Paul Pittenger, director of the Brunswick Concert Band, led his musicians in a performance at the recent Founders Day celebration. The band will play again during the N. C. Fourth of July celebration.

The usually dignified members of the Southport Woman's Club did an unusual bit of fund-raising, culminating with a "Tacky Party" last week. Each month for three months members purchased sealed bags containing items for the head, the body and the feet. For the June meeting they put their mismatched outfits together and shared laughs inspecting everyone's "tacky" outfits.
