

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Dr. S. W. Caddell of Ramseur was in town Tuesday.

Many of our people will go fishing Easter Monday.

Quarterly conference was held at the M. E. Church Monday.

Miss Sallie Bostick of Randleman spent Sunday in town.

Mr. R. R. Ross received a car load of horses and mules Monday.

Mr. Newton Cox has just completed a nice cottage in South Ashboro.

Mr. A. A. Spencer has sold his stock of swine to Rev. W. E. Swain.

Mr. U. L. Dawson of Cedar Grove township was in town Wednesday.

Cedarfalls graded school will close next Saturday with appropriate exercises.

Mr. Ernest Redding of Gibsonville visited his father Mr. A. O. Redding over Sunday.

Mr. W. A. Hurley of Centralfalls was a business visitor at the Bulletin office Tuesday.

Send all items of news to this office and we will pass on to the readers of the Bulletin.

Mr. J. H. Nelson has sold his farm in Cedar Grove township and has moved to Randleman.

When you want letter heads, packet heads, envelopes, or any kind of job work, come to this office.

There is no excuse for idleness now in Ashboro. Employment can readily be obtained at good and wages.

Uncle Ruben Lowdermilk went to the Johns Hopkins hospital last week to be operated on for cancer.

Sheriff Finch was here last week, but on returning home Thursday found it necessary to go to the Greensboro hospital.

An interesting letter was received this week from Hinshaw's Store, but as the writer failed to sign his name it was not published.

Bring your job work to this office. Our quality of material and style of work will please you and our prices are below all competition.

Mrs. J. J. Welch of High Point who has been at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Dr. Ferree for a week returned to her home Tuesday.

Morris-Scarboro-Moffitt Co's delivery here took flight in front of their store Wednesday morning and practically wrecked their delivery wagon.

All the town Sunday schools are preparing to observe Easter Sunday in an appropriate manner. The church choirs are preparing special Easter music.

Mr. Will Lewis, died at Mt. Gilead Monday and was brought here Tuesday on the 11 o'clock train and taken to Concord cemetery for burial. Mr. Lewis was 44 years old and unmarried.

The Ashboro Telephone Co. have moved their central office to their new quarters on Depot St. The cables are all up and the phones will be connected with centrals within a few days.

The labor situation of High Point continues about the same. The men belonging to the unions are still idle and the manufacturers contend they can run without them, but it is likely the trouble will be adjusted soon and all will return to work.

The town commissioners did well in passing an ordinance to fine the railroads for blocking the crossings for ten minutes or more, but they should have gone a little further and required the railroad to move their scales from their present location. It is a great annoyance to those who want to cross the railroad to have to wait till a whole train is weighed.

What might have been a serious runaway occurred on Academy st. Saturday morning when the boys were returning some tables they had used in serving refreshments at the entertainment Friday night. Just after leaving the academy going east the pony driven by Alex Worth took fright and dashed down the street, and finally upset the vehicle, precipitating Chas. Kephardt to the ground, bruising him considerably. Fortunately no serious damage was done.

Our city "dads" held a meeting Thursday night in which a number of important measures were passed. Hereafter all who keep a dog within the corporate limits of Ashboro will be taxed one dollar and female dogs double that amount. If any railroad crossing within the corporate limits is blocked by a train for ten minutes at any one time, the railroad company is liable to a fine of three dollars for each offense.

Devil's Island Tortures is no worse than the terrible case of Piles that afflicted me 10 years. Then I was advised to apply Bi-eklen's Arnica Salve, and less than a box permanently cured me, writes L. S. Napier, of Rugles, Ky. Heals all wounds, Burns, and Sores like magic, 25c at Ashboro Drug Co. and Standard Drug Store.

Spoon and Redding are taking inventory this week.

Mr. W. D. Stedman went to Greensboro Tuesday.

Mr. Z. F. Rush, Jr. went to Tampa Fla. last week.

Mr. R. C. Lewallen went to Tampa Fla. Saturday.

Mr. Dennis Bean of Millboro was in town Wednesday.

Mr. L. M. Russell of Troy was a visitor in this city Tuesday.

Miss Ethel Page of Burlington is visiting Miss Harriet Hammer.

The school children will go on a picnic excursion Easter Monday.

Mr. E. L. Tomlinson of Glenola, was a welcome visitor in our office Wednesday.

Mr. John M. Davis of Centralfalls was a pleasant caller at the Bulletin office Monday.

A lot of machinery for the Troy gold mining company passed through here this week.

The first day of May is less than three weeks off. Have you and your neighbor paid that poll tax?

Mr. J. D. Ross has bought the residence of John W. Ward on Sunset Ave. Consideration $2,000.

The Southern railroad is filling the mudhole and otherwise improving the grounds around the Depot.

Messrs. T. J. Winslow, Seth W. Laughlin, and W. J. Armfield attended the ball game Friday at Greensboro.

Mrs. A. J. Fuller and children of Raeford arrived here Wednesday and went out to visit her old home at Farmer.

The teachers of the graded school are drilling for the closing exercises which will take place the first of May.

Mr. Arthur Ross who has been in the hospital at Greensboro, for some time is so far recovered as to be expected home Saturday.

Ashboro is greatly in need of more rent houses. Many more good people would move here if they could obtain suitable houses.

We have reliable information that Mr. Wade Beavis, a rising young attorney of Pittsboro will locate in Ashboro. We bid him welcome.

Randolph County carried off the trophy again as being the banner Sunday School county of the State.

Prof. E. L. Moffitt will be inaugurated president of Elon College, May 2nd. An interesting program has been arranged for the occasion.

The A. & A. railroad will put in some new side tracks soon. These tracks have long been needed and will greatly facilitate making up their trains.

The entertainment given at the Academy Friday night was well enjoyed and the boys realized a nice sum for the ball team. The Nightingale Band furnished the music.

Dr. S. A. Henley is remodeling the old Hoover residence which he recently purchased from Armfield-Laughlin Realty Co. The building has been moved nearer Fayetteville St. and when reconstructed will be a beautiful home.

Mrs. A. J. Ashecraft of Monroe visited the family of Mr. Frank Burkhead recently, and from here she went to Randleman to visit relatives. Mrs. Ashecraft is a daughter of Mr. J. C. Bulla of Back Creek township.

Rev. E. L. Siler, Pastor of the first Presbyterian Church of High Point, who was prevented by sickness from filling his last months appointment here, will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. Laura Winingham who died at the home of her son in-law C. W. Bain at Greensboro Tuesday, was brought here yesterday and interred in the Methodist Cemetery, Rev. N. R. Richardson conducted the burial ceremony. Mrs. Winingham formerly lived in Ashboro.

The "Ramblers" were very charmingly entertained Saturday afternoon by Miss Esther Auman at her home on Sunset Avenue. The program consisted of music both vocal and instrumental. Ice cream and cake in the colors purple and white were served. The souvenirs were violets tied with white ribbon.

At the home of Mr. Neal Cagle, Sunday Apr. 8th 1906, Miss Loretta Gray to Mr. Ervin Cox.

Returning to the home of the bride's parents Mr. J. S. Gray, they found a few of their friends and a nice wedding supper awaiting them. The attendants were Misses Mary Branson, Belle Gray sister of the bride, and Messrs. Frank Davidson and Claid Lack. The bride wore a gown of white. She is one of the popular young ladies of this community and has many friends here. The groom is a prosperous and industrious young man and the many friends of both these young people extend congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous journey on life's pathway.

Farmer are busy preparing their ground to plant corn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cox spent Sunday at Mr. B. M. McPherson.

Mrs. Caroline Moffitt who has been spending a few days at her father's returned home Sunday.

Miss Bertie Staley visited Miss Ella King Sunday.

Miss Rodema Cox spent Sunday with Miss Ethel King.

Mr. Fred Cox spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. Phal-lie Spoon.

Mr. W. D. Allen spent Sunday at Flowerhill.

Mr. Frank and Ernest Smith of Ashboro spent Sunday at their uncles Mr. S. F. Lowdermilk's.

There will be preaching on Purgatory mountain Easter Sunday. Every body come.

Mrs. Hill Ward of High Point is spending some time at her father's Mr. W. F. Luck.

The waters are alive with fish. The boys have killed several large ones with guns.

Mr. Alfred Sheffield caught a large fish Monday in a trap weighing 11 pounds.

The Holo Ministrel will give a free entertainment at Holly or Ridge School House Saturday night Apr. 14th. They would appreciate any free will offering by any one.

The gums and resins obtained from pine trees have long been recognized as highly beneficial in the treatment of backache kidney and bladder troubles. Pile-ules is the name of a new medicine, the principle ingredients of which come from the pine forests of our own native land. Sold by Ashboro Drug Co.

J. E. Davis has completed his store and is now ready to serve the public. Hurray for Glenola.

The High Point brick mill here just started up their summer's work fully satisfied.

N. E. Davis has purchased a new mule.

Corn planting seems to be next on program. Wheat is looking fine in this vicinity.

We think if Isaac Spencer had employed a lawyer he would have come out victorious in the case against him for retailing whiskey.

We are an unconcerned party and would not question the justice of the court in rendering a verdict according to the evidence; but in the case against Isaac Spencer, we consider he was the victim of a deep laid plot. Had all the facts been brought out we have no doubt the sentence would have been different.

A Lucky Postmistress is Mrs. Alexander, of Cary, Me., who has found Dr. King's New Life Pills to be the best remedy she ever tried for keeping the Stomach, Liver and Bow-els in perfect order. You'll agree with her if you try these painless purifiers that infuse new life. Guaranteed by Ashboro Drug Co. and Standard Drug Store. Price 25c.

Beans Mills.

Mr. Everett Cox and family visited at Virgil Cox's of Empire Sunday.

Mr. Rob Hodgkin and family of Ramseur have moved to the Reuben Cox plantation, near Beans Mill.

Some of our youngsters attended the closing exercises of Fair Grove School Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe of Holly visited at M. F. Allen's of Sunday. Mr. Lowe has been collector for Colliers Weekly, but recently he married Miss Metta Mason of Kemps Mills, and he will now engage in farming near his old home, (Holly).

S. S. and J. C. Allen went to Randleman, Wednesday of last week, and brought back with them a pair of fine horses.

Mr. Joe Welborn and wife visited Mr. Dixon's of Grays Chapel last Sunday.

Many thanks to the many Correspondents who have been over-running the columns of the Bulletin with good news. Since the writer has been absent, he has only one word to say, just keep on with the good work.

Mr. H. P. Cox of Brown passed through this section Saturday on his way home. He says that he intends to take a traveling job this summer. We wish him good success.

J. C. Allen went to Greensboro Tuesday to purchase his spring stock of goods.

Mr. G. F. Williams and family visited at Causey Allreds Sunday.

We are expecting several weddings in this section Easter.

With best wishes to all Bulletin Readers.

A COLD, A COUGH—CON-SUMPTION.

A brief told history, but true, Rydale's Cough Elixir will prevent this happening to you. It will check the progress of a cold at once, prevent the cough becoming a dry state, and bid adieu to consumption. This modern scientific remedy kills the germs that cause throat and lung diseases, and by its stimulating and tonic effect upon the respiratory organs helps nature speedily restore these organs to robust health. Ashboro Drug Co.

Farmer are preparing to plant corn.

Wheat is looking fine.

Wm. C. Winslow took a trip to Greensboro last week.

Quarterly Meeting was held at Mt. Lebanon last Friday. Rev. Turrentine was present, and preached a good sermon.

A series of meetings will be held at Mt. Lebanon, beginning Apr. 27th, and will continue over Sunday; two services each day. Rev. Fincher of Farmer and Rev. Richardson of Ashboro, will be present. A large crowd is expected.

Miss Kate Kearns is visiting in High Point.

Miss Ida Lowe has just returned from Charlotte, where she attended the State Sunday school convention.

Prayer meeting is held at Science Hill every Saturday night.

The waters are alive with fish. The boys have killed several large ones with guns.

Mr. Alfred Sheffield caught a large fish Monday in a trap weighing 11 pounds.

The Holo Ministrel will give a free entertainment at Holly or Ridge School House Saturday night Apr. 14th. They would appreciate any free will offering by any one.

The gums and resins obtained from pine trees have long been recognized as highly beneficial in the treatment of backache kidney and bladder troubles. Pile-ules is the name of a new medicine, the principle ingredients of which come from the pine forests of our own native land. Sold by Ashboro Drug Co.

J. E. Davis has completed his store and is now ready to serve the public. Hurray for Glenola.

The High Point brick mill here just started up their summer's work fully satisfied.

N. E. Davis has purchased a new mule.

Corn planting seems to be next on program. Wheat is looking fine in this vicinity.

We think if Isaac Spencer had employed a lawyer he would have come out victorious in the case against him for retailing whiskey.

We are an unconcerned party and would not question the justice of the court in rendering a verdict according to the evidence; but in the case against Isaac Spencer, we consider he was the victim of a deep laid plot. Had all the facts been brought out we have no doubt the sentence would have been different.

A Lucky Postmistress is Mrs. Alexander, of Cary, Me., who has found Dr. King's New Life Pills to be the best remedy she ever tried for keeping the Stomach, Liver and Bow-els in perfect order. You'll agree with her if you try these painless purifiers that infuse new life. Guaranteed by Ashboro Drug Co. and Standard Drug Store. Price 25c.

Beans Mills.

Mr. Everett Cox and family visited at Virgil Cox's of Empire Sunday.

Mr. Rob Hodgkin and family of Ramseur have moved to the Reuben Cox plantation, near Beans Mill.

Some of our youngsters attended the closing exercises of Fair Grove School Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe of Holly visited at M. F. Allen's of Sunday. Mr. Lowe has been collector for Colliers Weekly, but recently he married Miss Metta Mason of Kemps Mills, and he will now engage in farming near his old home, (Holly).

S. S. and J. C. Allen went to Randleman, Wednesday of last week, and brought back with them a pair of fine horses.

Mr. Joe Welborn and wife visited Mr. Dixon's of Grays Chapel last Sunday.

Many thanks to the many Correspondents who have been over-running the columns of the Bulletin with good news. Since the writer has been absent, he has only one word to say, just keep on with the good work.

Mr. H. P. Cox of Brown passed through this section Saturday on his way home. He says that he intends to take a traveling job this summer. We wish him good success.

J. C. Allen went to Greensboro Tuesday to purchase his spring stock of goods.

Mr. G. F. Williams and family visited at Causey Allreds Sunday.

We are expecting several weddings in this section Easter.

With best wishes to all Bulletin Readers.

A COLD, A COUGH—CON-SUMPTION.

A brief told history, but true, Rydale's Cough Elixir will prevent this happening to you. It will check the progress of a cold at once, prevent the cough becoming a dry state, and bid adieu to consumption. This modern scientific remedy kills the germs that cause throat and lung diseases, and by its stimulating and tonic effect upon the respiratory organs helps nature speedily restore these organs to robust health. Ashboro Drug Co.

Farmer have not plowed much yet.

Wheat and oats are looking well and promise a good yield.

Quite a large number of fine colts are being raised here this spring.

Farm labor commands a good price but hands are hard to obtain.

We will hold an election May 15th to vote on special tax levy to build and maintain a graded school at Caraway. This place is one of the most beautiful spots in Randolph County for a school building, and there should be a house of best design erected on it. Let the voters turn out and vote for a good thing while we have the opportunity. The education of our children is of first importance and we cannot afford to fall behind other sections in this line.

Progress neighborhood is a beautiful clean country, and contains many clean well kept farms and many clean, happy homes. Thrift and contentment is seen on every hand. If our people will vote for graded schools, we will show to the world that we are Progress(ive) in spirit as well as in name.

A liquid cold cure for children that is pleasant, harmless, and effective is Bee's Laxative Honey Tar. Superior to all other cough syrups or cold remedies because it acts on the bowels. An ideal remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and all curable lung and bronchial affections in child or adult. Pleasant to take. Sold by Ashboro Drug Co.

When you are in the market for paint, you want the best, Stag Brand Semi-Paste Paint. Here's what one firm says about it.

Mess. Hirschberg, Hollander Co., Gentlemen—We are handling large quantities of your Stag Semi-Paste Paint, and find our trade for it increasing and customers fully satisfied.

Tampa Hdwe. Co., Tampa, Fla. (This firm purchased over 10,000 gals. of Stag Paint during 1905)

Why don't you give it a trial and become one of the satisfied customers.

"One gallon makes Two"

For Sale by Lewis & Winslow Hdwe. Co. Ashboro, N. C.

MR. KIRKSEY'S RECOMMENDATION.

Mr. Kirksey writes:—I give a positive guarantee with every box of Rydale's Stomach Tablets and Liver Tablets I sell, and have never been asked to refund the money in a single instance. I have used these tablets in my family with best results. W. L. Kirksey, Morganton, N. C.

Rydale's Tablets are prepared by The Radicals Remedy Company, Hickory N. C. who authorize every dealer in their preparations to guarantee every box or bottle of their medicine, they sell.

ASHEBORO, N. C.

NOTICE.—We have just received a lot of fine horses and mules. The mules are the kind you want for service, young, large and blocky. Call to see us before purchasing elsewhere.

MCDOWELL BROS.

WANTED.—Ten thousand rived pine shingles. Write me how many you can furnish and at what price. J. C. ALLEN, Ramseur, N. C., R. F. D. No. 1.

FOR SALE.—One boiler and engine, 12 horse power engine and 20 horse power boiler at Ashboro. Will sell or swap for stock. Also one 35 horse power boiler and one 35 horse power engine. S. W. KIVETT, Ashboro, N. C.

NOTICE.—I have just received a lot of spangler corn drills which will be distributed from Lewis & Winslow Hwd. store in Ashboro. Also repairs for same.

A. M. BARKER, Kemps Mill, N. C.

WANTED.—A lot of birch and maple 2 1/2 and 3 inches thick, any length and width. W. J. SCARBORO, Ashboro, N. C.

FOR SALE.—Brown Leghorn and Pekin Duck eggs, 13 for $1.00. Eggs from thoroughbred stock. C. T. LOFLIN, Ashboro, N. C.

GO TO W. D. SPOON for fresh meats. Also, a full line of groceries and produce. Flour and feed a specialty. He delivers in town. Phone 53.

N. P. COX JEWELER ASHEBORO, N. C.

FURNITURE of all kinds.

BED ROOM SUITES, PARLOR SUITES, IRON BED STEADS, MATRESSES, SPRINGS, RUGS, HALL RACKS, LOUNGES AND COUCHES, KITCHEN SAFES, TABLES, Pictures, Carpet and matting, Baby Carriages, Undertakers goods, all at reasonable prices at KEARNS & FOX, Ashboro.

This space belongs to Morris-Scarboro-Moffitt Company Look for their ad next week.

BARGAINS EVERY DAY Your money will buy more than it has ever done right now HERE ARE A FEW EXAMPLES OF WHAT YOUR MONEY WILL BUY: A good side coffee mill, a regular 25c article, for 18c. A large blue granite pudding pan, 25c size, 15c. 4 doz. clothes pins for 5 cts. Specials for one cent: 1 carpenter's pencil, 1 led pencil, rubber in end, 1 dozen safty pins, 1 paper pins, 1 role white tape, 1 composition book, 1 box morning pins, 1 good pen staff, 4 hat pins, 2 packs wire hair pins, 1 paper needles, 1 long corset lace, 1 pair shoe strings, 1 pencil tablet, One cake toilet soap.

THE AMERICAN TYPEWRITER Saves 50 per cent. in cost and operation. A simple, rigid construction (key and type on one steel bar) which saves twelve hundred parts and $50.00! Maximum efficiency with exertion. This feature is the exclusive patent of the new 1905 American Standard $50.00 Typewriter. Universal keyboard, ball-bearing carriage, printing from ribbon with interchangeable steel type, unlimited speed. "The American Way" and Easy Payment Plan mailed on request. If you want your correspondence on an up-to-date business-like basis at a small cost we also have a Practical Typewriter for only $10.00 Write for details and other catalog The American Typewriter Company, Leland Hotel Building (Southern Branch) Concord, N. C.

SPOON & REDDING KEEP ON HAND AT ALL TIMES A FULL AND COMPLETE LINE Heavy and Fancy Groceries. And will sell as cheap as the cheapest. Quality considered. GOODS DELIVERED ANYWHERE IN TOWN.

RYDALE'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS. THE ORIGINAL LAXATIVE COUGH SYRUP. BEES LAXATIVE. HONEY AND TAR. Sold by Ashboro Drug Co.

JNO. V. HUNTER, M. D. ASHEBORO, N. C.

Day calls answered from ASHEBORO DRUG COMPANY.

Night calls from CENTRAL HOTEL

F. A. HENLEY, D. D. S. Offices front rooms over THE BANK OF RANDOLPH ASHEBORO, N. C.

DR. D. K. LOCKHART, DENTIST, Ashboro, N. C.

DR. S. A. HENLEY, PHYSICIAN and SURGEON. Office over SPOON & REDDING'S STORE, ASHEBORO, N. C.

J. A. HELSABECK & SON Jewelers, Ashboro, N. C.

Watches, Clocks, Spectacles etc. Eyes tested. Glasses fitted. Call and see us, near post office.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT. Do you want them? W. D. STEDMAN & CO. DEALER IN HIGH GRADE GROCERIES, Depot St. West side railroad Phone 66.

Little money BUT BIG MONEY. You will save money by paying cash for what you buy, and will avoid paying for goods you haven't bought to call on

J. L. NORMAN and buy cheap, where you will not be bothered with book accounts. A nice line of Groceries, Notions, Overalls, Suspenders, Pants, Shirts, etc. JONES OLD STAND north side Depot st. Ashboro.

For BARGAINS in Shoes, Groceries, AND General Merchandise GO TO W. W. JONES, On Depot Street.

Does your hat Mach your face? If not, wear one that does. Go to MRS. BLAIR'S MILLINERY, Ashboro, N. C.

Where you will find the newest and most desirable shapes for spring. More goods expected.

For good Flour, Virginia and North Carolina Meats, and an up-to-date, complete stock of HEAVY AND FANCY GROCERIES, Call on Union Store Co., Ashboro, N. C. South Fayetteville St. Highest cash price paid for CHICKENS AND EGGS. Goods delivered in town.

JNO. F. JARRELL, Notary Public of Randolph County.

Takes acknowledgement of deeds and mortgages. Builder and repairer of phone lines and telephones

Caraway, N. C.

Subscribe. Don't borrow.