Mrs. Mary Long Is Wed To Sgt. Caldwell

In a ceremony at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. S. W. Jolly of Whiteville on December 25, Mrs. Mary E. Long of Ash was married to Sergeant Ralph Caldwell of Whiteville.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jolly, brother of the bride, with members of the families present. Included were Mrs. Helen Palmer and Miss Mary Palmer Caldwell of Colbert, Georgia; Lt. and Mrs. Roy A. Jolly of Waco, Texas, and R. P. Jolly of Whiteville.

The bride is director of instruction for Brunswick County Elementary Schools.

The bridegroom is the army advisor for the National Guard Units at Whiteville, Elizabethtown, Fair Bluff, Bladenboro and Lumberton, with headquarters at Whiteville.

Farm income in North Carolina has increased 400 percent since 1940, as compared with only 250 percent for the nation.

MRS. JACKSON R. NEWTON

Miss Mary Louise Foutz Weds
Jack Newton In Maryland

Miss Mary Louise Foutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Foutz, Jr., of Westminster, Md., married Jackson R. Newton of Chapel Hill on Sunday, December 20, at 2 p. m. in St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Westminster. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cranmer Newton of Southport, North Carolina.

The Reverend Nevyn M. Kirk officiated at the double ring ceremony. White poinsettias, pine, holly and double candelabra decorated the church. Mrs. Denton Twigg was soloist accompanied by Mr. Oliver K. Spangler. A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white taffeta princess style gown with pearl embroidered scalloped neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her chapel length train fell from a double bustle. The bride's finger tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a taffeta and Chantilly lace half hat. Her cascade bouquet was of camellias and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Martha E. Foutz of Omaha, Nebraska, sister of the bride. She wore a ballerina length gown of emerald silk faille with a matching band in her hair. Her bouquet was a cascade of white poinsettias and holly. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harvey B. Bair, Westminster; Miss Ann Brooks Newton, Southport, sister of the groom; Miss Elizabeth Etzler and Miss Sue Ellen Hunt, both of Chapel Hill. They were dressed like the maid of honor.

Edward C. Newton was best man for his son. Ushers were Charles R. Foutz, III, Westmin-

Junior Garden Club In Session

The December meeting of the Southport Junior Garden Club was held at the home of Jean Gilbert on Tuesday, December 15, with 11 members and one visitor present.

The president, Sandra Potter, presided. Club members have for sale auto litterbug bags to raise funds for their projects. Christmas tree ornaments were taken to the County Boarding Home. Members will continue to work on the diaper shirts and receiving blankets for Doshier Memorial Hospital nursery.

Judy McKeithan, program chairman, gave an interesting program on "Christmas in Other Lands". Scripture was read from the 2nd chapter of Luke. The program closed with the singing of Christmas carols.

ster, brother of the bride; John Richard Newton, Washington, D. C., brother of the groom; Carl G. Knox, Wilmington, uncle of the groom; Edwin Todd, Whiteville.

Mrs. Newton is the granddaughter of Dr. Charles R. Foutz and the late Carrie Brown Foutz and the late Mr. and Mrs. L. Drehr Shank of Dover, Delaware. A graduate of the University of Virginia School of Nursing, she is now employed at the North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill.

The groom, who served four years with the U. S. Coast Guard, is attending the University of North Carolina.

Everyday mechanical tasks turn into major problems in the icy polar regions. The men who braved Antarctic wastes during the International Geophysical Year often had to work with rubber—or plastic—covered cables chilled by the low temperature to metallic hardness, says the National Geographic Magazine. A simple welding job could take hours of preheating and gradual cooling.

Taxes on farm property increased 5 per cent in 1959.
