Hello there!
July 4th is almost here with the parade at Southport and all the beach parties planned. It really sounds like a day of excitement and lots of fun. Parties, art festival, bands playing and beautiful girls ear mark the Festival as a day of activity for all ages. If you've never been to Southport for the Festival, plan to go this year, it's FUN!

The Harold Milliken family of Florida is visiting here now. Our congratulations to the new Mr. and Mrs. Milton F. Smith. Mrs. Smith is the former Glenda Sue Reeves of the Thomasboro area.

The new addition to the Calabash seafood industry is a drive-in restaurant, and according to Mrs. J. Pearlite Russ of Ocean Isle, they serve delicious "Brunswick Seafood." Of course all of the folks at Calabash serve only the best, but we just cannot wait to drive up to the new one and get served while we wait. That means you can come as you are!

The Bobby L. Gores of Ocean Isle are living in New Jersey now. The Jacob Jones family have moved to the Ocean Isle area and plan to make it their home. Welcome!

Miss Patty Wilbur of Ocean-side, Calif., arrived today for a summer visit with her aunt, Mrs. Robie Piver of Ash.

R. B. Hewett, Jr., is out the hospital after having bone surgery.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family of Nancy Sellers and Mr. Kopp of Bolivia.

Mrs. Abner Knowles of Bolivia has returned after visiting the Stanley Knowles family of Ft. Worth, Texas.

Don't forget! If you're planning a picnic in the Holden Beach area, stop by Corbett's Motel and purchase all your goodies. All proceeds go the Holden Beach Fire Department.

The Billy Cheers family of Shallotte is building a new home on N.C. 130 about a mile from town. Looks nice and spacious. We see our good friend Lennel W. Hewett doing the carpenter work, too!

Just recently the Rusty Burger House at Shallotte was expanded by Durbin Varnam and his carpenter buddies. I believe someone said that we were to have a "Chicken Specialty" or maybe "Mammies Chicken" there. Durbin is the "guitar-picking" carpenter and one of the WVCC-Country Corner personalities. And he does the finest "house-building" there is anywhere around, too!

Miss Diane Clemmons is in Raleigh this week for N.C. State University orientation. Good luck, Diane.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamp McBride's daughter just graduated from a branch of the University and now is planning a job in Kingsport, Tenn. The McBrides operate the famous Islander Restaurant at Ocean Isle.

Mrs. Margie Long of Shallotte is visiting her daughter Judy and family in Georgia for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Stone and Miss Diane Jackson of Rockingham are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Stone of Shallotte this week.

The former Miss Yvonne Lewis of Boones Neck was honored with a birthday party Saturday night.

The new Mrs. Lena H. Jones was honored with a shower Friday night at the home of her mother, Mrs. Shula Hewett of the Silver Hill community.

The "Little Denmark" is in full operation now at Shallotte Point under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Neilson. They specialize in "Sunday Buffet" for all the family.

Mrs. Don Baker and friends of Rose Hill were vacationing here last week.

From Janice Carrol, age 9, comes the following:

The Fourth of July is my favorite day, Lot's of excitement and games to play, Fireworks, cookouts, and carnivals, too, Make the day lots of fun for me and you.

Have fun, and drive carefully. The life you save could be your own.

Capt. and Mrs. Bill Leadford and children of Grissetown were visiting family and friends in Tennessee recently.

Miss Elneda Hewett is at Duke Hospital today undergoing a special examination for her heart surgery about four years ago. She is a living example of open heart surgery. She is an active 4-H'er and takes part in many activities. Good luck, Porky!

After a day at the beach, drive by the Robo Wash in Shallotte and get the family car all clean again. The traffic is heavy at Robo.

Have you found Robo? It's located next door to Tripp's Jewel Shop in the Mid-Town Shopping Center.

Mrs. Edna Mae Fulford is a surgical patient in New Hanover Memorial Hospital and we hope she's soon feeling fine again.

The Dayton Rhodes family of Thomasville are repainting their new home on N.C. 130 in the Oak Grove Community.

The Ronnie Clemmons of Winnabow are cleaning the debris from their new lot in the same area, awaiting construction of a new home.

The Leo Hewetts have recently moved in their new mobile home, also.

If you're planning a special dessert, yet simple, try a speedy peach pie:

Margarine
1/2 cup flour
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup milk
1 tsp. baking powder
2 cups ripe peaches, slightly sweetened

Dot bottom of 1-quart baking dish generously with the margarine. Mix flour, sugar, milk and baking powder; pour into baking dish. Add peaches. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. This comes from Mrs. Marion G. Smith of Joliet, Ill.

With the fresh peaches we see around the county, this just might serve as your favorite dessert.

Have you tried coffee dreams? You take a can of biscuits and stretch into 4-inch circles. Place on a cookie sheet. Butter generously. Press 1 cup brown sugar and nuts (mixed) into the biscuit circles. The two cups should cover them generously. Bake at 450 degrees for about 8 minutes. Good luck.

See you at the 4th of July Festival at Southport!

MRS. HOMER MCKEITHAN, JR.

Miss Deann Renee Walkling Is Bride Of Homer G. McKeithan, Jr.

The wedding of Deann Renee Walkling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walkling, Hampstead, and Mr. Homer Gladstone McKeithan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer G. McKeithan, Southport, took place Saturday afternoon in Baker Memorial Chapel, Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md. The Rev. Arthur L. Brown, grandfather of the groom, Smithfield, performed the double-ring ceremony. A dedication service followed and was performed by the Rev. Donald T. McIntosh, pastor of Anacostia United Methodist Church, Washington, D.C.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ankle-length A-line Victorian gown of antique ivory silk peau de soie, fashioned with an Elizabethan collar of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The elbow length sleeves were edged with a deep double ruffle of the matching lace. The coronation dome of Alencon lace was the base for the silk illusion veil which flowed over the cathedral train. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink and white roses, baby's breath, and greenery, tied with silk streamers of the dress fabric. Both the gown and headpiece were designed and hand-fashioned by the bride's mother.

The maid of honor, Miss Diane Wheeler, Hampstead, was gowned in an ankle-length A-line Scotch linen azalea pink gown trimmed with white organdy collar, and short sleeves. Her headpiece was of matching pink floor-length tulle. She carried a natural wicker bird cage filled with ivy, 2 pink rosebuds and a white feather dove.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Calhoun, Miss Deborah Shaffer, Hampstead; Miss Colleen Clohan, Martinsburg, W. Va.; Miss Loretta Palmer and Miss Sandra Patterson, Waynesboro, Va.; Miss Barbara Kumber, Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. Robert McKeithan, Southport; Miss Ruann Newcomer, Leesburg, Va.; and Miss Nancy Spraker, Salem, Va. They wore gowns like that of the honor attendant in petal pink and also carried the wicker cage.

Flower girls were Miss Ashley Leister, Winston-Salem; Misses Serita and Lisa Zumbrun, Upperco, all three cousins of the bride. They were attired in ankle-length azalea pink gowns overlaid with white organza, accented with back organza bow. They carried wicker fireside basket arrangements of pink rosebuds, ivy, and a white dove.

The groom's father served as his best man. Groomsmen were the bridegroom's brother Robert McKeithan, Southport, Mr. John Dail, Smithfield, Neil Louis, Jacksonville, Fla., Robert Willis, Winchester, Va., cousins of the groom; Michael Leister and Mr. Anthony Leister, Camp Hill, Pa., cousins of the bride; Donald Spencer, Louisville, Kentucky; Charles Walker, Fredericksburg, Va.; Randolph Wright, Harrisonburg, Va., college roommates of the groom; and James Zumbrun, U.S. Special Forces, Vietnam, cousin of the bride.

Organist was Wade A. Mas-sengill of Four Oaks. Soloist was Charles G. Bissett, Millers, Md., Trumpeters were Mr. Ross Merryman, Hampstead; Mr. Gary Stein, Harrisburg, Pa.; and Mr. Vic Woods, Chambersburg, Pa.

Miss Peggy Bare, Hampstead, cousin of the bride, served at the guest book.

The bride's mother was attired in ruby linen and silk, with matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a mint green dress trimmed in lace, and matching accessories.

yellow linen hat.
Mrs. McKeithan attended Fort Wayne Bible College, Ft. Wayne, Indiana and Towson State College, Towson, Md. Mr. McKeithan attended Wilmington College, Wilmington, and The School of Music, Southwestern Seminary, Ft. Worth, Texas. Both Mr. and Mrs. McKeithan received Bachelor's Degrees from Shenandoah Conservatory of Music, Winchester, Virginia.

The couple will reside in Southport until August when they will be going to Ft. Worth, Texas, where Mr. McKeithan will enter Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary as a ministerial student.

Don't judge this garden work from a money-saving point of view, as you could probably buy the products cheaper at the grocery store. The creativeness of working with your hands and living plants, and the thrilling taste of your own vegetables ten-minutes-out-of-the garden, is a vanishing pleasure that everyone should experience, especially the teenagers. And have pretty hands, as well.
