Acme-Delco At Bear Gridiron In First Game

By JIGGS POWERS
BOLIVIA—The first game of the new season between members of the Border Belt Conference, an 8-man loop, will be played here Friday night at 8 o'clock, when Bolivia's Bears host the Acme-Delco Trojans in a non-conference contest.

It will not only be Bolivia's first game of the season, but will also be their first game in 8-man gridiron competition. The Bears, coached by Frank Hogg, are one of the two new entries in the 8-man conference. "Eye-Opener" The tilt will serve well for both Hogg and Acme-Delco's new coach, James Denton, to see just what their teams have in prospect for the coming of the official BBC schedule, which opens a week later.

Coach Hogg, a veteran of four years here, has a total of 12 lettermen who played 11-man football under him in 1959. But, according to weights listed by him on his charges, he will have a somewhat light group with which to play his BBC slate.

Unexpected Losses He had 17 lettermen expected to return, but one senior is ineligible and four other seniors due to be on hand joined the navy since last season. Lettermen on hand at Bolivia High include Ends Robert Willetts, 140-pound senior and Jackie Potter, 135, junior; Guards Tommy Robbins, 145 and Gene Kye, 135, both seniors, Robert Gales, 155, and Joe Lewis, 140, both soph; Center Conrad Benton, 165, senior; Quarterback Stevie Mintz, 135, junior; Halfbacks Bobby Clark, 155, senior, David Cook, 125, junior, and Alvie Lewis, 135, senior; and Fullback Dick Rabon, 160, soph.

Bolivia Starters Other members of the short-handed Bear squad are End Frank Henry, 155, soph and Halfback Curtis Maggart, 120, freshman.

Hogg has listed Willetts and Henry at ends; Guards Robbins and Gales; Benton at center; Mintz, qb; Clark, hb and Rabon at fb as his probable starters. Mintz and Clark are this year's Bear co-captains.

Trojans Starters From Acme-Delco, Coach Denton has said he will probably send a group of eight lettermen into the fray with Bolivia. He also reported the return of Mac Cole, 160-pound starting center of last year, to the Trojan squad. Cole had said he would attend New Hanover High in Wilmington this year, but has returned to the Trojan fold.

Ends Alan Bordeaux, 140, junior and William Skipper, 135, soph; Guards Herbie Skull, 145, junior and Phillip Caines, 230, senior; Center Mac Cole; Quarterback Gordon Hobbs, 175 senior or Gene Roberts, 160, junior; and Halfbacks E. C. Malpass, 150, senior, and Hobbs or Sophomore Ronnie Babson are included in the probable Trojan starters.

Denton, who arrived about two weeks ago to take over the reins of his team, has a total of 10 lettermen around. Others are Travis Harrison, 135, center and halfback candidate; and Kenneth Myers, 140, sophomore halfback who has been troubled with a bad knee.
