THE MIDWATCH

By CHIEF CUNNINGHAM

The Officer in Charge of Navy Recruiting in North Carolina recently informed this station that many quotas for Navy high school graduate training programs have not been filled.

Harvey Alvis Smith of Southport and Herman Strickland of Winnabow were recently enlisted in the Navy. Both were enlisted under the guaranteed technical school training program for qualified high school graduates for training in the electronics field.

Technology. We hate to miss an opportunity to mention these things.

We were also informed that a WAVE recruiter has been assigned to the Raleigh area at long last, so if any of you girls have hesitated to inquire about enlisting in the Navy because you were reluctant to talk to a man, we don't really believe you're girls.

The publicity department of Navy Recruiting in Raleigh announced that some new film is available for showing to any group interested. Included are "Sub Killers", "Beneath Navy Wings" and "A Salute to Arleigh Burke".

So long for this midwatch. I'll see most of you next Thursday, since I only got enough blueberries for two pies last week, and they're gone already.

For 1962 North Carolina farmers will be required to maintain their 1959-60 average acreage of conserving and idle land on the farm in order to be eligible for price support on soybeans.

Price, wants to avoid increasing soybean acreage at the expense of acreage now under conservation practices.

We were also informed that a WAVE recruiter has been assigned to the Raleigh area at long last, so if any of you girls have hesitated to inquire about enlisting in the Navy because you were reluctant to talk to a man, we don't really believe you're girls.

If you are a Brunswick county baseball fan who has not been seeing enough of the sport lately, you have an opportunity to correct this at the movies this week. "Safe At Home" is playing tonight at the Amuzu Theater in Southport and at the Holliday Drive-In at Shallotte next Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday.

This movie stars Mickey Mantle and home run king Roger Maris. It has Bill Frawley, of "My Three Sons", as New York Yankee coach Jim Turner. Whitey Ford also appears for a brief moment.
