Hello there!
We're back from Raleigh and enjoyed the trip immensely. We came back from Whiteville with the folks from the State Port Pilot. When we arrived in Shallotte I had forgotten about the detour, so we took them by way of Red Bug, almost to Shell Point, and then on home. If you don't know where you're going, you'd just better not begin on those winding roads. But it didn't take too long.
While in Whiteville, we had a barbecue sandwich at Joe's Barbecue. This is some of the best home-made barbecue you would want. Mrs. Joe Hyatt gave us a Crimson Glory Triple Rose. It's magnificent. It's just beautiful in front of the restaurant. I would just like to have a garden of those.

Did you have a great Mother's Day? How did you share your mother with others? Or do you share with others? Here's a few words from Jennette Crandall that I would like to share with you:
It's funny how a mother's kiss

Can soothe the hardest aches.
I wonder if I'll ever know The many things it takes To keep a daughter happy.
I wonder if I'll ever be A girl's best friend, the way My mother is to me. And then,
I wonder, if I talked all night,
If I could ever say just right What mothers mean to girls.

Dear Mom, perhaps you know this day
My heart gives you your dues.
Though I can wear your aprons now
I doubt I'll EVER fill your shoes.
And to mother, we say God bless you always. Let's give our mothers the flowers while they live. Let's cherish them while we can and then when they're gone we will have only pleasant memories.

The "detour" to Holden Beach from Shallotte, will soon be completed, thank goodness, and I know us working folks will be more than glad. This detouring is for the birds!

Mrs. Bonnie Evans, little Chrystal, Jackie and Suzanne, Mrs. Sandra Hewett and little Handy, and Mrs. Lynn Wolf and little Erica were visiting Mrs. Lee Prevatte of Elizabethtown recently.

Mrs. Goldalene Bellamy, Mrs. Pauline Varnam and Mrs. Doris Danford each entertained a number of guests at Tupperware parties last week.

Mrs. Linda Combs and little Billy are visiting the Combs family in the mountains for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Evans are back from Florida for the summer.
Oneal and Chancie Hewett, Luree and Ish Chadwick and Vance Hewett were having Sunday dinner together this past week.

Norman and Faye McKinney of Holden Beach were dining in Myrtle Beach, S.C. Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hewett, Little Robert D. and Wendy were enjoying an outdoors picnic in Wilmington Sunday.

Rob and Janice Hewett have moved in their lovely new home.

The Rodney Grays have a lovely mobile home now.

Having Sunday dinner with Mrs. Ethel Hewett were Mrs. Darnella Evans and children, Richard, Rhonda, Kathy, Deedee, and Shelly; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Gray, Mrs. Donnie McCall and Carolyn, James C. Hewett.

And having Sunday dinner with Mrs. Mary Sellers were Martha and little Jamie.

Mrs. Jesse Williams had most of her children home with her for Mother's Day.

To make very inexpensive curtains for the bedrooms, buy an extra sheet or two with the pretty borders to match, and make lovely drapes. The bottom can be scalloped or edged with pretty trim. This hint comes from our Aunt Mildred Potter. She has loads of money-saving ideas, and we just love to visit her and hear them. She also has a GREEN thumb and grows the most beautiful flowers in Brunswick. She has many flower-friends all over the world who exchange flowers and cuttings with her. What a wonderful hobby!

Today we read in a daily newspaper that approximately 15,000 troops are coming back soon to the U.S. addicted to heroin. The effects have been seen in crime, suicide, and degradation of some unable to kick the habit when they return home.

Some come home and, without money, begin robbing, killing and any other crime that will give them the money to buy the drugs. Use of drugs by servicemen is worse than earlier indicated. Granted that many servicemen do not use drugs, some in Southeast Asia become victims because they are easily obtained. Get them away from temptation by ending the war.

Soon the seniors will be graduating and going out into the world on their own, going away to college, finding jobs, but most of all finding themselves. The way of life is simple, complicated, beautiful, ugly and many other adjectives that you might describe it, but it is just what you make of it. If the world smiles, smile. If the world doesn't smile, you still smile, and then whole world will smile with you.

See you next week!
