in punts for the winners until an interception by Brad Davis set up South Brunswick's next score. From the 12-yard line, Morris rambled to the five before quarterback Jeremy Baker scooted to the two.

Runningback Izesta Brown, who also drew praise from Force for his performance on both sides of the ball, then scored easily amidst excellent blocking with 30 seconds remaining in the first half as South Brunswick went to the locker room ahead 20-0.

Starting the second half in completely opposite fashion than the first quarter, South Brunswick was thwarted in an attempt to get its air game in gear by two Devil Pup interceptions.

Camp Lejeune took advantage of the second one by Cecil Mitchell and scored on a six-yard pass from quarterback Alvin Anderson to end Kenny Waid. Anderson took the snap, backing up two quick steps before lofting a high floater to the end zone which Anderson ran under at the flag.

The Devil Pup signal-caller repeated the play for a two-point conversion and South Brunswick's lead was reduced to 20-8.

On the first play from scrimmage after the kickoff at the Cougar 31, Baker play-faked and hurled a long bomb down the right sideline.

Receiver Johnny Scott outran the Devil Pup secondary, snaring the missile for a 58-yard reception.

Three plays later, Baker scored from the one with 6:01 left to play in the third quarter for a 27-8 lead after the PAT.

A 51-yard pass play by Camp Lejeune's Anderson to Steve Dolan set up the Devil Pups' second touchdown after the ensuing kickoff. Donell Williams scored and the Devil Pups trailed, 27-14, missing the two-point conversion attempt.

Camp Lejeune then executed an on-sides kick to regain possession, but another South Brunswick interception put Morris into position for a 68-yard scoring scamper on the first play as time expired in the third quarter. The PAT pushed South Brunswick into a 34-14 comfort zone.

Adam Kaufhold quarterbacked the final two Cougar series, leading Force's offense to their final touchdown on the final possession -- an eight-play, 72-yard march highlighted by a 27-yard pass play over the middle to Brown, who was tackled on the five-yard line.

Thomas Lowe then carried the football into the end zone for South Brunswick's final touchdown of the night before another Bruner conversion.

Force said, "Your mind is a powerful thing."

Force is hoping that his Cougars' minds will be focused against the Bucs -- a team South Brunswick defeated at home last season.

"I've been watching the Jamboree film," Force continued. "They have good quickness. If we play good, hard-nosed defense and don't make too many mistakes, we'll have a good shot at winning."

The South Brunswick coach expects Laney to test his team's pass defense -- a part of the defense which has been leaky, especially on long bombs.

"They threw a good bit in the Jamboree and I expect them to throw the ball some," Force said. "I feel sure they are going to try to pick on our two freshmen. They are in their fourth game and are a lot better than they were two weeks ago."

"We're going to try to correct the mistakes that we made. And we're seeing what they are not doing and we're going to test them."

The players are primed for the Port City fight, especially running-back O. J. Morris, who is exhibiting exceptional senior leadership in the early going.

North Brunswick's Scorpions return home to face Camp Lejeune after their first loss of the season at Dixon. Coach Garry Bishop's team (1-1) led the Bulldogs last Friday night on the road until Dixon scored with 1:43 left on the clock.

West Brunswick (2-1) regained some lost respect last week with a victory over 4A Wilmington Hogard after the debacle the week before against Dillon, S. C. The Trojans of coach Yogi Hickman

Coach Jack Holley's South Columbus Stallions (3-0) travel to meet St. Pauls before beginning league action the next week at home against West Brunswick in the Waccamaw's biggest early season game.

Pender (0-3) faces Wallace-Rose Hill, the top-ranked prep team in the region by the Wilmington Star-News. It looks like possibly a winless season for the Patriots.

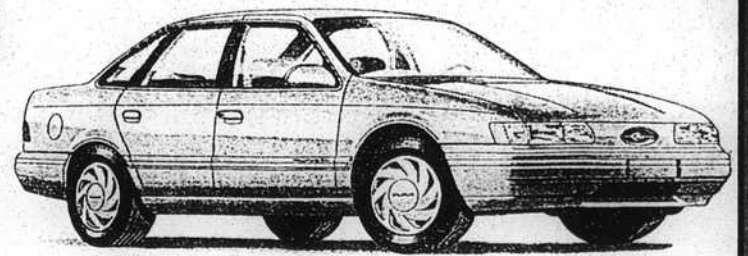

Coach Dean Saffos' East Columbus Gators (1-2) host Red Springs while Whiteville's Wolfpack (1-2) will try to get back to .500 at Fairmont.

West Columbus, coached by Wayne Williamson, will attempt to win its third game in four tries at home against East Montgomery. The Vikings lost to Clinton while beating Laney and Fairmont. They'll face East Columbus in two weeks in Waccamaw action.
