Festival's silent auction draws plenty of attention

For all those people who went to an auction and wound up buying something they didn't want because they inadvertently moved and the auctioneer called "sold", the 1992 Christmas-By-the-Sea Festival silent auction is just what Santa ordered.

The auction will get underway at 10 a.m. Saturday, December 5, at Middleton Park in Long Beach.

As the name of the event indicates, there will be no verbal bidding. Each item will have a bidding sheet beside it on which participants will place their bids. Items of substance will have a minimum bid. Bidding will close at 11:45 p.m.

Items for the silent auction have been donated by American Fish Company, Brunswick Animal Clinic, Associated Artists of Southport and Franklin Square Gallery, Bell Supply, Brunswick Realty, Brunswick Electric Membership Corporation, Brunswick Eye Center, C&R Silkscreen, C&S Jewelers,

Carolina Kitchens, Carolina Power and Light Co., Centel Cellular, Chefs-for-a-Day, Crossroads Appliance, Discount Furniture Warehouse, Edna's Kitchen, Har-dee's;

Hughes Brothers Tire, Doshier Memorial Hospital, James Bradley Williams DDS, John Thompson Architect, Jones Seafood House, K&M Fuel Sales, Kentucky Fried Chicken, L. T. Housing Rentals, Linda's Vision Center, Little Professor Book Center, Local Call, Lowe's of Southport, Lynn's of Southport, Lynne's Hallmark and Treasure Room, Manning's Pest Control, Mansfield Refrigeration, Margaret Rudd and Associates, Margie's Restaurant and Waffle House, McDonald's, Miller Publications, Nice 'n' Pretty, Oak Island Golf and Country Club, Oak Island Jewelers, Oak Island Senior Citizens Craft Shop, Old Brunswick General Store;

Peacock-Newnam, Preatte, Peterson and Campbell, Pelican Shops, Rebecca's Fabrications, River Run Dry Cleaners, Round Table, Sabra's Gifts and Balloonworks, Sandfiddler Restaurant, Seaway Printing, Shoe Port, Southport 2000, The Gauntlet, Floor Coverings International, First Citizens Bank, Dutchman Creek Acres Real Estate, Good Vibrations, Greenwood Pet Motel, Hammond Chiropractic, Subway, Southport Maritime Museum, Swayne's Flower and Ceramic Shop, The Clock Shop, Western Sizzlin', the Washington Duke Inn and Golf Club, Jackson Beverage and Elizabeth's Florist.

Proceeds raised from the silent auction will be used to fund 1993 Christmas-By-the-Sea Festival events.

Teen dance

Southport-Oak Island Jaycees will sponsor and chaperone a teen dance Friday, December 11, at the Jaycees building in Southport.

'See What Santa Sees' program benefits needy

The Brunswick County Airport is offering "See What Santa Sees" flights for a fee of $15 to benefit needy children and families throughout the county.

The airport is working with the Southport-Oak Island Chamber of Commerce and the Brunswick County Department of Social Services to come up with a list of families who need help with money or help paying bills during the holidays.

All proceeds from the flights, except the cost of gas, will be donated, said airport manager Charles Best.

The flight will allow children to see what Santa will see as he flies over their homes, Best said. And all children will be awarded an official "See What Santa Sees" flight certificate.

Miss Petite North Carolina Lisa Young will be at the airport this weekend and every weekend until Christmas, and will be available to go along on the flights. Young was the 1991 Miss Brunswick County, and will be competing in a national pageant this spring. She is also a licensed pilot, said Best.

There will be a poster contest held in conjunction with the flights, and prizes will be donated by local businesses. The designers of the top three posters will receive cash or merchandise. About $200 worth of prizes have already been contributed, Best indicated.

Participants can pick up poster paper at the airport, design a poster with the "See What Santa Sees" theme, and then display the poster in participating businesses. Winners will be selected at the airport on Saturday, December 19.

For more information on the "See What Santa Sees" program, persons should contact the airport at 457-6483.

Tree decorating party

A pre-parade Christmas tree decorating party for the community will be held Saturday, December 5, beginning at 9 a.m. at the Brunswick County Airport.

There will be refreshments and caroling, and everyone is invited to "come out and enjoy the fun," said airport manager Charles Best.
