Brunswick Shores effort falls short

Post 68 wins, 445 loses finale

While Brunswick County American Legion Post 68 remained in regular-season pursuit of first place in Area II's Eastern League Friday night with a 3-0 win over Warsaw, Post 10 maintained its game lead on the Leland team by crushing Brunswick Shores Post 445, 16-1.

Coach Ed Lewis' Post 68 outfit increased its record to 15-2 and 18-3 overall with the win over Warsaw as Casey McBride, a rising sophomore at North Brunswick and brother of UNC-W rising sophomore Chris McBride, tossed a four-hitter while striking out five and walking four.

Ironically, Chris threw a four-hitter the previous night, losing to Wilmington Post 10 in a 5-2 defeat.

Casey (5-1) also helped his own cause with an RBI double. Kelly

Myers of Acme-Delco collected two hits and drove in a run. Shortstop Ed Lewis drove in the other Brunswick run.

Post 68 scored lone runs in the first, third and seventh frames -- more than enough runs behind the hard-throwing McBride.

At Legion Stadium in Wilmington, Post 10 pounded out 14 hits and took advantage of five Brunswick Shores' errors to push 16 runs across the plate.

Coach Dave Brewster's team scored four times in the first inning, twice in the second and once in the third to take a commanding 7-0 advantage after three innings.

The Port City crew came up with six more runs in a big seventh after they scored three the previous inning. Brunswick Shores' lone run came in the top of the ninth.

Brunswick Shores collected only five hits off Post 10 pitching.

Chris Lamarsh collected three hits in three trips to the plate for the winners and Brian Britt collected two hits. Jason Bracey doubled for Brunswick Shores.

Brunswick Shores' quest for a playoff berth was thwarted with the emergence of Wilmington Winter Park in the final week of regular season play.

White playing AAU ball during summer

By George Cox

South Brunswick's premier point guard, Josh White, is playing summer AAU basketball in Wilmington after participating with his teammates in the University of North Carolina at Wilmington team camp last month.

White will shoulder increased responsibility this season in the absence of graduated 6-foot-11 Preston McGriff, bound for the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

The senior Cougar will have to play a different role on a different kind of team next season and head coach Gene Doane is hoping that White will make marked improvement over the summer -- much like Michael Jordan did at Wilmington Laney and at the University of North Carolina.

Great basketball players are born in the hot, stuffy gymnasiums during the summer months. That's where they get to work on the individual aspects of their game. It takes dedication and a lot of work and toil, but paying the price in the summer means great rewards in the winter on the hardwood.

BILL HEWETT, South Brunswick High head football coach, is getting things ready for his annual football camp beginning Monday at the school.

The instructional sessions will stress football fundamentals to all youngsters participating in junior, middle school and high school football.

It's a bargain at $10. The morning sessions, from 9 a.m. until noon July 13-17, will feature Hewett along with his staff of Tim Fitzgerald, Rick Graham, Doyle Brinson, Gene Doane and Heath Hewett, the coach's son, an all-star quarterback while at Elon.

Hewett, whose record includes glory years at Whiteville where his teams captured two state championships, has a career record of 102-43. His other teams at Whiteville finished second, third and fifth in state 2A competition.

At South Brunswick, Hewett will be entering his third season with records of 6-4 and 5-5, including one playoff berth. The knowledgeable mentor will be fighting to produce South Brunswick's third winning season in 11 years when the season opens. The Cougars won their only football title under coach Glenn Sasser in 1986, going 10-2 with a season-ending loss to Union Pines.

The Cougars have had to take a back seat to cross-county rival West Brunswick since Sasser departed as the Trojans football program blossomed under former coach Marshall Seay, who left this spring bound for Polk County. But principal Ed Lemon hired a gem in veteran coach Jim Brett of Tarboro, whose record parallels Hewett's at the 3A level.

CLIFF GIBSON, North Brunswick High basketball coach, recently reflected on the loss of his coaching hero -- Tennessee basketball legend Buck Van Huss. Van Huss established a record of 900-266 in the high school game.

On the wall of Gibson's office in the North Brunswick gymnasium are articles about Van Huss. Gibson got to know the Tennessee coach while playing college basketball at East Tennessee State.

Cougars' football camp is July 13-17

Cougar Football Camp will be held July 13-17 at South Brunswick High School, varsity head coach Bill Hewett announced this week.

The camp, which costs only $10, will feature morning sessions from 9 a.m. until noon. It is designed for boys six through 18 years of age.

"The camp is for young men who have an interest in playing youth league, middle school and junior varsity football," Hewett said. "It will stress football fundamentals, sportsmanship and an overall fun and healthy atmosphere."

All activities will be supervised by a staff that includes Hewett, Tim Fitzgerald, Rick Graham, Doyle Brinson, Gene Doane and Heath Hewett. "Also, former players and coaches have been invited to speak and assist," the Cougar coach said.

Registration will open at 8 a.m. Monday, July 13. (A late registration will be held at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday.) The finals of a punt, pass and kick contest will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday of camp week, and the awards ceremony will begin that day at 11:30 a.m.

The $10 camp fee includes a T-shirt, hamburgers and soft drinks during a "cooling off period" at the end of each session, certificates and trophies.

Participants should bring with them T-shirts, shorts, socks and either football or tennis shoes.

Hewett, who begins his third year at the Cougars helm, has coached two state championship teams -- other teams finished second, third and fifth -- and has an overall won-loss record of 102-43. He teams also have won five conference championships and have taken the field in 23 post-season contests. Among his former players is Chester McGlockton of Whiteville, a first-round NFL pick who recently signed a multi-million-dollar contract with the Los Angeles Raiders.
