Now In Raleigh

The North Carolina General Assembly convened today (Wednesday) on Raleigh and for the first time in history Brunswick county has two representatives in the lower house. This situation was not caused by a redistricting plan that gave

Brunswick two men all her own, but rather is the result of the combination of Brunswick and Columbus counties into the 13th

House District, which has two representatives. His colleague will be Clyde Collier of Colum-county in the Seventh Congressional District. On matters of taxation he says he will not support legislation to increase

Job Openings

The Manager of Employment Service Mobile Team reports that to date 408 persons have filed application for work in Brunswick County. "This is a good response so far, but in order to present a complete picture of the available work force for Brunswick County many more applicants are needed", stated the Manager. "We have in hand now quite a few job openings in the Wilmington area and some in Brunswick county for qualified applicants", he said.

The Mobile Team came bere on January 16th under the sponsorship of the Resources Development Commission of Brunswick County, to provide Employ-ment Services to the citizens of this Area and to compile a Man-

Homecoming At Leland High Friday Night

By JIGGS POWERS LELAND--Homecoming adivities at Leland High School, Friday night, Feb. 10, will be featured by a three-game bas-ketball bill, also the annual LHS Homecoming Queen Contest and Homecoming celebration.

Coach Joe Best's Leland Tiger teams will meet the Bolivia Bears outfits in a tripleheader Homecoming affray, beginning with the 6 p.m. contest between the Tigerette and Lady Bruingirls' teams.

A jayvee battle between the aby Tigs and the Baby Bears will follow the girls' game and the night of basketball will be concluded by the big varsity boys' fracas. All of the games will count in both the Brunswick County and Lower Cape Fear Conference standings.

One of the top highlights of the program will be the climax of the Homecoming Queen contest, under the direction of Mrs. Hilda W. Council, a member of the Leland High faculty. Four pretty Leland girls have been in the running for the Queen title and the winner will be crowned at halftime ceremonies during the boys' varsity finale.

Mrs. Frankie Rabon, who as Miss Brenda Harrelson was the 1966 Homecoming Queen, will be present to crown the new queen. Mrs. Rabon now resides at Winnabow.

The Beta and Monogram Clubs of the school are co-sponsors of the Homecoming Program. The girls in the Homecoming Queen event are representatives of each class in the school. They are Beth Blake, Senior Class; Janie Wilkins, Junior; Para Cor-bett, Sophomore; and Cindy Nobles, Freshman.

Mrs. Council said that gifts will also be presented to the oldest mother present at the game; to the youngest mother on hand; and to the mother with the most children enrolled in Leland school.

Notes on the four Homecoming Queen candidates:

BETH BLAKE, a senior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Blake of Leland; is cocaptain of the Tigerettes Varsity basketball team; is a member of the Beta Club, is secretary of the Brunswick County Betas, is business manager of the Leland High School yearbook, "Lehian"; editor of the school newspaper, "Tigers Roar"; is also a member of the Girls' Chorus and the Monogram Club, and is a class superlative.

JANIE WILKINS, junior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilkins of Leland; is the other Tigerettes co-captain: is a member of the Girls' Chorus, Science, Math and Monogram Clubs.

PAM CORBETT, sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy M. Corbett of Leland; is a member of the Tigerette varsity basketball club; is also a member of the Betas, Library, Glee, Math, Science and Monogram Clubs; and holds membership in the Future Homemakers of America and in the Girls' Chorus.

CINDY NOBLES, freshman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Soles of Leland. She is a Tigerette Cheerleader and is a member of the Math Club, Glee Club and Science Club and is also affiliated with the Leland chapter of the FHA.

Farm Bureau Leaders And Solons Talk

"We must go for mechanization in tobacco to keep in the business of small farming," stated Ira L. Chadwick, president of the Brunswick County Farm Bureau during a dinner meet with legislators and legislative committee members from Brunswick, Bladen and Columbus county at the Cape Fear Restaurant near Elizabethtown Tuesday

J. S. Melvin, president of the Bladen County Farm Bureau, was host for the meeting. Mrs. J. S. Melvin, president of the Bladen County Ladies Committee, was hostess for the ladies attending. About 25 persons were present.

"The fault of not having modern day mechanization in tobacco and blueberries lies in the Extension stated Jimmy Department," Green, State Senator representing the three counties. "We need to stand up for the farm-It seems the Extension Service caters to the wants of the small business, and the farmers just aren't pushing hard enough for the mechanization they need and want to produce the quantity of crops expected for

Chadwick At Durham Meet

Ira L. Chadwick, president of the Brunswick County Farm Bureau, attended County Farm Bureau President's Conference at the Jack Tar Hotel, Durham with members from the 100 counties of North Carolina.

"The annual conference gave the presidents an opportunity to consider problems that are involved in our programs on county, state and national levels" said President Chadwick.

"There are many legislative problems c problems coming up that I think might benefit the farmers of Eastern North Carolina and particularly our region that Farm Bureau supports," said Chad-
