Pets of the week

A one-year-old female cat named Camille with white and orange markings is available for adoption at the Brunswick County Animal Services Center. She is said to be very calm and loving and would make a great pet. The adoption fee of $55 includes a physical exam, feline leukemia and FIV tests, spaying, a rabies vaccination and preventive vaccinations at a reduced rate.

A six-month-old female terrier-mix dog also is up for adoption. She is said to have lots of energy and needs room to run. The adoption fee of $65 includes a physical exam, heartworm tests, spaying, a rabies vaccination and preventive vaccinations at a reduced rate.

The Brunswick County Animal Services Center is open Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Saturday, noon to 3 p.m.; Sunday, 1 to 3 p.m. For further information, persons may call the animal services center toll-free at 800-233-2169.

Chicken dinners

First Apostolic Church of Southport will serve fried chicken dinners on Saturday, April 25, from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. in the church fellowship hall.

The menu will include fried chicken, potato salad, green beans, roll, cake square and tea or coffee for $4.50 per plate. Eat-in or take-out orders are available.

For delivery of five or more plates to the same address in the immediate Southport area, persons may call 457-5845.

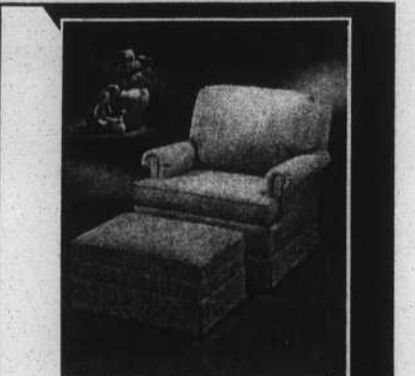

BEMC hosts Baby's First celebration

A Baby's First Birthday celebration will be hosted by Brunswick Electric Membership Corporation and Brunswick County schools Sunday, April 26, 2 to 3:30 p.m., at BEMC headquarters on Highway 17 at Supply.

Babies must be one year old by October 16, 1998.

Festivities will include refreshments, door prizes, photographs, a free book for baby and a free packet for parents. The event is funded by the BEMC Bright Ideas Grant program.

For further information or to register, persons may call Judy Auman at 754-7644 or 253-6573.
