

TEERING OFF

'No right hand' slows swing

It is important to swing slowly at first to feel the proper impact and to learn good swing tempo. The best way to achieve this slowing effect is with the right hand's power diminished.

- Take your normal stance.
- Put your right hand directly on top of your left (1). Leave your right forefinger on the shaft if you like.
- Make several practice swings (2).

- Concentrate on swinging with as wide an arc as possible while maintaining control of the club.
- Make several swings with a ball.
- Notice how this drill helps prevent hooks.

Wizards still atop dart league

Oarhouse Wizards remain atop the Southport-Oak Island Dart League standings after a 12-7 win over WD 40 in action December 8.

The match came down to the last dart in the team game. Wizards have not lost to WD 40 since December 10, 1991, and have only lost once since then, on February 4, 1992, to Oarhouse I.

Wizards took a 5-3 advantage in the singles round and hung on with splits of the doubles matches to take a 9-7 lead into the team match. Larry Wozniak set the pace for Wizards with a C-6, a 140, an 82 close and an 18-dart 301 game. Rick Russell had a 125, a 100 and a 95, Perry Pitman had a 121 and a 100 and Bill May hit for 95. For WD 40, Bill McClanahan tossed a 98 and a 95, while Joe Justice hit for three corks.

Gallery stayed in pursuit with a 10-9 win over Windjammer II. While the final score was close, the win actually was assured with the first doubles 501 game. Steve Early had a 95 open and a pair of 95s, Ken Howard had a 100 open and a 100, and Billy Smart had a 100 for Gallery. For Windjammer, Shawn Wilcox had a 134 and a 113, Ron Harvel had a 95 and a 17-dart 301 game, and Willie Williams had three corks and a 100.

Windjammer III remained tied for fourth with Windjammer II as it lost to Skipper's I, 12-7. Windjammer got off to a 5-3 advantage in the singles rounds, split the doubles cricket round, then faltered, losing the balance of the matches. For Skipper's I, Tim Davin had four corks, a C-6, a 125 and a ton, James Brown had three tons and Billy Cumbee had one. For Windjammer III, Sid Cornwell had a 121, Roger Sigmon had a 117 and Allen Kinney and John Robinson each had tons.

Oarhouse I survived a close match with in-house opponent Oarhouse IV, 11-8, when Oarhouse I swept the doubles 501 matches. Tony Overman had a ton for Oarhouse I. For Oarhouse IV, Chris Foster had a C-6 and a ton, Bill Capps hit a 121 and Kendall Jones had a 102.

Raw Bar defeated Oarhouse Nut-n-Honey 10-9, also by taking both 501 matches. For Raw Bar, Burt Bailey had three corks and a ton, and Chris Houk had a 95. For Nut-n-Honey, Howard Knupp had a 160 open, an 89 close and a 12-dart 301 game, Chris Scott had a 125 open and Stan Bennett shot a 125.

Oasis Beach Club I picked up win number three with a 10-9 win over Walt's Beach Club II, also settled on a sweep of the 501 matches. Mark Keller had a C-6 and a 114 and Sandy Visco had four corks for Oasis Beach Club. For Walt's, Jimmy Martin had three corks and Jimmy Helms had a ton.

The other Oasis Beach Club team, Boom Waka Waka, won number six with a 13-6 pasting of Dyno-Flites, surrendering only three singles and the team game. James Haas had a 105 for Boom Waka Waka. Susan Miller had a 112 and a ton and Stacy Moore a ton for Dyno-Flites.

DECEMBER 3 RESULTS

As expected, Gallery gunned down Dyno-Flites, 17-2, and moved into second over idle Oarhouse I. The big surprise was that WD 40 lost and Skipper's I forfeited, moving the Windjammer teams into a tie for fourth.

WD 40 began the evening in normal fashion, sweeping the individual cricket round. Then Windjammer II's darts started hitting better numbers and they rebounded in 301 to take three. In the doubles rounds they split, setting up the team match as the deciding factor. For Windjammer II, Shawn Wilcox had a 140, a pair of tons and an 18-dart 301 game and Ellis Norden had a 140 in the team game to help turn the tide. For WD 40, which only lost four matches all season last year, Fred Spencer had a 114, Junie Andrews had a ton and Joe Justice and Bill McClanahan each tossed 95s.

At the Gallery in Long Beach, the Billy Smart "smart darts" produced a C-7, a C-6, a 108 open, a pair of tons, a 99, a 95 and a 17-dart 301 game; Mike Hill tossed a 102 and a ton for Gallery. Ken Monroe had a C-7 for Dyno-Flites.

This year's surprise team, Windjammer III (two years ago in the basement and only .500 last year) moved to 8-3 with a 16-3 win over Oasis Beach Club I. Sid Cornwell had a C-7 and Will Beck a ton for Windjammer III. For Oasis I, Billy Hicks had a ton and J. R. Goad had a 95.

The Oarhouse Wizards remain alone atop the standings with their 11th win, this time 17-2 over Raw Bar. Perry Pitman had a pair of 140s and a 125, Larry Wozniak had a 105 and a pair of tons and Rick Russell had a ton and a 97 for Wizards.

Walt's I Deuces Wild is no longer alone at the bottom of the standings, picking up its second win 11-8 over Moose Lodge. Moose took three of the singles cricket matches for a 3-1 lead, then stalled, not winning again until the first 501 match, then trailing 9-6 and needing to win the remainder.

John Quattlebaum had a C-7, a 125 and a ton and a 17-dart 301 game, Ray Starnes had a C-6 and David West a ton for Deuces Wild. Judy Brown had a ton and a 98 and Bonnie Veach had a ton for Moose Lodge.

PERRY MEMORIAL CUP

Billy Smart of Gallery tossed a double-13 to take the team game and a 6-5 win over WD 40 and the championship in the dart league's Christmas tournament December 13.

The trophy, The Norman Perry Memorial Cup, thus has as its first home the Gallery lounge in Long Beach.

Perry was among the league's organizers several years ago and played on WD 40 until his death last year.

In the championship match Billy Smart also carded a ton and Steve Early three corks for Gallery. For WD 40, Bill McClanahan had a pair of 140s and an 18-dart 301 game and Junie Andrews had a 125, 121, 97 and a 75 close.

In the opening round of the tournament, Skipper's I defeated Nut-n-Honey, 7-1; WD 40 downed Walt's II, 6-0 and Gallery was a 6-0 winner over Walt's I. In that round, Joe Justice had a perfect cricket score (round of nine) and Paul Higginbotham had three corks for WD 40.

Steve Early had a C-7 for Gallery and Lisa Johnson a C-6 for Walt's I. Tons were scored by Billy Cumbee and James Brown for Skipper's I. Gladys Starnes had a 121 and Howard Knupp a 100 and a 95 for Nut-n-Honey.

In the second round, Oarhouse I defeated Skipper's Dyno-Flites 6-2 while WD 40 survived a strong challenge from Oarhouse IV, 8-3, decided in the team match. In that round, Danny Kirby had a 124 and Tony Overman three corks for Oarhouse I. For WD 40, Bill McClanahan had a ton, 97 and a 13-dart 301 game, and Joe Justice had three corks. Rex Bowen had three corks for Oarhouse IV.

In the semifinals, WD 40 survived a challenge by Oarhouse I, 6-5, while Gallery defeated Skipper's I, 6-2. In that round, Billy Smart had a ton for Gallery, Billy Cumbee had a 95 for Skipper's I, Neil Sloan had a C-6 and Aubrey Godber a 95 for Oarhouse I, and Bill McClanahan had a 125 and 108 while Paul Higginbotham had a C-6 and a 121.

GOLF REPORT

Elks captain's choice is held

Oak Island Elks Lodge #2769 held its first annual Captain's Choice Golf Tournament on November 14 at Oak Island Golf and Country Club with 75 golfers participating in the event.

First- and second-place winners were from Fayetteville and the third-place team was local. There was a foursome playing from Montreal, Canada.

Winners were: Melvin Ash, Jim Rea, Ray Perry and Don Hinnant, 61; Elmer Arnette, Jim Smith, Bob Mayhew and Rudy Stankwytych, 63; and Darrell Hodges, Steve Early, Greg Potter and Bill Stanton, 64. Taking the prize for closest to the pin was Rudy Stankwytych, while Ray Perry and Larry Painter had the longest drives.

Proceeds from the tournament benefit the lodge building fund.

Linksters winners are listed

Winners of the Oak Island Linksters 1992 finale December 5 at Oak Island Golf and Country Club were James Parker, Bill Pulley, Roger Morris and Nick Siganos with a combined best ball of 115.

In the unusual format of one best ball on par fives, two best balls on par fours and three best balls on par threes, the foursome ended four strokes ahead of its nearest competitor.

In second place with 119 was the foursome of Virgil Barnes, Frank Smith, Earl Antone and Nelson Childress. Finishing third with 120 were Landon Dowell, Bill Montross, Gary Haywood and Bill Pittman.

Honored at the annual Christmas party December 4 were the flight leaders in the Linksters Championship. Overall champion is Bob Schreiber, whose name will be engraved on the permanent plaque. Runners-up were Chuck Walling and Ted Comeau. Schreiber's consistency in a playoff with Walling and Comeau brought him the permanent trophy.

Chairmen of the annual party were Jim and Ellen Parker and Porter and Lucy Gray.

WGA has holiday luncheon

The Christmas luncheon for the Fox Squirrel Country Club Women's Golf Association was held at the club on December 9.

The team of Claire Hoover, Norma Buckbee and Meg Seif won first place in that day's competition. The game was captain's choice.

The luncheon was prepared by the outgoing officers: president Judy Collins, vice-president Sally Thomas, treasurer Jackie Kennedy and secretary Mary Maker.

Special tribute was paid to Lib Toney, who will be moving to West Virginia. She was a WGA member for many years and was the WGA representative to the Seagull and Ladybird leagues.

New officers for 1993 were introduced: president, Sally Thomas; vice-president, Jody Cole; treasurer, Jackie Kennedy; and secretary, Bobby Davis.

New members introduced were Janet Ball and Joyce Belrose.

Golfers can play 141 courses

The 1993 American Lung Association Golf Privilege Card entitles the purchaser to play over 185 rounds of golf at 141 different golf courses.

The card this year features golf at some of the top courses across the state from the mountains to the Outer Banks and throughout the North Carolina beach resorts. Still only $35, the card is valid from January 1 through December 31, 1993. "Some restrictions are imposed on some courses, but still the golf privilege card makes a great gift or stocking stuffer for that favorite person," a news release stated.

Cards can be ordered in time for Christmas by calling 919-395-5864 or 1-800-821-6205.

Island WGA reports winners

The December Christmas meeting of the Oak Island Women's Golf Association was held at the home of member Harriet Buff.

The following weekly winners were announced:

November 18 -- Best-ball twosome -- Ellen Parker and Gay Morris.

November 23 -- Trophy Day -- net, Florence Greene; putts, Wanda Pulley.

December 2 -- Reject, handicap 1-30, 31-42: 1-30, Kay Brannon; 31-42, Joan Van Noord.

Donna Denker was named the most improved golfer for 1992.

The 1993 officers for the Oak Island WGA are: president, Pat O'Brien; vice-president, Gay Morris; secretary, Harriet Buff; and treasurer, Dee Young.
