Sacred Heart church

Sea Notes to perform in concert March 29

Sea Notes Choral Society will present its spring concert Sunday, March 29, 3 p.m., at Sacred Heart Catholic Church near Southport.

The musical selections for the concert include works of three diverse styles. The first half of the concert will consist of works by Felix Mendelssohn. First on the program will be "Hear My Prayer," featuring Mrs. Carmen Coles as soprano soloist. Selected choruses from "Elijah" will follow to complete the Mendelssohn segment.

The second half will include music written by two of America's finest musicians, Randall Thompson and William L. Dawson. Selections from the "Frostiana" series featuring poems by Robert Frost and "The Last Words of David" will be Thompson's contribution to the concert. Dawson will "get the spirit moving" as the group performs three of his spirituals, including "Ev'ry Time I Feel the Spirit" featuring basso soloist Billy Peele.

Soprano soloist Carmen Coles' talents are well-known. She has been director of Sea Notes several times and is the choir director at Cape Fear Alliance Church. She has participated in local theatrical productions, performing as Queen Isabella in "Christopher Columbus, His Story," Maria in "The Sound of Music," Josephine in "HMS Pinafore" and others. Her also has performed with the North Carolina Symphony String Ensemble. Mrs. Coles received her bachelor's degree in music from Gardner-Webb University.

Billy Peele, bass soloist, along with his wife, Myra, have been singing members of Sea Notes for a number of years. Mrs. Peele, however, is taking to the keyboards as the group's accompanist for this concert.

She was graduated from Greensboro College with a bachelor's degree in music, with concentration in church music. She served as organist/choir director for Methodist congregations from 1973 until 1995.

Dr. Charles Ellington of Southport is leaving the group's tenor section to serve as director. Ellington's education and experience is extensive. He received his bachelor of music and master of music degrees from Westminster Choir College, a Ph.D. in music education from Florida State University and studied in France and the Netherlands in applied voice and repertoire. His faculty appointments have been at Cedarville College, Bob Jones University, Snead College and Mercer University. He has served as minister of music in several states and has appeared as conductor and soloist in most of the mid-Atlantic and southern states.

Sea Notes Choral Society is partially funded by the Brunswick Arts Council with funds from the Grassroots Program of the North Carolina Arts Council. The group does not charge admission to any of its concerts, but depends heavily on contributions from the community.
