

Miss Dorothy Tipton Hancock Bride Of William Hugh Gray

Miss Dorothy Tipton Hancock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duke Hogan Hancock, Jr. of Greenville, S. C., became the bride of William Hugh Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bellamy Gray of Supply on Saturday at 11:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. John Q. Davis in Spartanburg, S. C., where the bride has made her home for the past three years.

Rev. Daltrum L. Poston heard the marriage vows, using the double ring ceremony, and organ music was presented by Mr. Samuel Woodruff.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Duke Hogan Hancock, Jr., and the groom was attended by his father, Mr. Hugh Bellamy Gray, as best man.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress of taffeta and lace, which was an exact reproduction of her grandmother's dress. The lovely dress had been hand reproduced by her grandmother using the original lace and drop-skirt. Her veil of illusion was held by a lace crown of seeded pearls and sequins, and she carried a white orchid with stephanotis and fern on her Bible.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. John L. Smoak, wore a dress of aqua silk organza over taffeta, and carried a cascade of pale yellow mums.

Following a reception at the home the couple left on their wedding trip. The bride wore a white silk suit with matching accessories. On their return the couple will be at home at 734 Hillview St., Converse Heights, Spartanburg, S. C.

The bride attended Seneca, S. C. High School and received her B. S. degree in Home Economics from Winthrop. She is now employed as Home Service Advisor for the Duke Power Co. in the Spartanburg, S. C. The groom at-
