Stolen Cars Found By Highway Patrol

Quick work on the part of the State Highway Patrol resulted in the arrest of a 16-year-old Wilmington youth accused of stealing a car last Saturday night at Ocean Isle Beach.

Rayford Clayton Piver was released on bond of $500 after spending a night in the Brunswick County jail, following his arrest for the theft of a 1955 Ford station wagon. Piver was picked up about 10 o'clock Sunday morning at Ocean Isle by Highway Patrolman W. H. Morgan, Jr., only 12 hours after taking off in the stolen vehicle.

Piver is said to have gone to Ocean Isle to visit a brother employed there in the shrimping industry. The youth will be tried during the coming Monday's session of Recorder's Court at Southport.

Eugene Fallon Attends The Writers Conference In Western North Carolina Resort

Some 70 authors gathered for the annual N. C. Writers Conference held on Friday and Saturday of last week at Blowing Rock. Attending from Southport was Eugene Fallon, member of the State Port Pilot news staff.

Four sessions were held during the meet, two of which were open to the public and two of which were closed to all but participating members of the unique group of Tar Heel writers.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the program was the panel discussion held on Friday night, during which Jonathan Daniels of Raleigh; Ovid Pierce, author of "The Plantation"; and LeGette Blythe, former Charlotte newsman-turned-author, discussed the opportunities, hazards, helps and hindrances of writing.

In charge of this session and acting as moderator was Chalmers Davidson, professor of English at the college which bears his name.

Thad Stem, Jr., Oxford poet, presided during one of the closed sessions, and Julia Montgomery Street was in charge of a program designed primarily for those writing "juvenile" books.

Men In Service

Army Sgt. James A. Lipe, whose wife, Willie, lives in Charlotte, is a member of the 24th Infantry Division in Germany. A fire team leader in Company A of the division's 34th Infantry in Augsburg, Sergeant Lipe entered the Army in 1946 and was stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C., before his arrival overseas last January on this tour of duty. The 35-year-old soldier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Grady Lipe, Southport.

Atlanta was originally called Terminus, because the settlement was made around the terminus of a state-owned railroad. In 1843 its name was changed to Marthasville, and in 1845 to Atlanta.

TEACHER CHOICE

Principal W. N. Williams stated that he is "most pleased with the caliber of teachers we have been able to obtain" pointing out that all four new comers are well recommended, experienced teachers with class "A" certificates.

"When added to the strength of those teachers who are returning from last year", Williams continued, "we have an unusually well staffed and capable faculty".

The teachers returning from last year and their grades for the 1961-62 school year are Miss Mary Lee Norment, grade 1; Mrs. Thelma Willis, grade 2; Mrs. Lucille Williamson, grade 3; Mrs. Minnette Lingle, grade 3-4; Mrs.

Annie Weeks, grade 4; Mrs. Muriel Lennon, grade 5; Mrs. Ruth Hood, grade 7; and T. M. Lee, grade 8.

In regard to the high school for next year, the principal stated that the curriculum will be strengthened by the introduction of new courses in both the college preparatory and non-college preparatory areas. However, it was pointed out that since an additional teacher has only recently been allotted, specific details are not available at this time.
