"Our Poppa"
It's nice to reminisce about you;
you touched our lives in so many ways.
The stories of your childhood
entertained us lots of days.
Those ghost and pirates came alive,
and scared us sometimes too.
But we felt safe just because we were there with you.
You made your life at the lighthouse
on Bald Head Island;
Seem almost like a wonderful Fairyland;
Not an isolated place
without a school or store.
Oh, it seemed it offered so much more.
A painted pet pig named 'Daisy',
playing hide & seek on sand dunes
and being lazy.
That trip to Southport by small boat
once a month with your Dad;
to pick up supplies when you were a lad.
The penny candy treat if you hadn't been bad!
Learning to fish and to hunt
for turtle egg nest.
You excelled in all sports
you had to be the best.
You gave our lives a sense of direction;
But most of all you gave us
understanding, love and affection.

All our love,
Chuck, Pearl & Pat
