

Masons To Observe Ladies Night Here

Ladies Night will be observed Tuesday at Masonic Hall, when members of Pythagoras Lodge 249 will host its ladies at 7 p. m. in its downstairs quarters.

R. L. Thompson is chairman of the committee to invite the widows of deceased members, who will be honored along with members of 50 and 25 years standing. Pins and certificates will be bestowed upon the latter.

The next regular meeting of the Lodge will be held on Friday at 7:30 p. m. when the Entered Apprentice Degree will be conferred. All members are urged to attend and all visiting Masons are extended an invitation.

Mrs. Huntley Is Program Speaker

The Women's Missionary Union of the Southport Baptist Church met on Tuesday night, October 17, with 32 members present.

Mrs. Maxine Fulcher presided over the gathering for the first time since her election as president, and opened the meeting with scripture reading before announcing that the Week of Prayer for foreign missions would be observed from November 27 through December 1.

Mrs. A. C. Huntley, program chairman, delivered a talk on "Southern Baptist Missionary Work in Indonesia". The speaker affected the dress of the Indonesian female to add authenticity to her speech.

The Blue ribbon winners at our county show will have the opportunity to carry their exhibit to the Star-News Honor Day Program on November 18 and 19. This event will be held at Brogden Hall with the counties in Southeastern North Carolina competing for the top honors.

Martha Rabon will represent Brunswick County in the senior division of the dress revue. Martha will model a new fall dress which she is making at the present.

Meta Gail McNeil will represent Brunswick County in the Junior division of the dress revue. Meta Gail is also making her dress at the present.

William Aubrey Hickman will enter the Tractor Driving Contest as Brunswick County's representative.

Everyone that is interested is invited to come over to Wilmington and to Brogden Hall to see the exhibits. If you do go you are urged to register for Brunswick County.

4-H Club members we are looking forward to a large County Achievement Day Program and it can only be made possible through the cooperation of every club member. Come on out and take part in the program.

IEH homes are not "shell" houses. They are not pre-fab, but built by skilled craftsmen and building specialists under the supervision of the Institute for Essential Housing. No down payment if you own your own lot. Will build on farm land or lake front as desired.

FOUR TYPICAL STAGES OF COMPLETION

- 1. BASIC—In the basic or "shell" stage the house is completely finished on the exterior, including doors, windows, roofing, siding, paint, etc., and on the interior has oak flooring and framing for partitions and closets.
- 2. BASIC (plus materials package)—A materials package is also offered with the "basic" house, containing all of the materials needed to complete it. Included are interior doors, kitchen cabinets, plumbing fixtures, electric fixtures, hot water heater, gypsum wallboard, interior trim and paints.
- 3. READY-TO-LIVE-In—A house in this stage includes the plumbing and electrical installation, interior wall and ceiling construction, certain interior doors for privacy and kitchen sink and cabinets installed. In this stage, you can move into the house and do your interior finishing and painting.
- 4. COMPLETELY FINISHED—Everything is done for you in this stage; all you have to do is move into your "dream house" and enjoy its many luxurious features, usually found only in high-priced houses. But no matter what stage you choose, all financing is included in your low monthly payments.
