The (8672) has received the US Army Reserve Program Superior Unit Award the last three consecutive years. One of the principal reasons for the profifiency of the unit, as evidenced by this award, has been the excellent trainging it has received at SPART. The commanding officer expressed his thanks not only for the fine training the unit has received at SPART in prior years, but also for the excellent manner the officers and men have been re-ceived in the adjoining commities of Southport and Wilmington.

The unit is scheduled to depart from SPART on Saturday,

(8672) arrived at Sunny Point June 13, and return to its home

Brunswick County Board of Elections Tuesday to decide the outcome of the race for county commissioners affecting two townships in Saturday's primary elect-A recount of ballots in this race for eight precincts resulted in the ouster of R. L. Rabon of Town Creek township as one of the winning commissioner candidates, putting A. Clemit Holden of Lockwoods Folly township in the lead for the fifth seat. He is subject to a call for a second primary run-off from Ira L. Chad-

This was the aftermath of an election which saw a large vote cast in races ranging from governor to township constable.

Dr. I. Beverly Lake carried Brunswick with 2333 votes to 1823 for L. Richardson Preyer, who finished in first place in the state. A weak third in Brunswick was Dan K. Moore, who polled 945 votes, but who finished a strong second in the State. Dr. Lake was

In the Republican gubernatorial race, Robert L. Gavin, picking up votes in evry county precinct, had little trouble in crushing his two opponents.

Kidd Brewer topped the list of who visited Brunswick county during the campaign, rolled up 515 votes while Donald Badgley and Charles Strong both had 13 votes each.

Kidd Brewer toped the list of minor candidates on the Democratic ticket for governor with 30 votes while R. J. Stanbury had 25 and Bruce Burleson 22.

There was great local interest in the race for House of Representatives between Odell Williamson and W. J. McLamb, with Williamson gaining a decision 2659 to 2377. In the race for the State Senate in Brunswick Carl Meares led Sanky Robinson 2127 to 1942. Meares lost in Bladen county but carried Columbus county with enough strength to win the nom-ville township led all others in the commissioner's race. He had 2313 votes to 1574 for F. Her-

Official May 30 Primary Returns

TIME and TIDE

It was June 3, 1959, and Dr. Norman Hornstein of Southport landed the first blue marlin of the season in Brunswick county waters. Hilda King of Freeland was selected the Brunswick Dairy Princess and was runner-up in the district event. Some 70 per cent of the land in the county was classified as woodsland or waste by a farm census report released that Monday. Reginald Turner, formerly of Shallotte, was elected principal at Southport High School. Elliott Hickman and Lewis J. Hardee, Jr., both of Southport, graduated from the University of North Carolina.

It was June 2, 1954, and Ray Walton, Kirby Sullivan and Earl Bellamy were victors in the Democratic primary Saturday. The Southport Board of Aldermen was sponsoring a slogan contest to find a suitable phrase for the 1955 city license plates.

Mrs. G. L. Skipper of Town Creek was the sweepstakes winner at the County Home Demonstration Club's flower show. Southport charter boats were bringing in large catches of king mackerel. Adrain Willetts of Winnabow was a student at North
