MRS. WILLIAM ELLIOTT HICKMAN

Miss Anita Tunstall Weds
William Elliott Hickman

Miss Anita Tunstall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Archie Tunstall, became the bride of William Elliott Hickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Elliott Hickman of Southport, in a lovely afternoon double ring ceremony solemnized Saturday at four o'clock in the First Methodist Church in Hickory. The Rev. J. Garland Winkler, pastor of the church, officiated.
 Wedding music was presented by Bob Stark, vocalist, and Larry Lowder, organist. Serving as acolyte was Henry Cleveland Tunstall, brother of the bride.
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length original wedding gown of peau de soie, fully lined. Her fitted bodice featured a sculptured neckline embellished with seed pearls on hand-clipped chantilly lace and long tapered sleeves. Tiny pearl covered buttons graced the back and sleeve openings. Double fashion bows graced the piped basque back waistline. Her princess controlled front skirt scattered with chantilly lace medallions flowed from deep double pleats into a fully fanned chapel train. Her contour crown of seed pearls and iridescent jeweled chantilly lace held a two tier fingertip veil of imported English illusion. She carried a white Bible given to her by her maternal grandmother, centered with a white orchid and satin streamers tied into love knots. The bride also carried a lace handkerchief which was carried by her grandmother in her wedding sixty years ago.
 Mrs. William Hal Farrell, Jr.,

featured a scoop neckline with a beaded sheer yoke and short sleeves. Her piled waistline held a lined slim silk organza skirt with a fully gathered silk organza back panel falling loosely to hemline. She wore a controlled pillbox style hat of powder and copan blue shasta petals of organza peau and a white orchid corsage.
 The groom's mother wore a summer gold gown of silk chiffon over matching silk taffeta. Her chantilly lace bodice featured a round neckline. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of brown cymbidium orchids.
 The maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Henry Frances Taylor, Sr., wore a dress of sapphire blue lace and a white carnation corsage. The paternal grandmother, Mrs. Robert Cleveland Tunstall, was dressed in navy and had a corsage of white carnations.
 Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Lake Hickory Country Club.
 The bride is a graduate of Clarmont Central High School. She attended Appalachian State Teachers College and is now employed in the office of Central Telephone Company, Hickory.
 Son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Elliott Hickman of Southport, the bridegroom attended Southport High School, graduated from the University of North Carolina where he was vice president of the Delta Sigma Pi fraternity. He is a member of the Hickory Bachelor's Club. He is associated with the Pillsbury Company.
 For traveling the bride changed to a suit of white trimmed in blue with matching blue accessories and a white orchid corsage. After a wedding trip to Saint Simons Island, the couple will make their home at 35-31st Ave., N. W.
 Those attending the wedding from Southport were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gilbert, Mrs. Harold Aldridge and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hickman. Mr. and Mrs. Randy Grant, Jr. of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson, of Greensboro also attended.
