Brunswick Saddle Club

Inaugural Horse Show Draws 500

By SUSAN GREENE
Were you one of the over 500 people at the Brunswick Saddle Club's English-Western Playday last Sunday? If not, you missed a real treat. Over 60 horses competed for ribbons in 24 classes, with exhibitors from as far away as Loris, S.C., and Whiteville, although most were from our area. "Junior" Stewart was our judge, with Mrs. Victor Sullivan at the announcer's mike.

In the opening ceremony Miss N.C. Fourth of July, Mary Tomlinson of Southport, cut the ribbon to officially open Midway Arena, with the Rev. William Deneke of St. Phillip's Episcopal Church offering the dedicatory prayer. The National Anthem followed the grand entry of Brunswick Saddle Club members.

The arena was in beautiful shape, with fresh white fence rails and sandy footing. The Western events were very accurately timed by the new digital readout timer operated by John Greene, who also designed the P.A. system. The classes began at 1:30 and continued until dark. Good food and drinks were in abundance at the concession stand, and the favorite drink varied from iced cola in the warm mid-afternoon to hot chocolate as dusk brought a chill to the air.

The whole show was a big success, and we are grateful to the many people who helped in operating the show and by sponsoring classes. We look forward to even larger crowds at our next show on Saturday, May 4, at 11 o'clock.

State Museum Slides Shown

Mrs. Daisy Slate, Mrs. Frances Harrelson and Mrs. Mary Gilbert served refreshments to 22 guests and members of the Oak Island Extension Homemakers Club as they assembled for their March meeting in the fellowship hall of the United Methodist Church on the island.

The president, Mrs. Ethel Clark, called the meeting to order, and Mrs. Amy Barnard accompanied the ladies, on the piano, in singing the song of the month, "Down In The Valley."

The devotional was given by Mrs. Maxine Swartz. "Acceptance" was the theme of the timely devotional during the Lent season, quoting from Luke 15:3-7. The devotional was closed with prayer.

Mrs. Clark turned the meeting over to Mrs. Elizabeth Brollin, chairman of Cultural Arts. The club retired to a dark room that had been set up for the special program, "North Carolina's Museum of Art."

Mrs. Bowlin, assisted by Mrs. Esther Cotton, presented the art program. She gave a brief history of N.C. Art Museum which houses over 1,000 paintings, frescoes and statuary.

In 1949, the N.C. Legislature appropriated money to buy additional art. Using colored slides that are representative of the art museum in Raleigh, the program was an historical study of 40 objects d'art.

American portrait painting was represented by Rembrandt Peale, John Singleton Copley and Benjamin West. The two portraits by Rembrandt that are in Raleigh were shown. Other works from the Flemish and Dutch School of Art were by Peter Paul Reubens and Granz Hals. Italian religious art was represented by Raphael. Two masterpieces by the Spanish Artist Francisco Goya were viewed.

After the display of the art club returned to the meeting room. The minutes and roll call were given by the secretary, Mrs. Mary Alam Connor, and were approved. The treasurer, Mrs. Slate gave her report. Business, both old and new, was discussed.

A petition objecting to unfair share of cost by homeowners for L.P. gas, a crude oil product, was signed. The petition was mailed to the President of the United States, Congressman Charlie Rose, Sen. Jesse Helms and Rep. Thomas Harrelson.

Mrs. Julia Seibert and Miss Harriet Seibert reminded everyone of the gardening workshop held March 22, president by Archie Martin of the Agricultural Extension Department for Brunswick
