THE STATE PORT PILOT

A Good Newspaper In A Good Community

The Pilot Covers

Brunswick County

Volume No. 22

No. 16

10-Pages Today

SOUTHPORT, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1961

Sanford Names

Dr. M. H. Rourk

Shallotte Physician Appointed Member Of North

Better Schools

Better Schools.

Carolina Committee For

As a member of the State Committee, Dr. Rourk will participate in a state-wide campaign to promote and support school improve-ment. The Committee for Better local educational leaders to help build public understanding and Schools Committee will be to work with local school officials to organize an education rally in the county to which the Governor will be invited to speak. At the rallies, emphasis will be placed on citizen, parent, and student responsibility for school improve-

The Brunswick County rally will be held on Tuesday, October 31, at 9:30 a. m., according to Dr.

Rourk. It will be the first of four rallies held in Southeastern North Carolina on October 31. Later rallies during the day are planned for Columbus, Bladen, and Robeson Counties. Plans are already underway for the Governor's visit.

Working with Dr. Rourk in the formulation of plans for the rally is J. G. Long, superintendent of Persons attending the rally will be given an opportunity to participate actively in a survey of opinion about Brunswick County

On Committee

5c A COPY

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY

Tour Of Inspection

VISITOR-Miss Susie Parsons, home economist for Carolina Power and Light Co., shows Mayor J. Edward Hahn of Southport a turkey in the process of being roasted in the owen of one of the model homes at Boiling Spring Lakes Sunday. Mayor

Hahn and Attorney Kirby Sullivan, right, with back to camera, were among more than 5,000 guests who visited the Medallion Model Homes during open house at the big residential sub-division near South-

King Mackerel Make Big News Here In Fishing

Charter Boats Still Reporting Good Daily Catches With Good Weather Pre-

tionally a day of ill-luck the world past weekend over; but in Southport, or rather brick model homes, completely in waters off Southport, this past furnished, were unveiled to the harvest for sports fishermen.

Glen Trunnell, carrying the J. A. this week. Morris party of Charlotte, fetched | Harold Greene, general manin 31 king mackerel, 13 bonito, 1 ager of the big development, exbarracuda and 1 dolphin.

II, Capt. Basil Watts, sailed the Greene estimated that "more than Andy Kistler party of Morganton 5,000 visitors thronged the to a date with 38 kings, 4 bonito, grounds over the weekend," and one sailfish measuring 3 feet and added that "Good numbers still four inches, and one dolphin.

ried the same party to 30 kings, cision to extend the showing to a 20 barracuda and 5 dolphin. On full week. Monday the same boat carried the George Stow party of Chatham, rived in such number that it was Va., to 38 kings, one barracuda physically impossible for all of and one bonito. Also on Monday, them to enter the homes and that Continued On Page 6

News Briefs

Birthday Calendar this year October 30. There will be other should contact Mrs. Bryant Pot- valuable prizes given free of cost ter or Mrs. L. J. Hardee before the end of the week.

CEMETERY CLEANING

There will be a general cleanup at Griffen cemetery in Ash on Thursday, October 26. Mrs. Olin Gore invites all interested parties to pack a lunch and come prepared to stay until the job is

SAFETY AWARD

E. V. Gore, acting postmaster at Shallotte, recently presented Edward H. Redwine, rural free have opportunity to gather be- be served during the morning delivery carrier, an award for neath one roof on Sunday night, church service. having successfully driven his October 29, in a special union serroute for eight years without ac- vice to be held at the high school ing Service at New Hope is the cident. Redwine's travel entails auditorium, beginning at 7:30. 79 miles daily, six days per Featured speaker will be Ken- ter members of the church, who week, with 450 stops each day.

ing two local men and one nice byterian Church. 10-point buck. This on Monday,

Thousands Visit At Boiling Springs

Open House Observed At* Development Near Southport During Past Week-End

Friday the thirteenth is tradi-Boiling Spring Lakes during the Friday was a day of bountiful visiting public, drew such crowds that the showing has been extend-On Friday the Riptide, Capt. ed to run through the balance of pressed himself as greatly pleas-On the same day the Idle On ed with the public reception. were showing up Monday and On Saturday the same boat car- Tuesday". This led to the de-

> According to Greene visitors armany of these took opportunity to tour the 15,000-acre city-in-thepines. There was much to see, including 45-miles of streets, the layout of an 18-hole golf and country club, sparkling lakes numbering fifty, all in various stages of improvement and beautification. An added inducement to visitors was registration for a lot to be given away absolutely without Those who wish to have their cost to a lucky family. Drawing names on the Southport P. T. A. for this prize will take place on Continued On Page 4

Union Service

tober 29

All Southport Protestants will ment of the Lord's Supper will neth S. Keyes, prominent Presby- are still active in the work of the Seen heading north on Shal- Keyes comes to Southport upon ing will be Gene Maultsby of lotte's main street, one car, carry- invitation of the Southport Pres- Jacksonville, N. C., a former clothes and big grins, were the the magic city employ 250 per- vited to attend the services and Continued On Page 4

No Word On ASC Vote Investigation

Ralph Price, ASC office manager for Brunswick county, said this morning that there has been no official word on the results of the investigation into alleged irregularities in voting during the ASC Community Elections several weeks ago.

Price said that he is expecting some word soon.

Meanwhile, it has not been possible to hold a County Convention to elect a new county committee, and members of the old committee will continue to serve until their successors are elected and duly qualified.

Homecoming Day For New Hope

Annual Event Will Be Observed This Week With All-Day Session And A Special Program

Homecoming Day will be celebrated at the New Hope Presbyterian church in Brunswick County this Sunday, and the celebration begins with morning worship scheduled for 11:30 o'clock.

An annual event, the Homecoming Day at New Hope draws former members and friends of the church from miles around. Rev. Drayton Cooper, pastor of Being Planned the church, said that a large crowd is anticipated for this the church, said that a large year's observance of Homecoming.

The schedule of activities for Prominent Layman Will Ad- the day includes Sunday School dress Union Congrega- at 10:00 o'clock, morning worship tion On Evening Of Oc- services at 11:30, dinner on the grounds at 1:00, and the afternoon session at 3:00. The Sacra-

A highlight of each Homecomafternoon session at which charterian layman and successful real congregation, are recognized. Preestate broker of Miami, Fla. siding over this particular meet-member of the church. Layman Keyes has been active- In announcing the Homecomopening day of the deer hunting ly associated with Florida real ing Day services, Rev. Cooper season in Brunswick County, estate since the boom and bust remarked "This is a significant Shirley Woodard and Huey P. days of the middle twenties. To- event in the life of New Hope Hewett, both wearing hunting day his companies in and about church. The public is cordially in-

(Continued on Page 4)

Committee Will

John W. Umstead Announces Appointment Of Bi-Partisian Group Of Lead-the Citizens' Committee For a Better North Carolina supporting election on November 7th.

John W. Umstead, chairman of the state committee, in announc- residing in Southport or attending ing the appointment, states that Southport High School is being this committee will head the drive held jointly by the school and the in Brunswick County to acquaint Southport Art Association to cele the citizens with the importance brate American Art Week, Noof a successful passage to the vember 1-7, and National Chilten issues to be voted on in No- dren's Book Week, November 12-

The Brunswick County Citizens' son, R. D. White, Shallotte; (pen, pencil and charcoal), color-James C. Bowman, James M. ed graphics (pastels and crayon), Willetts, Winnabow.

Included in the bond issue are mprovements in state education-

Explain Issues Of Bond Vote have urged all interested citizens to attend the rally.

Fourteen persons of Brunswick American Art Week And the capital improvements bond

Continued On Fage 4

night in the Southport harbor.

Sutton and Joe Sam Loughlin.

object of being able to afford easier access.

Schools. The results of the survey will be used to identify public thinking about needed school improvements. Dr. Rourk and Long

Being Sponsored

TIME and TIDE

Believe it or not, but 25 years ago this week a front page headline in The Pilot proclaimed: "Considerable Agitation For Sunday Mail Service." Up until that time there had been none for patrons of the Southport office. There also was a meeting called at Shallotte for all citizens interested in construction of Shrimping operations had hit a season's high the first of that week; Mrs. W. C. Biggs of Leland had won the county canning contest; and the W. K. Vanderbilt yacht, Alva, had spent the Time had marched on-to October 22, 1941. There was an unofficial report that the newly approved USO hut would be located on the waterfront in one corner of the Garrison. Once more shrimping was a bustling business here, and a front page

One of the famous Bing Crosby and Bob Hope "road" pictures was playing at the Amuzu-"The Road To Zanzibar." Five Southport boys had passed their Boy Scout swimming test, including Bobby Jones, Douglas Jones, John Carr Davis, Jimmie

Bald Head Island made the front page of The Pilot in two places on October 23, 1946. One was a couple of pictures, one showing the old Bald Head lighthouse the other showing tropical vegetation overlooking the bay. And a front-page story reported that a landing strip was being constructed on the island with the Plans were announced for the annual Halloween Carnival here;

Continued On Page 4

picture showed Lewis J. Hardee busy mending a net.

REA lines along U.S. No. 17 in Brunswick county.

National Children's Book Week Will Be Properly Observed An art contest, for all children

Entries will be judged in four Committee includes the following different age groups, and in five members: Lester Babson, Ash; categories. The age groups in-Foster Mintz, Bolivia; Elmer Ay- clude preschool children, ages six cock, V. A. Creech, Jr., Leland; through nine, ten through four-W. E. Bellamy, Jr., Cleyon Evans, teen, and fifteen through eigh-Elrich Hickman, Aubrey C. John- teen. Categories include graphics Harper, Jr., Kirby Sullivan, water colors (water color, tem-Southport; Earl Earp, Harold pera, poster paints), and oils (oils and enamels).

There will be a separate category for posters on National Chil-(Continued on Page 4)

Dr. Winston Will Speak In County

State Commissioner Of Pub-lic Welfare Will Explain Program At Shallotte On Tuesday

Dr. Ellen Winston, state com-Dr. Henderson Rourk, Shalmissioner of public welfare, will lotte physician and prominent Brunswick County education leadbe the principal speaker at a public forum to be held at Shallotte er, has been appointed by Gov-ernor Terry Sanford to the North High School next Tuesday night. Carolina Citizens Committee for

The subject of Dr. Winston's talk will be the public welfare program as administered by the State of North Carolina, and will touch on many things of immediate interest to all North Carolinians, regardless of age and economic status. Schools will work with state and

Included in the subject will be Old Age Assistance, legal adoptions, requirements for a career in public welfare such as casesupport of high quality education.
One of the first responsibilities of the members of the Better worker, etc.

Past surveys, official and othervise, have revealed that the average citizen is almost totally ignorant of the wheres, whys and a woman who ranks high among workings of public welfare.

In Dr. Winston, Brunswick of public welfare. County citizens will be privileged The program begins at 7:30 to hear not only North Carolina's p. m.

DR. ELLEN WINSTON

public welfare commissioner, but the nation's experts in the realm

Unofficial Report On Tobacco Meet promises that "all attending members are assured of an enjoyable time. Not only will each registered

Some Oysters Are Contaminated Now

Reliable rumors reaching the Commercial Fisheries Department are to the effect that a certain boat using Brunswick waters has been gathering oysters from polluted areas and selling same for An investigation of the rumors has already begun. In the meantime, officials warnthat persons purchasing oysters be certain they are getting them from a reputable source.

cial, "are easily spoiled. An epidemic of serious sickness with fatal results could result from this sort of careless greed."

Highway Patrol To Crack Down

Objective Is To Cut Down Highway Traffic Toll In Carolina

thing in our power to reduce this productivity basis." alarming toll this year," Sgt. A. H. Clark, officer-in-charge of the lease must be legally drawn District VI, Troop B, N. C. High- up and signed by both parties way Patrol said this week.

are asking each and every motor- few weeks. ist to do his part and assist us in preventing accidents," he said. The patrol has begun a drive to not only enforce the law but to remove unsafe vehicles from the highways. A series of checking stations will be held day and night to weed out vehicles with faulty equipment.

Brakes, lights, windshield wipers, horne and other safety features will be checked. Wolfpack patrols, speed clocks, radar cars and unmarked patrol cars will be used on all roads in the tice, patrol spokesmen said.

sive and continue for an indefinite period. It is our hope that this week. all operators of motor vehicles will become safety conscious and help us in our efforts," Clark reported. "It is not a job for the patrol alone but should be a project for Economics Education, via teleevery citizen. The youngest and phone, which will be followed by the oldest can do his part to a letter of confirmation. make our highways safer," he way Patrol to make wholesale McYawhorn Best and Mrs. Doroarrests but when violations are thy B. Hankins, present non-voobserved-action will be taken, cational home economics teachers patrol spokesmen warned.

and fog and rain are just a few other arrangements. of the dangers which accompany Superintendent Long stated (Continued on Page 4)

Manager Ralph Price At-

an area meeting of ASC person- These musical lads from the high nel at New Bern Thursday and countree have sung as a group Friday and his unofficial resume since 1948, and have proved most of what took place at the meet-vides for lease and transfer of ico. tobacco allotments from one farm to another in 1962," said Price, 'pertains only to allotment farms. Ordination Is The lease and transfer of tobacco allotments will not be made on land which is not already under allotment. A limit of five acres per farm can be rented to one person. If more tobacco allotment remains, it can be rented to others, and all transfers must be within the county wherein the farms are located. "History credit," went on the farms. In establishing this yield churches at a special service Sunthrough 1960 will be used. If the Presbyterian Church. normal yield for each farm is This Section Of North within 10-percent of each other, ed as part of the New Hope the allotment may be transferred Presbyterian Church's Homecom-"Brunswick County had a total percent difference for normal a commission of the Wilmington of 10 highway deaths during 1960 yields is found, the acreage will Presbytery. Several ministers and and we are going to do every- be transferred on a percentage of elders of various churches in the Price emphasized the fact that concerned in the lease and trans-"Gov. Sanford has called for fer.

campaign of strict enforcement | Price said that official instrucof all road and driving laws. We tions are expected within the next

Two Vocational Teachers Added

Vocational Home Economics Department Added At Leland And Lincoln High Schools In This County

The Home Economics Departments of Leland and Lincoln county to bring violators to jus- High Schools were given final approval to be made vocational "This campaign will be exten- by the North Carolina State Department of Education, Raleigh,

Notice of this approval was given Superintendent John G. of Brunswick County Long Schools by Mrs. Catherine Dennis, State Supervisor of Home

This change will be retroactive from the beginning of the 1961-It is not the desire of the High- 62 school year and Mrs. Jessie at Leland and Lincoln, respective-With winter on the way addi- ly, will continue in their present tions road hazards are likely to positions on a vocational basis. be encountered. Ice on the high- Adjustments will be made conways, shorter hours of daylight cerning their salary, travel and

Continued On Page 5

Annual Meeting Brunswick REA On October 27th

Whiteville Warehouse Will Be Scene For Business Session Of Electric Co-op This Year

The annual meeting of the Brunswick Electric Membership Corporation will be held in Smith's Warehouse at Whiteville on Friday afternoon, October 27. Starting time is 1:30 p. m.

Principal speaker at the meeting will be Walter E. Fuller of Raleigh, executive manager, Tarheel Electric Membership Association. He is well known throughout the South as a progressive leader in many allied electrical Business to be conducted includes the election of 11 directors and the reading of annual reports of officers, directors and committees. The following men have been nominated by the committee on nominations for the position of directors of the cooperative:

T. D. Lindsey, L. C. Batten, J. B. Ward, Jr., H. D. White, Jr., F. E. Lay, C. D. Branch, Dennis Anderson, Roy Swain, Frank D. Inman, R. T. Mercer and M. M. Ray, Additional nominations may be made from the floor at the meeting. All terms are of oneyear duration.

A spokesman for the co-op promises that "all attending memhe Brunswick ASC Office prize, but many other valuable prizes will be given away; prizes tended Session Where New Program Was Exand ovens among others."

Entertainment will be furnished Ralph Price, manager of the on a fine scale, with the "Blue isc office at Shallotte, attended Ridge Quartet" on hand to sing. popular from Florida to Canada, and from the Atlantic Ocean to "The new legislation which pro- the high plateaus of New Mex-

Set For Sunday

The Rev. Drayton Cooper Will Be Ordained And Officially Installed At New Hope Sunday

Rev. Drayton Cooper, a resident ASC manager, "will stay with the of Southport since April, and farm for which the allotment was pastor of both the Southport and originally established. Before any New Hope Presbyterian churches. transfer can be made a normal will be ordained and officially inyield must be established for both stalled as pastor of the two the average production from 1956 day afternoon at the New Hope The ordination service, schedul-acre for acre. If more than 10- ing Day, will be presided over by Wilmington area will be present for the service. Serving as moderator of the commission will be Dr. John Mac-Kinnon, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Wilmington. Dr. MacKinnon will ask the constitutional questions of the congregations and pastor, as stated in the Book of Church Order, the official book of discipline of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. Rev. Russell W. Park, Sr., of

(Continued on Page 4)

Tide Table

Following is the tide table for Southport during the week. These hours are approximately correct and were furnished The State Port Pilot through the courtesy of the Cape Fear Pilot's Association.

HIGH LOW Thursday, October 19, 3:09 A. M. 9:45 A. M 10:25 P. M Friday, October 20, 1:13 A. M. 10:48 A. M 4:52 P. M. 11:21 P. M Saturday, October 21, 5:14 A. M. 11:47 A. M 5:48 P. M. Sunday, October 22, 6:07 A. M. 0:13 A. M 6:40 P. M. 12:41 P. M.

Monday, October 23, 7:01 A. M. 1:01 A. M 7:30 P. M. 1:31 P. M. Tuesday, October 24, 7:51 A. M. 1:47 A. M 8:18 P. M. 2:20 P. M. Wednesday, October 25, 8:39 A. M. 2:32 A. M

3:08 P. M.

9:04 P. M.