The State Department of Agriculture announces the resignation of Franklin Sherman as entomologist, he having gone to Canada, and of G. M. Bently as his assistant, he having gone to Tennessee, and states that for the present, R. S. Wovlum will be in charge of the entire work. The last bulletin deals with insect enemies of corn, Mr. Sherman having prepared it. The department states that Bendy and Sherman resigned simply because they were offered better salaries, which they could not afford to decline.

OBSERVANCE WAS VERY GENERAL

Holiday Set Apart For Working People Generally Observed With Appropriate Exercises.

New York, Special.-Fifteen thousand workers marched under streaming unmbellas in New York's Labor Day parade. Although the rain poured with tropical precipitation, only strict orders from the union leaders prevented an even larger number of workers from marching though the deep puddles which collected on the asphalt of upper Fifth avenue. The members of the Waitresses' Union, who had prepared to march attired in white dresses and shoes, and carrying parasols, were so determined to march in the parade that it required a decree of the Central Federated Union declaring that it was unbecoming for women to tramp in sloppy streets to deter them. In the men's unions, not only did the workers march, but many of them were followed by small sons uniformed like their fathers. Chicago, Special.-Ideal weather conditions prevailed here for the observance of Labor Day. The union labor parade, numbering many thousand marchers, was the chief attraction. The magnitude of the procession was a surprise. The marchers started shortly after 10 a. m. and were 3½ hours passing a given point. Among the notables near the head of the line was Cornelius P. Shea, leader of the recent big strike of the teamsters in this city. The parade was halted when it was discovered that a teamsters' union was marching behind a non-union band. Committees went into a conference on a street corner. The trouble was adjusted and the parade resumed

Salisbury, Special .- Monday witnessed the greatest Labor Day celebration ever held in Salisbury. There were over 15,000 visitors in the city. The parade was over a mile leng, made up of union and advertising floats, tournament riders, fire companies, base ball teams and bands, headed by carriages containing the Governor, mayor and other city officials. Three thousand organized un-ion men, representing tweive different trades, were in line.

Charleston, S. C. unions to the number of about a thousand, representing a score of organizamusic of half a dozen bands and after wards adjourned to several picnic grounds and spent the remainder of the day in merry making. The day was observed generally in the city as a

Asheville, Special.-Labor Day was observed here with athletic contests held under the auspices of the Central Labor Union at Riverside Park. About ten thousand Ipeople witnessed the events, one of the features of which was a baseball game between The Daily Citizen team and North Asheville. The newspaper boys won by a score of 26 to 0. The day's programme closed with a display of fireworks. Roanoke, Va., Special.-Labor Day was generally celebrated here. The various union labor organizations gave a large parade in the morning. At the Roanoke fair grounds in the afternoon sports were engaged in and addresses were delivered by Mayor J. H. Cutchin and other prominent citizens. The banks, office buildings, postoffice, etc.,

were closed and business suspended. Richmond, Va., Special.-Labor Day was celebrated here with a parade of trade organizations throughout the city to West End Park, where there were games, speeches, athletic contests and an all-day picnic. The parade was smaller than usual, but the attendance at the park was large. Charlotte, N. C., Special-Labor Day was generally observed in the city. Excursions brought thousands of visitors. The parade was large, and was participated in by all the There was good speaking and athletic sports and numerous amusements. The day passed off quietly and pleasantly.

Wontonly Shot Down Jews.

Kishineff, By Cable.-During the progress here of a funeral procession of Jewish workmen following the body of a poor woman who had been killed by roughs, shots were heard and the procession was suddenly charged by troops and police. Many of the workmen were wounded and 50 of them were arrested. Several are missing and are supposed to have been killed.

Succeeds Loomis.

Oyster Bay, Special.-Robert Bacon. of New York, has been appointed Asistant Secretary of State, in succesien to Francis B. Loomis, resigned. President Roosevelt authorized Monday the official announcement of Mr. Bacon's appointment. The appointment of Mr. Bacon was agreed upon almost immediately after Elihu Root had accepted the office of Secretary of State, but was not announced. Mr. Bacon for many years had been an important factor of business life in New York city, having been within a year or so ago a junior partner in the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co. President Roosevelt has known Mr. Bacon for many years.
