

Wedding Plans

The approaching marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Adams to Wiley Ray Bland, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bland of Edward, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Adams of Southport. An April 21 wedding is planned at the Southport Baptist Church at 3 o'clock. No invitations are being issued, but friends and relatives of the couple are invited.

April Wedding

The marriage of Jeff Abshire of Lafayette, La. to Bess Anne Snyder of Coldwater, Mich. will take place this month. Abshire is a crew member of one of the U. S. Army's T-boats stationed at the city dock in Southport. Miss Snyder is a member of the Womens Auxiliary Corps, U. S. A., and is presently stationed at Fort Meade, Md. The marriage will take place at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Southport. The couple plan to make their home here.

Leland Club To

HOT DOGS— SANDWICHES— TRY DARI-MAID SHALLOTTE, N. C.

Mrs. Earl Russ, club treasurer, requested members to bring along a record of their canning and freezing accomplished during the past year. This information, said Mrs. Russ, is needed for inclusion in a report to be rendered during the Spring Federation of N. C. Home Demonstration clubs. Volunteers are also needed to serve as models for the Spring Fashion show, to be presented at that annual meeting.

Last meeting of the club was held in the Leland High School gym, where for recreation the ladies indulged in basketball games.

HOUSE AND GARDEN

The garden of the late Warren Hood has acquired the name of "Little Orton" and this year both the garden and home will be open. The house was commanded as a headquarters unit for the Confederate Forces during the War between the States and has many interesting architectural features.

Tea will be served at Brunswick Inn, last spot on the tour, where anyone curious about the ghost story in last week's State Port Pilot can ascertain for themselves if Antonio still plays his ghostly harp.

Guides for the tour will be members of the Sub-Junior Woman's Club of Southport. Members of Girl Scout Troop 502 will be stationed in Franklin Square as guides and at each home on the tour, and have compiled a brochure of all the homes on the tour this year, available when tickets are purchased.

A record 42.3 million tons of livestock and poultry feed was manufactured in the United States in 1961—seven per cent more than in 1960.
