

MEETING PLACE

Caregiving topic for meeting

"Coping with Caregiving" will be the topic of discussion at the next meeting of the Town Creek Senior Citizens. Jan Reichenbach of the Brunswick County Health Department will be the guest speaker. The program will begin at 1 p.m. Thursday, June 3, at Town Creek Township District Park. Refreshments will be served and visitors are welcome to attend.

Toastmasters to hold picnic

The Brunswick Toastmasters and the Night Owl Toastmasters will meet jointly at Southport's Waterfront Park at 7 p.m. on June 10. The meeting will be a picnic with speeches about the food various members will bring. There will be humorous talks on homemade ice cream, fruit salad, hot dogs and pickles. Family members and guests will enjoy food, frisbee throwing, kite flying and "seagull chasing". The public is encouraged to attend and to bring a covered dish. Persons should call Lori Bates at 278-6210 for more details.

NARFE to meet on Tuesday

The Brunswick County Chapter of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) will hold its monthly meeting at the Sandfiddler Restaurant near Southport on Tuesday, June 8, at noon. The guest speaker will be Diana Davis from the Brunswick County Health Department who will discuss nutrition. NARFE meetings are open to the public and membership in NARFE is available to all federal retirees and federal employees with at least five years of service.

Outgoing president Carole Milliken turns over the gavel to Ruth McKay, the 1993-94 president of the Woodbine Garden Club. She was among the officers installed last week. Mary Young is the treasurer and Ernestine Cameron, first vice-president. Not pictured are Jean Jones, second vice-president, and Gibby Wilson, secretary.

Literacy council names officers, cites volunteers

At the annual meeting held May 13, the Brunswick County Literacy Council recognized volunteers Norma Buckbee of Boiling Spring Lakes, Sue McCann of Shallotte and Isabel Taylor of Ocean Isle Beach for achieving Master Laubach Tutor status by reaching 300 hours of one-on-one tutoring during the past year. Volunteers receiving Senior Tutor certificates for documenting 40 hours of tutoring were Aileen Wood, Genevieve Erway, Janet Greenfield, Evelyn Loukas, Victor Nicoladse, Dee Caudle, John Richardson, Walt Anderson, Mary Lu DiFazio and Ethel Green. The following were elected to serve on the executive board beginning July 1: Joseph Giamalva, chairman; Patricia Ebert, vice-chairman; Karen McSwain, secretary; and Tom Cluchey, treasurer. The meeting concluded with a talk by economics professor Dr. John Morgan, who emphasized the necessity for upgrading literacy skills in order for the United States to remain competitive in a global society. BCLC provides free tutoring for those who wish to improve their basic reading and writing skills and free training for volunteers. For additional information about the literacy council's program, persons should call 754-7323.

Bridge results

Oak Island Duplicate Bridge Club has announced its winners for the week of May 24. Monday's winners for North/South were: Ann Murphy and Georgianna Harmon, first; George and Patti Fisher, second; Jan Blessis and Rachel Smothers, third. East/West winners were: Nell Stearns and Betty Johnson, first; Dick and Isabelle Simmons, second; Dot Bass and Frankie Dawson, third.

Games are played Mondays at 1 p.m. at the Long Beach Recreation Center. Lessons are held at 12:15 p.m. All bridge players are welcome. For partners or more information, persons may call 278-5771.

Top exercisers are recognized

Guy Wescott of Bolivia and Bill Schuck of Long Beach were the top exercisers in the Brunswick County observance of National Physical Fitness and Sports Month. Participants kept daily logs of their fitness efforts for one month, recording the number of miles bicycled, walked or run. Wescott bicycled 526 miles and Schuck walked 54.6 miles.

Camp Pretty Pond breaks new ground

The Girl Scout Council of Coastal Carolina Inc. will host a grand opening ribbon-cutting ceremony for the Camp Pretty Pond resident camp redevelopment project. The ceremony is scheduled for 1 p.m. Sunday, June 6, at the camp, located near Boiling Spring Lakes. The council has just completed the first phase of a $1.6-million redevelopment project to create a modern resident camp facility for the more than 13,000 Girl Scouts served in eastern North Carolina.

For appearance sake

The Southport Beautification Committee has initiated a program to recognize businesses and individuals "who have contributed to the improvement and/or beautification of Southport." A business or individual selected by the committee will be recognized each month and will be spotlighted in The State Port Pilot. Carole Milliken, chairman of the city-appointed committee, urged public involvement in the program. "If we fail to acknowledge someone you believe should be recognized, please let us know," she said.
