Mr. L. O. Tadlock of Mechanic has moved his family to High Point. Mr. Tadlock is a revenue officer and will be near his field of operation at High Point. Mr. Aaron Stout of Ramseur R. F. D. No. 1 was in town Friday night. While here Mr. Stout renewed his subscription to The Bulletin and paid a dollar in advance. The Lexington Dispatch issued a very attractive thirty page industrial edition last week. It is a credit to its editor and to the county which supports such newspaper enterprises. Mr. Willard Foust has organized a company under name of W. L. Foust & Co. for the purpose of manufacturing brick here. They will begin work on the yards at once, and will put in a brick machine with a capacity of from thirty-five to forty thousand bricks per day. Mr. B. H. Woodell of Raleigh Secretary of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of North Carolina was in the city Friday and Saturday. He was here looking after the interest of the local lodge and seemed well pleased with the progress it had made since its organization last October. Mr. W. H. Ferree of near Cedarfalls brought a book to this office last week which is perhaps the oldest one in the county. The owner of the book is Mrs. McCollie, his wife's mother who is 83 years old and it was used by her grandmother as a text book during her school days. The book is well preserved, and every letter is legible. The old lady has another book about 150 years old and she prizes both very highly. Visit From the South. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore of East Ashboro are entertaining a guest whose last name is Moore but whose first name has not yet been ascertained. He arrived Monday morning. Baby Abandoned. About ten o'clock Sunday night a little boy baby three weeks old was left on the door step of Mr. Frank Shulers' residence at Thomasville, along with the little stranger was left a basket of fine well made clothes and a note which read: "My name is Roy Smith and my food is warm cow's milk." Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tysinger of Thomasville have adopted the child. Frightfully Burned. Chas. W. Moore, a machinist, of Fort City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "A quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for Burns, Wounds, Sores, Eczema, and Piles. 25c at Ashboro Drug Co. and Standard Drug Store.

Mr. N. C. Cox is building a nice cottage in South Ashboro. The graded school gave a half holiday in honor of Washington's birthday. Mr. Will Cranford is erecting a cottage on the Plank Road in South Ashboro. Miss Ella Spencer of Randleman is the guest of Miss Minnie Hoover this week. Mr. Alston Auman has just recovered from a week's confinement to his room with grippe. Mr. W. P. Conner of Central Falls has accepted a position as clerk with G. G. Hendricks & Co. Mr. A. C. Rush has about completed his store building in South Ashboro and will soon put in a stock of goods. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cowman, Holiness missionists to Japan, gave interesting lectures on that country at the Holiness church Monday afternoon and night. Mr. W. C. Armstrong, clerk in Morris-Scarboro-Moffitt Co. Store is attending the state councils of the J. O. U. A. M. at Salisbury this week as the representative from Cedar Falls. Miss Mamie Gray died at her home near Glenola Sunday morning with consumption. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gray of near Glenola, and a grand daughter of Mrs. Porter of Ashboro. The enterprising Kemps Mill Co. put in a new wheel recently and are now doing better work than ever before. They have also repaired the saw mill and can cut lumber as fast as a steam mill. Mr. R. R. Ross left today (Thursday) for the west to buy two car loads of good horses and mules. On his return he will have at his stables in Ashboro a lot of select stock which all prospective purchasers should see before buying elsewhere. Married. At the residence of the bride's parents one mile from Ashboro, Mr. William Alex Underwood to Miss Lillian Burns, Rev. Stowe officiating. Mr. Underwood is the son of Mr. Henry Underwood who lives near here and Miss Burns is the oldest daughter of Mr. W. M. Burns who lives a mile from town. Mr. Underwood built a nice cottage in High Point recently and the happy couple will make that city their future home. The Bulletin wishes them a long and happy life. Executive Committee Meets. The executive committee of Methodist preachers conference for Randolph County, composed of Rev. N. R. Richardson, president, Rev. C. M. Campbell, vice president, and Rev. C. A. Wood Sec. met in Randleman Monday and arranged for three or four fifth Sunday meeting in the county for the fifth Sunday in April. At these meetings will be gathered three or four preachers, who will discuss subjects of mutual interest to all. A COLD, A COUGH—CONSUMPTION. A brief told history, but true. Rydale's Cough Elixir will prevent this happening to you. It will check the progress of a cold at once, prevents the cough becoming deep seated, and thus ward off consumption. This modern scientific remedy kills the germs that cause throat and lung diseases, and by its stimulating and tonic effect upon the respiratory organs helps nature speedily restore these organs to robust health. Ashboro Drug Co. Blockade Captured. Revenue Agent, B. F. Adkins, of Greensboro, and deputy Marshal, L. O. Tadlock, of High Point, came here Thursday and deputised O. R. Fox to go with them on a raid to Montgomery Co. in search of blockade distilleries. The officers hired a hack and proceeded to the spot which had been previously pointed out to them near Cagles Mill. They found a well equipped establishment in full blast and of large capacity. However, the "proprietors" had been warned of the approach of the visitors, and not feeling inclined to entertain them at such a late hour, they departed hence, carrying the still with them. They were so closely pressed however that they lost the "worm" of the still and the officers brought it here as a witness to their success. They destroyed 500 gallons of beer, tubs and other equipments. Deputy Tadlock was slightly burnt by escaping steam from the hot beer. The Yellow Fever Germ. has recently been discovered. It bears a close resemblance to the malaria germ. To free the system from disease germs, the most effective remedy is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed to cure all diseases due to malaria poison and constipation. 25c at Ashboro Drug Co. and Standard Drug Store.

ROSS-MORRIS WEDDING. Beautiful Ceremony United Lives of Miss Ida Florence Morris and Mr. Joseph Dewese Ross—A Large Reception. One of the most beautiful home weddings ever seen in Ashboro was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Morris Wednesday evening. The contracting parties were Miss Ida Florence Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Morris and Joseph Dewese Ross, son of ex-sheriff R. R. Ross all of Ashboro. The hour was 8 o'clock and the wedding occurred in the presence of a large number of guests. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. R. Richardson, assisted by the M. E. Church pastor by Rev. W. E. Swain pastor of the M. P. Church. The parlor was tastefully decorated with ivy and ferns and the color scheme of green and white was carried out to perfection. Before the bridal party entered, Miss Annie Tomlinson accompanied on the piano by Miss Nannie Della sang Schubert's Serenade in her most pleasing style. The bride entered the parlor with her brother, Mr. Claude S. Morris of Salisbury, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. U. B. Blalock of Wadesboro. She was beautifully attired in a dark blue broadcloth going-away gown and carried a bouquet of bride roses and ferns. She was received at the altar by the groom accompanied by his brother, Mr. Chas. Ross, who was best man. The guests were received in the reception hall by Mesdames A. E. Moffitt, W. A. Underwood and Will Coffin. After the ceremony an informal reception was held and the congratulations of a host of friends were showered upon the couple. Elegant refreshments were served in the dining room, presided over by Mesdames J. D. Shapson, W. C. Hammer, and Misses Florence Hendricks, Lela Moffitt, Essie Ross and Etta Blair. The decorations of the dining room were perfect in all their appointments, consisting of white carnations and smilax. Many costly and useful presents were received which show the high esteem in which the happy couple are held. Among them the most handsome may be mentioned a $100 gold bill from The Bank of Randolph; a set of china from Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ross and a bed room suite from Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Morris. The bride is one of Ashboro's most accomplished and popular young ladies, and the groom is one of our rising young business men, holding a responsible and lucrative position with the Bank of Randolph. The couple left on the 8:40 train for Jacksonville and other southern points. Among the out of town guests present for the wedding were Mrs. U. B. Blalock, of Wadesboro; Miss Pattie McRae, of Rockingham; Miss Janet Baxter, of Pinehurst; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Page, of Aberdeen; Mrs. J. R. Pace and daughter, of Biscoe; Mr. Flavius McCulloch, of Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Underwood, of Randleman. A TWICE TOLD TALE. We wish to repeat what we have said once before in these columns that Elliott's Emulsified Oil Liniment is the best Liniment ever produced for use in the family and on animals. Best for rheumatism, lameness, stiffness and soreness of joints or muscles. Best for bruises, contusions, sprains and swellings. You get a full pint for 25c and get your money back if it does not do all it is recommended to do. Ashboro Drug Co. Death of Mrs. John W. Stout. Mrs. John W. Stout of Cole-ridge died very suddenly on the morning of the 19th inst. She had been complaining only a few hours, when the family discovered the appearance of death, and she passed away in just a few minutes. She was about 59 years old and previous to these few hours of suffering, appeared to be enjoying good health, and her death was quite a severe shock to her family. Her remains were interred in Holly Spring Cemetery, to await the calling of the Lord. When the dead in Christ shall victoriously arise. The sudden death, is passed on all. We do, must soon obey the call. How important it really is. When hatching out, in eternity. Blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles are instantly relieved by Manzan. This remedy is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle attachment, so that the medicine may be applied inside directly where the trouble originates. Manzan relieves instantly. Sold by Ashboro Drug Co. Renew your subscription.
