Anti-crime group meets on March 26

Citizens Against Crime will meet Thursday, March 26, 7 p.m., at the Brunswick Community College teaching auditorium.

Guest speakers will be State Bureau of Investigation director James Coman and North Carolina Victim Assistant Network executive director Catherine Smith.

The public is invited to attend. For further information, persons may call the Citizens Against Crime office at 754-6515.

Artists plan spring show

Associated Artists of Southport will present their Spring Art Show at Franklin Square Gallery March 30 through May 16.

Judges for the event are Robert Leroy for two-dimensional work and Dina Wilde-Ramsing for three-dimensional work. Both judges are from Wilmington. Entries will be accepted March 27-28 at the gallery.

For more information or to obtain a prospectus, persons may call Franklin Square Gallery at 457-5450 or show chairman Pat Pavco at 278-5728.

The show may be viewed at the gallery Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Brunswick County MASTER GARDENER

Colors all year

By Lib Duncan
Master Gardener

When designing or adding to your landscape, think about providing seasonal interest, such as bloom color, bark eye-catchers and berries. Consult your nursery about foliage, bloom color, berries, fragrance and growing requirements such as hardiness, sunlight, drainage and soil type (ph).

Listed below are a few shrubs, vines and trees which will give you color you can look forward to each month of the year along with your bulbs, perennials and annuals. Colors are: P (pink), R (red), W (white), L (lavender), Y (yellow), V (varied).

■ January-February -- Camellia Japonica, V.

■ January-March -- Winter Daphne, R, W; Flowering Quince, R, P, W.

■ February-March -- Forsythia, Y; Redbud, R, P, W.

■ March-April -- Flowering Almond or Cherry, P, W; Spirea, P,

W; Wisteria, W, L; Dogwood, R, P, W.

■ April-early May -- Hawthorn, P, W; Mountain Laurel, R, P, W; Viburnum, W, L; Azalea, V.

■ May -- Weigela, R, P; Mock Orange, P, W; Clematis, V;

■ May-June -- Magnolia, W; Rose, V.

■ May-July -- Abelia, W, P.

■ June -- Cape Jasmine, W; Rose of Sharon, V.

■ June-August -- Oleander, R, P, W; Hydrangea, V.

■ July-frost -- Crape Myrtle, V; Buddleia, W.

■ September-October -- Osmanthus, W.

■ November-December -- Confederate Rose, R, P, W; Camellia Sasanqua, P, W.

Bloom time may vary in mountain, piedmont and coastal areas.

Berried plants to brighten your landscape and attract birds are: Pyracantha, Holly, Beautyberry, Contoneaster, Mahonia and Nandina. Birds will love these.

Send your gardening questions or comments to Brunswick County Master Gardener, News Column, P. O. Box 109, Bolivia, NC 28422 or call 910-253-2610. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope if requesting information or a reply.

Corps rep addresses Lions club

Wayne Bissette, Corps of Engineers' chief of project management for the Wilmington District, will be guest speaker at the Thursday, March 19, luncheon meeting of Southport Lions Club, to be held at the Sandfiddler Restaurant.

Bissette will speak on the Cape Fear River/Wilmington Harbor Project and the shipping lanes' effect on the Southport area.
