

Lions Torch Mortgage, Promise More Support

The Lions cottage at Boys Home at Lake Waccamaw is free of all encumbrances today but Lions are not pulling out. It is, they say, "a torch of more to come."

The mortgage on the cottage was burned in a special ceremony Saturday at the Home as the concluding feature of a luncheon on the lawn and words of praise by members from Murphy to the Atlantic.

Wallace Best of Wilmington, director of International Lions, reviewed the history of the club's project and concluded with the statement that the note burning "climaxes a happy moment in our lives."

"The burning of the mortgage," he declared, "is not the end of our support for Boys Home but a torch of more to come."

Greetings and continued offers for greater things for Boys Home were voiced by Lions from near and distant points.

Ben Horne of Monroe, chairman of Lions state council and of governor of District 31-E, spoke for North Carolina Lions in praising the accomplishment. Roy H. Sandlin of Wrightsville

Beach, Boys Home chairman for District 31-H, said, "we are here to take pride in what Lions have done and to look forward to the future for still greater things."

Lions E. R. Graham of Aberdeen, Robert W. Easley, Jr. of Murphy and Grady R. Pulliam of Winston Salem, governors of Districts 31-F, 31-A and 31-D, respectively, were principal figures in the burning of the mortgage.

C. J. Wiggs of Fayetteville presided as master of ceremonies. Wiggs is Lions statewide Boys Home chairman and also Boys Home chairman for his District 31-F. Mrs. Dixie Livingston Martin of Fayetteville led the 100-odd present in the singing of "America," while Leroy Collum, one of the boys, led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Kenneth Moore offered the invocation and Director R. N. McCray welcomed the visitors.

Hugh T. Jones of Ahsokie, governor of District 31-J, gave the response, thanking Lions present and those across the state.

Judge Coleman C. Cates, Jr., of Burlington, Lions liaison officer to Boys Home, gave the dedicatory prayer.

The benediction was pronounced by Leon Spencer of Raleigh, District 31-G chairman for Boys Home.

The $65,000 Lions cottage is the second to be built on the 33-acre tract overlooking inviting Lake Waccamaw to the south. The first was the Civitan cottage which was occupied in 1958. A third, the Junior Chamber of Commerce home, is under construction now with June as the completion time.

Dubois Starts Term

Leo Dubois of Old Dock has withdrawn his appeal on a sentence to life in prison and departed today for Central Prison at Raleigh to start serving the sentence, the Clerk of Court's office reported at noon.

Dubois was convicted May 11 for the murder last December 8 of Davis Preston Williams, 57, at the Dubois home. The jury, after studying the case for an hour and a half, returned a verdict of guilty with a recommendation for mercy, which verdict made the life term mandatory.

The sentence was handed down by Judge Henry L. McKinnon of Lumberton.

ODELL JENRETTE

S. BUNN FRINK CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

I have served in the Senate of North Carolina four terms and I am now serving as Representative from Brunswick County.

While serving in the General Assembly of North Carolina I have, among many other things, sponsored and worked diligently for the following:

- (1) Removal of tolls from Cape Fear River Bridge (accomplished).
- (2) Establishment of deep water port facilities in Southport ($500,000 approved and now ready to be spent).
- (3) Establishment and operation of ferry service between Southport and Carolina Beach (has now been recommended by a committee of the State Highway Commission and Governor Sanford).
- (4) All-Seashore Highway system from Virginia to South Carolina (many hearings held and the prospects are promising).
- (5) Improvements, widening and establishment of U. S. Highway #17 as a four-lane highway from Virginia to South Carolina line (many hearings held and in many instances work in progress).
- (6) Deepening and cleaning out Waccamaw River in order to properly drain many thousands of acres of land in Brunswick and Columbus Counties. (Several hearings have been held with the Army Engineers. Prospects are good).
- (7) Deepening, widening and maintaining Shallotte and Lockwood's Folly Inlets.
- (8) Planting of oysters and promoting oyster industry (thousands of bushels have already been planted).
- (9) To secure money from the State and Federal Governments for building and construction of school facilities such as classrooms and athletic buildings, and thereby save the local taxpayers the expense of same.
- (10) For an educational system in our County and State second to none.

The foregoing are a few of the important matters for which I have worked hard and diligently, and if I am elected I shall continue my efforts in behalf of them. Please go to the polls on May 26 and vote to help me help you secure the above named worthy projects. I have been doing my best and wish to assure you that I shall continue, but to do so I must have your help.
