Bucs-Massey Hill

MASSEY HILL—Shallotte's pirates, still seeking that elusive first win of their 1961 grid card, come here, Friday at 8 p. m. to face an improving Massey Hill eleven.

Shallotte lost last Friday to Tabor City by only a 12-6 score. TC had earlier beaten Massey Hill, 19-0.

Eagles Host Rebs

ASH—Coach Tommy Shutt's Waccamaw Eagles, hepped up after winning their second game of the season here, last Friday, will go after their third victory, Friday at 4 p. m., when they play host to Maxton's Rebels.

The Eagles downed Parkton, 20-19 last week. They'll be trying to hold onto their 6th-place spot against 7th-place Maxton.

EXPRESSES THANKS

Mrs. Jesse Doshier, last year's chairman of the luncheon committee for the Southport P. T. A., said this week that she wishes to express appreciation to everyone who helped gain a grade "A" rating for that facility. She especially praised the efforts of the luncheon workers and the sanitarian of the Brunswick County

ASC Officials To Attend Meet

Ralph Price, manager of the ASCS office at Shallotte, reported on Wednesday that a district meeting will be held tomorrow (Thursday), at which the new law pertaining to the transfer of cash rented tobacco allotments from one farm to another will be discussed in full.

Price said that up to the present time his office has received no information on the new law. The ASCS manager stated that "we have had many inquiries from Brunswick farmers concerning the issue" and added that he expected to "have some of the answers anyway" following the district meeting.
