

Krawchuk-DePasquale vows

Christine Ann DePasquale and Kevin P. Krawchuk, both of Myrtle Beach, SC, were united in marriage Saturday, September 12, at First Baptist Church of North Myrtle Beach. The Rev. Jim Mezick officiated the 4 o'clock double-ring ceremony.

Music was provided by Lisa Yonkers and Dina McCall, sisters of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Joe and Janet DePasquale of Myrtle Beach, SC. The groom is the son of Peter and Marie Krawchuk of Fitchburg, MA.

Dina McCall of Wilmington, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Lisa Yonkers of Williamsport, MD, sister of the bride, Daynia Carroll of Conway, SC, and Tayna Sheel of Myrtle Beach.

Jeff Bradford of Ashburnham, MA, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Justin Rose of Myrtle Beach, Sal Ardagna of Fitchburg, MA, and Brian MacIver of Florence, SC. Miniature groomsmen were Nicholas McCall, nephew of the bride. Dominic and Connor Yonkers, nephews of the bride, were ring-bearers.

The wedding was directed by Paula Mullis; the register attended by Vicki Slater and Mike Wiener.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Jasmine's at Brunswick Plantation.

A rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom's parents, was held at Baron Steaks & Chops in Myrtle Beach.

The bride is a 1990 graduate of Glassboro State College in New Jersey with a bachelor of arts degree in communications and a 1994 graduate of Horry-Georgetown Technical College with an associate in science degree in radiology. She is employed by Bon-Bone Medical Imaging in Myrtle Beach.

MR. AND MRS. KEVIN KRAWCHUK

The groom is attending Horry-Georgetown Tech and employed by Colefields Publishing. Following a wedding trip to Aruba, the couple resides in Myrtle Beach.

'Second Language' workshop planned

Brunswick County Literacy Council will host an "English as a Second Language" tutor training workshop.

The workshop will be held at Supply for two sessions beginning Saturday, November 7, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and continuing on the following Saturday, November 14, from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Nikki deUnger, Shirley Morrow and Mary Lee Sprague from New Hanover County will be the trainers.

Those who complete the training will be certified as Laubach tutors in English as a Second Language. Participants will learn how to teach non-English-speaking residents how to speak, read and write in the English language.

The workshop is free but preregistration is necessary. Persons should call the literacy council at 754-7323 or 1-800-694-7323.

Lakes POA to host Candidates Forum

Sixteen candidates for public office have been invited to a Candidates Forum on Tuesday, October 27, sponsored by the Boiling Spring Lakes Property Owners Association.

The forum will be held in the bingo hall on Highway 87, beginning at 7 p.m.

The meeting is open to anyone interested in meeting and hearing first-hand from those who seek election to the N. C. House of Representatives: incumbents Dewey Hill and David Redwine and Republican challengers Robert Quinn and Shirley Babson.

Candidates for office in Brunswick County include:

Sheriff -- Ronald Hewett, Mike Allen; clerk of court -- Diana Morgan, Alice Hardee; county commissioner, Debbie Rupp, David Sandifer, Don Warren, Allan Dameron; board of education -- Glenda Browning, Billy Carter, Yvonne Bright, Patricia Carney.

Questions from the audience are to be submitted in writing and directed to a candidate's position on a specific issue, with candidates having the opportunity to respond. Questionnaires will be available at the door.

Moderators for the forum will be Tom Tully, mayor of Boiling Spring Lakes, and Bill Davis.

For further information, persons may contact Isobel Beebe, Boiling Spring Lakes Property Owners Association president, at 845-2269.

Anti-crime group to meet Thursday

Citizens Against Crime, an organization of concerned citizens, will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday, October 22, at the teaching auditorium of Brunswick Community College at Supply.

Guest speaker will be David E. Kelly, deputy secretary of the N. C. Department of Crime Control and Public Safety.

Baptist youths hold fruit sale
