Another Mystery—

What Happened To Colony?

which historians refer to as the English.' "Lost Colony."

an English settlement Cattel." Forte" located below Wilmington and manly composed of conjecture, and pretends to nothing more

Was there a fortification, presumably sheltering colonists as well as soldiery, located on the Cape Fear River in earliest 17th happened to it? If John Lawson, whose excellent "History Of North! Carolina is a standard reference work on the early history of Colonial Carolina, is to be believed there was indeed.

the following words:

lar practices of some of the Col- in the following passages: ony against the Indians, by send-are familiar to all of us.

the white men "send" the small setting up of Corn or Saw-mills. reign which lasted from 1603 to along the Brunswick coastal coun-

By EUGENE FALLON

redskins? Surely not to England In that time as our business calland a public school? The sused us up and down the River and that James Towne in Virginia lost city, which he called "At- bourne out by the adult Indians' four Swans, ten Geese, twenty James Forte must have been esthe world has been in- reaction, which, still according to nine Cranes, ten Turkies, forty tablished prior to 1625, and untrigued by the mystery of what Lawson's account, meant warfare Ducks and Mallard, three dozen doubtedly antedates Charles happened to the metropolis-if, with bow and arrow. And the of Parrakeeto's and six or seven Towne, that settlement which anindeed, such ever existed. Right question immediately arises if the dozen of other small fowls, as tedated Brunswick Towne, and here in Brunswick County lies a colonists were wiped out to a Curlues and Plovers, etc." mystery fully as great as that man, in the sober passage: "yet Here, the writing mariners drop monarch, Charles of England. much-publicized settlement up in they never gave out til they had a bombshell! Dare County on the Outer Banks, entirely rid themselves of the surely in what is now Brunswick the remarkable narrative which the said River, but also to the frail craft, built hopefully by the County, which was supposed to comes down to posterity, as "The great discouragement of all those land-locked settlers, sail out of antedate 1625, and which is given Hilton Pamphlet," being a sort of that should hereafter come into the mouth of the Cape Fear to authenticity by both the writings ship's log, kept by Commander the Parts to settle: In Answer to founder with all hands? Or did a of John Lawson and two ancient William Hilton, Captain Anthony that Scandalous writing, We pox descend instead upon the maps, upon which the settlement Long, and one Peter Fabian, of whose names are under-written do settlers, to blot them from the appears. This, then, is a story the voyage of His Majesty's Ship affirm, That we have seen fac- earth? "Adventure" to American waters ing on both sides of the River, On two old maps, one drawn by in Southern Lattitudes, from the and branches of Cape-Fair afore- Nicholas Shapley of Charleston island of Barbadoes, B.W.I., in said, as good Land, and well Tim- Massachusetts, who served as the year 1663.

by the Adventure, on the coast of English Nation." Florida (then held by the Span- If the reader of this remark- maps show James Forte lying in iards) and concern this story not at all. It is the latter logging—or this remarks imaps show James Forte lying in the almost exact geographical portance on the word "left" as position. The first map is the when the ship, having turned used to describe how the cattle came into possession of the In-Cape Fear and this general vi- dians, so far from England and You have heard that a "camera cinity—that the writing becomes its channel islands, it would seem will not record what is not there. pertinent, with a vengeance, as that the colonists simply tired of Nor will a map, however crudely Lawson also dispels some of it were. And we read not only the struggle to create a New drawn. There is, however, no rethe mystery surrounding the early of English "cattel" in the possessettlements which disappeared, sion of "rede aborigines," but and made the redskins a "gift" leaving no trace behind them, in fortunately chance upon yet an- of the cattle-while they preother clue to the fate of the "Had it not been for the irregu- vanished colonists of James Forte,

"When the River (referred to ing away some of the children throughout the document as the of the Adventure, it is the strong-(as I have been told) under the 'Cape Fair') comes to part, and ly-evinced disenchantment with pretence of instructing them in grows narrow, there is all Chanel the land and its savage, native Learning and the Principles of from side to side in most places; in some places you shall have the "discovery" of the Writing! disgusted the Indians, that, five, six, or seven fathoms One wishes the Messrs. Hilton, though they had then no Guns, yet (sounds like Southport), but gen- Long and Fabian to have been a they never gave out til they had erally two or three, Sand and little more explicit as to the circultural and little more explicit and little more explicit and little entirely rid themselves of the English, by their Bows and Ar-Cape-land, and judged it to be was uncovered. Surely this strong proof that a settlement did see it real sick: rows . . . were it not for such little worth (here, it sounds more was a discovery almost as earthill Practices, I say, it might, in like Wilmington), the Woods of shaking as the human footprints into being. It is left to the readall Probability, have been at this it shrubby and low, the land found by Robinson Crusoe on his er's imagination to fill in the day, the best Settlement in their sandy and barren; in some places deserted island. Lordship's great Province of Caro- grass and Rushes, and in other How long after James Forte places nothing but clear sand had flourished below the Union The foregoing quote is exactly (Long Beach, perhaps?); a place Jack had the Writing been unas written, along with the punc- fitter to starve Cattel in our covered by the seafarers? There Cornelius M. D. Thomas of Clartuation and the obscurities rife judgment, then to keep them are only a few clues, and these of endon Plantation, whose excellent in early-historian styling which alive; yet the Indians, as we un- nebulous character. In 1625 the work "James Forte," published in derstand, keep the English Cattel reign of King James the First 1959, furnished not only many of What did Lawson mean when down there, and suffer them not terminated, and Charles the First the facts as used in this story, he wrote of "sending away" some to go off the said Cape. They ascended the throne of England. but endowed the writer with enof the (Indian) children? One (the Indians) brought aboard our It seems more than reasonable to thusiasm for what he considers hopes that the colonists did not Ship very good and fat Beef sev-dispatch the little savages into eral times . . . We saw up the settled and named in honor of the teresting—enigmas pertaining to eternity! But where else could River several good places for the Royal James sometime during his the first settling of white men picion of wholesale murder seems Branches, we kill'd of wildfowl, made its appearance). Therefore

"Whereas there was a Writing Did English blood stain left in a Port at the Point of Brunswick sands and color the One phase of James Forte Cape-Fair River, by some New- pure waters of the Cape Fear We speak of the more than which seemed to have escaped England-men that left Cattel with River, while the domesticated anivague references to a "James annihilation was the "English the Indians there, the Contents mals ran in bewildered circles whereof tended not only to the bellowing? Did a ship actually In support of this, we turn to disparagement of the Land about carry off the crusaders; or did > bred, as any we have seen in any clerk of writs in that town in the The early portion of the log other part of the world, sufficient year 1662, dying the following concerns the first landfalls made to accommodate thousands of our year; the second map was drawn > > sumably boarded ships which took them off for home.

"Writing" found by the officers was named in honor of the latter

What were the final hours like?

by James Lancaster in 1679; both England in Brunswick County, cords extant to show that either Shapely or Lancaster visited the region mapped by themselves. If anything is clear in the maps, maps which have since be- the Southport Public Library. come lost or ceased entirely to exist.

And there you have the story of Brunswick County's Lost Colony; its Atlantis, which disappeared not beneath the sea, as Plato's was supposed to have munity Building held Tuesday done, but downed in the river of night featured films showing the time and the sloughs of man's growth of different varieties of whys and the wherefores of its disappearance

At this point the writer feels obligated to mention his debt to

TV PLAYER CONNIE STEVENS (Surfside Six) introduces North Carolina's 1962 auto license plates which went on sale Jan. 2. New regulations concerning the purchase and use of the '62 tags are summed up in a specially prepared leaflet accompany renewal cards which are already in the mail. Motor Vehicles Department officials strongly urge car owners to read carefully the instructions before applying for new tags. The bright new black-on-orange '62 tags must be in use by February 15.

Mr. Thomas' book is available at a cost of $5, postpaid, from The natural assumption is that the Charles Towne Preservation they copied other (and older) Trust, and a copy is on file at

> Meeting Is Held In Exum Community

A meeting at the Exum Com-

Verneen, Mrs. P. E. Brady and Ivan Bennett.

The holidays were spent very quiety in this community.

Waterfront

The State magazine, Editor Bill known as Haile Beach, sold just Sharpe devoted considerable space before World War II for $5,000. to Brunswick county, and par- The beach is about 6 miles long. ticularly to the various resort de- An ocean front lot today costs velopments. There was a picture from $2,500 to $2,750. of "Bouncing Log Spring" with "In other words, the its new enclosure and its new time-and not so long ago when name-"Boiling Spring". The fol- you could have bought a mile of lowing is quoted from the "From proper ocean front for less than Murphy To Manteo" feature in half the price of one lot today.

"Ever thought you'd like to day, you could have bought the have a pretty, wide beach all to whole island, ocean to sound, inlet yourself? Well, the George Sloans to inlet. of Ocean Isle Beach do have one. In winter time, they are the only permanent residents of the beach, and enjoy it just as much as they thought they would. Mr. Sloan is handling real estate sales on the beach for Odell Williamson, and even in the dead of winter, people knock on his door, ready to buy a lot.

"Ocean Isle, incidentally, has developed as a clean, neat beach with uniformly tidy homes. It has begun to attract small-boat fans and the ramp over on the waterway side is usually kept busy in good weather. The new ABC store is in business and, of course, is thriving. You could put a likker store at the North Pole and find customers close by. Long an ABC store.

"Several homes went up this girls and their parents. Exum Community outdid itself past season, and the beach now fully-decorated of these were rental cottages, which shows how found in the yards of Mrs. Elmo this beach has grown in recent ceived several complaints about Mintz, Mrs. Alta Fernside, J. B. years. This spring he opened a this practice, some of which were development activities.

"Ever dream back over lost op-

In his end-of-the-year edition of "Ocean Isle Beach, when it was "In other words, there was a Or, for the price of two lots to-

"E. F. Middleton, when he was trading coastal property, once sold this beach for $10,000 and that has been only about 20 years ago.

"And we saw in the 25 Years Ago column of the Southport Pilot that Smith Island (Baldhead) was up for sale for taxes and $4,575 had been bid for it. It is worth much more than $1,000,000 today, and we doubt Frank Sherrill, the owner, would sell at any price."

Warns Of Dangers Of Bicycle Riding

Police Chief Herman Strong, taking note of the many new bicy-Beach followed suit by authorizing cles in Southport, had words of warning to both the boys and

"Although it is not my wish to in the matter of Christmas dec- has a motel both on the beach throw cold water on the sport of orations, with most of the lights and on the mainland nearby, as bike riding", said Strong, "it is and ornaments suspended upon well as a restaurant and minia- a violation of a city ordinance yard trees. Among the more taste- ture golf course. Odell handles 21 to ride a bike on city sidewalks."

Strong added that he had rehandsome new office to house his registered by aged persons and pedestrians being bumped by bikes while walking on sidewalks.

"Bikes can be dangerous both portunities? Here's one that will on and off the roads and streets," make some people who failed to Strong said, "and parents should so instruct their children.'

ACRYLIC ROL-LATEX

Washable on exterior mosonry, interior walls and ceilings. No point odor, quick drying.

$225 T. $698 GAL

EVERY 2nd CAN FREE

BUY ONE GET ONE FREE or Arma cost  Guaranteed by Good Broashaping

> 702 NORTH THIRD STREET WILMINGTON, N. C.

LARY CARTER PAINT CO. ME THAN BOO STORES COAST TO GOAST

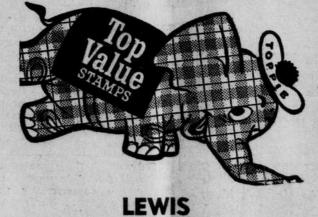

Frosty Morn Sugar Cured

TIDELAND SLICED

STANDARD PACK

TOMATOES 303 CAN 10¢

GIANT SIZE

SHALLOTTE, N. C.

"ADOLPHUS" LONG GRAIN

U. S. No. 1 White POTATOES

10-LB. BAG

"Red Dart" Seasoned Lima Beans .. 8 cans $1.00

SUN-SPUN BREAD 1-LB. LOAVES

PRODUCE FRESH COLLARD GREENS FRESH MUSTARD GREENS VINE RIPE TOMATOES

