BHI employee Harrison receives college funding

Konji Harrison of Boiling Spring Lakes received a $1,000 scholarship recently from the Bald Head Island Education Assistance Program.

Harrison, a rising junior at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, has worked at Bald Head Island as a seasonal employee for the past four summers. Kent Mitchell, president of Bald Head Island Management, Inc., presented the check to Harrison in a brief ceremony July 2.

A 1990 graduate of South Brunswick High School, Harrison was a key player for the Cougars basketball team and in his senior year was named most valuable player. Having maintained a grade point average of 2.7 during his freshman and sophomore years at UNC-C, he plans to major in business law.

"We like to encourage our employees to continue their education and training whenever possible and are pleased to be able to assist them in their efforts," Mitchell commented after presenting the check.

Administered through the personnel department, the Education Assistance Program is designed to provide financial aid to eligible employees who voluntarily pursue approved academic study at accredited educational institutions, according to Sandra Darby, Bald Head Island's vice-president of administration in personnel.

To be eligible for the program, employees must have been seasonal workers for a minimum of two seasons or full-time employees for a minimum of 12 months. In addition, they must be enrolled in a two- or four-year degree program.

Bald Head Island Management also encourages continuing education for its full-time employees through a tuition reimbursement plan, Darby noted.

UNCG Dean's List

Bernard Flythe of Southport and Christy Johnson of Bolivia were named to the Dean's List during the second semester at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Undergraduate students carrying six or more semester hours of letter-graded coursework with a grade point average of 3.5 or better with no grade below C are eligible for the Dean's List.
