High Times

By JOAN PINER

Here is your reporter again, ready to give you information about the happenings of the past week around Southport High School.

There has been a great deal of activity in basketball. We played Acme-Delco and won both games. On Monday we played Bolivia, the games were split. The Dolphin boys won and the Bolivia girls won. We will play Leland (tonight) Wednesday and Chad-bourn here on Friday night.

On Wednesday the Junior Varsity played Bolivia here at 2 o'clock. Most of the students saw the game. The Bolivia girls and the Dolphin boys were the winners.

The juniors came out fine on their cake sale and car washing last Saturday. They are working very hard in order to have a fine junior-senior banquet.

The school newspaper, The Dolphin, came out last Friday and was, as usual, a big hit.

The junior and senior high school assembly last week had a program consisting of showing a film about American Art Treas-

"Coach Of Year" Football Clinic Set At NC State

By FRANK WEEDON

RALEIGH—Coaches Bill Elias of Virginia and Clyde Walker of Raleigh's Needham Broughton High School have been added to the instructional staff of the second annual "Coach of the Year Clinic" to be held at North Carolina State College, March 23 and 24.

Elias, 1961 coach of the year in the Atlantic Coast Conference, and Walker, who guided Raleigh's undefeated team to the North Carolina 4-A State championship, join Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant, national coach of the year, on the staff, clinic director Earle Edwards announced.

The Raleigh clinic is one of eight clinics held in each of the NCAA districts, with the national coach of the year appearing at each session.

The major and small college coach of the year in each district also lectures at his area clinic. Bill Murray, of Duke's ACC champions, and Clarence Stasavich, formerly at Lenoir-Rhyne and now at East Carolina College, will be the District Eight instructors. Both are repeaters from last year's clinic.

Michigan State's Duffy Daugherty will also be a lecturer, and will discuss offensive formations with Duke's Murray.

Bryant, who led Alabama to 11 straight triumphs, including a Sugar Bowl win over Arkansas, will address the high school coaches from Delaware, Virginia, Maryland and the Carolinas on defensive football. Bryant's Crimson Tide scored seven shutouts in 1961, outscoring the opposition 297 to 22.

Elias, who guided the Cavaliers to their most successful season ures. This was available through the public library.

Your Roving Reporter's question this week is: What is your favorite television program and why?

Meezie Herring—"Dr. Kildare—I think it's most interesting. It has a different approach."

Dudley Barber—"Bonanza—I like to see how the Old West was for a rich man."

Judy Dixon—"Dr. Kildare—I'd like to meet him after I become a nurse."

Mr. Davis—"I'm a television bug, and I like them all."

On Tuesday most of the school watched the orbit programs on television for most of the day.

Seen Around: Seniors are privileged . . . Craig, do you like sauerkraut? . . . Clive, where are your pigs? . . . Has anyone heard "Don't Break the Heart That Loves You"? . . . Sandy, what was your shoe doing in the middle of the gym floor Monday night? . . . Bones at the ball game on Friday night . . . Jean C, you find Chuck's shoe? . . . Sally in a good mood Tuesday? . . . Don't believe all those things, Linda Kay . . . Annie, did you like the cake? . . . Beverly L, you had better get some sleep. . . Anna R. and Joyce G. writing notes.

Well, that's all for this week. See you around S. H. S.

since 1952 in his first year at Virginia, will also concentrate on defense in his talks to the group. The two-day sessions will be held in North Carolina State's new gymnasium. Last year 300 attended the inaugural clinic, at which Murray Warmath, Minnesota coach, was the principal speaker. Edwards, Wolfpack football coach, is confident that this attendance mark will be surpassed this time.

State Baseball Drills Started

By FRANK WEEDON

RALEIGH—Vic Sorrell, who has the longest tenure of any coach at North Carolina State, opened practice for his 17th Wolfpack baseball team, Monday, Feb. 12.

"We are going to try to get outside every day, weather permitting," said Sorrell, a nine-year veteran of the Detroit Tigers. "When we can't go outside, we'll have indoor drills in the old Frank Thompson Gym."

The Wolfpack has eight lettermen returning, headed by all-Atlantic Coast Conference infielder Vernon Strickland, senior from Stem. Strickland was named to the all-ACC team last year, as the utility infielder and at third base. His .371 batting average was the second highest in the ACC.

Last year the Wolfpack won 13 and lost five games, and finished third in the ACC with an 8-5 record.

Finding a pitcher to back up right-hander Bobby Conner, Wilmington senior, is the biggest problem confronting Sorrell. Conner was 3-1 last year and had a 1.90 earned run average. Joel Gibson, currently on the Philadelphia Phillies roster, won seven and lost two for the Pack last Spring, to head the mound staff.

Other lettermen back to get ready for the season's opener with Dartmouth here on March 20 are infielders Wayne Edwards, Red Springs; Ray Russell, Eoxboro; and Jerry Cordell, Raleigh. Outfielders back are Don Montgomery, a .313 hitter from Albemarle, and Les Young, Norwood. George Hayworth, High Point junior, caught all the games last year.

Southport Cagers Dip Acme-Delcos

Southport's homesteading Dolphin cagers downed the Trojan clubs of Acme-Delco here Friday night, the Lady Dolphins beating the Lady Trojans, 44-30, the local boys winning over the AD invaders, 64-41.

Leading scorers were Southport's Jean Cochran with 17 points, Sally Ward and Frances Smith 13 each, Clyde Dasher with 21, Rodney Garner with 17, and AD's Tillie Bollinger with 17, Ken Myers with 12 and George McRae with 10.
