Tornado Nips Bucs, 10 To 9

By JIGGS POWERS
SHALLOTTE — Coach Gene Winfree's hard-luck Shallotte Pirates saw a glimmer of hope here in the final inning, Monday afternoon, but they had already spotted Fairmont's Golden Tornadoes too much lead with their misuses and the Robeson Countians managed to edge the local Bucs, 10-9, in a Waccamaw AA contest.

Shallotte, which had 7 errors against it here, Monday, was losing its 7th straight game and its record was 1-11 in the WAA; 2-12 overall after the game here. Coach Wayne Bullard's Fairmont crew was 10-2 in loop action at its top-spot, had an overall mark of 16-2 for the season at the time.

Shallotte is due to play Whiteville's Wolfpack here, Friday at 4 p.m. to end its 1971 schedule. Fairmont goes to Hallsboro on Saturday night at 7:30 to end its card, also.

The Pirates committed 7 errors in Monday's game, and by virtue of their misuses, Fairmont held a 5-3 lead when the 7th, and final, inning began. Then, the local defense became solvent again and Fairmont piled up 5 runs to make its lead, 10-3. Shallotte made a strong effort to overcome its deficit but, though it compiled 6 runs in its last chance, it was not enough and victory was missing.

Mike Winfree hit 2 for 4, Elton Stanley 2 for 5, Tommy Inman collected a 2-run homer in the 6th inning for the Pirates. For the Tornadoes, Winning Pitcher Eldon McDaniel hit a double and triple in his 3-for-5 average; Frank Floyd added 2 for 4.

Trojans Down Leland Outfit

By JIGGS POWERS
LELAND — Acme-Delco's Trojans edged past Leland's Tigers, 4-3, in a non-conference game here, Monday afternoon, with Ray Croom winning the mound nod over Leland's Shaun Spencer.

However, Croom tired and received good help from Mark Brewer in posting the mound win. Brewer came in with one out in the 6th inning and fanned the final 5 batters to face the Trojan mounds corps. Croom had 6 strikeouts, 5 walks to his credit; Spencer fanned 4, walked 3.

Jeff Scott led Leland's 10-hit attack with 2 for 4, one a double; Donnie Sellers hit 2 for 4, Roger Corbett had 2 for 4, with a triple and Ethel Bell hit had 2 for 2.

Best for Acme-Delco was Keith Brewer with 2 for 3, the same average David Bigford compiled.

It was Acme-Delco's 10th decision in 14 outings. Leland hosts Bolivia here, Friday night at 8 p.m.
