs. Charles W. Worth. The receiving line was composed of the parents of the bride and groom and members of the wedding party. Mrs. William Ferebee Sledge and Mrs. W. Edwin Miller directed the guests to the buffet table where Mrs. John Elbert Thompson, Mrs. J. Rufus Marks, and Mrs. James G. Warlick, presided, assisted by Miss Virginia Kea Gray and Miss Elizabeth Sledge. Miss Pamela Scarborough, suite mate of the bride of Lake City, Fla., was at the register. Good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. C. Bion Sears.

The bride is a graduate of Whiteville High School and is a freshman at Queens College. The groom is a graduate of East Carolina College and is teaching and coaching at Mount Holly High School.

For traveling the bride wore a Royal blue suit trimmed in beaver with a matching fur hat. Her shoulder corsage was white orchids. After a wedding trip South, the couple will be at home in Mount Holly January 4.

Following the wedding breakfast guests called at the Fuller residence on Madison street where they were served coffee and confections by Mrs. W. B. Hobbs.

They were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Page and Mr. and Mrs. Jim High.

Christmas Program At Shallotte Church

The Shallotte Baptist Church will present the "Christmas Story" on Christmas Eve at 7 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. W. Amis Daniel, announced that the church has invited all the people of the Shallotte area to pause for a moment on Christmas Eve and visit the Shallotte Baptist church for an hour of worship. The program will consist of music and pageant, as the true meaning of Christmas is presented.

LELAND HIGH - LIGHTS

By SADIE COOK

A Christmas party for all LHS students has been planned for Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, in the Lion's Club.

Three representatives from each class were chosen to be on the party committee.

The committee was divided into three groups; location and music, refreshments, and decorations. The students on each committee are: location and music: Eddie Wessell, Elizabeth Johnson, Jean Lynch, Mary Allen. Refreshments: Pat Sessoms, Brenda Lennon, Jackie Pigott, Nancy Holmes. Decoration: Franky Thomas, Nancy Lewis, Ray Bordeaux, Joe Temple.

The Constitution was approved last week by Mr. Thomas, the LHS Student Council, High School Faculty members, and students. Student votes were 92 to 26 in favor of the Constitution. Prior to the voting an assembly was held to acquaint the students with the Constitution.

Committees have been named, and selected duties assigned. Four marshals were chosen (and the substitute).

The Council visited New Hanover High School to learn about how their Student Government works. In addition, they were given an inspection tour of the school.

Student Council members are George Blizard, Thelton Skipper, Pat Sessoms, Wayne Lennon, Sue Bordeaux, Jean Lynch, Ray Bordeaux, Frances Hodge, Sandra Corbett, Joe Temple, Gene Parker, Faculty Advisor, Miss Glenda Harris.

The Nativity scene on the front campus will be lighted tonight.
