

The Pirate Log

TOY LANE HEWETT

Hurray! Mid-term exams are over. The question now is, who passed?

Mrs. Greene, advisor of the Velveteen court, met with the attendants last week to discuss what they should wear to the Valentine dance. The court is as follows: Queen, Dora Hewett; maid of honor, Linda Mintz; attendants: 12th grade—Gracie Roberts, Dora Milliken, Ann Robinson, Toy Hewett, 11th grade—Barbara Hewett, Cheryl Grissett, Crystal Evans, Betty Norris, Jean Benton, 10th grade—Linda Woodard, Bonnie Price, Linda Clemmons, 9th grade—Brenda Norris, Brenda Tripp, Olivia White, Elaine Clemmons, Joan Beck. The princess was elected from the entire 8th grade and the lucky girl is Flora McDonald. Congratulations! The junior class is in charge of this dance. They haven't set the date yet, but are working hard to make this a dance that will long be remembered.

The Student Council is working on a constitution for the student body. This constitution will be read and voted on at assembly meeting Friday.

A new store awaited us as school started last year. It's feelings have been hurt because it has had no publicity. The store is painted white and has been christened with the name, "Pirates".
