It takes a gathering of only two or three in the name of democracy, Simmons, Glenn et. al. to be construed into a great democratic rally.

When the democratic convention passed a resolution in favor of fair and honest elections it was virtually an acknowledgment that elections had been unfair heretofore. The republicans took them at their word and at their convention Sept 8th endorsed that part of the democratic resolutions which pledged the party to a better treatment of the voters. But since the leaders of the party see that the republicans took this resolution seriously and in good faith they are casting about for a way to back out of it. We believe however that the rank and file of the party will stand by the resolution.

Never before in the history of the county has the rank and file of the democrats taken such little interest in politics, and never before have the bosses and candidates lashed themselves into such a rage to stir up enthusiasm. The rank and file of the party know that if the same party is returned to power, that they will have the same taxes to pay and the same burdens to bear in the future as in the past, and if the republicans come in it will be no worse but with a fair chance of bettering the condition of the people. Hence their indifference and the appeals to prejudice and an application of the party lash by the bosses.

The Governor of the great State of North Carolina should be the embodiment of that shivelry on which the South prides itself. No harsh word or uncomplimentary remark should fall from his lips against any woman or class or society of women. Yet in his speech at Statesville recently this great shivallor governor in his awkward attempt to compliment the ladies present said he believed ALL ladies were democrats. It is a logical conclusion that if all ladies are democrats, they all women who are not democrats are not ladies. How do the wives and daughters and sisters of the republicans, the honest yeomanry of the State like this insult from the great governor of North Carolina. What prompted this fling from the governor? Simply because men of convictions of their own will not bow down and do the bidding of the democratic machine. Republicans of North Carolina, how do you like to hear your wives and mothers, and daughters and sisters and sweethearts not classed among ladies simply because you do not vote the democratic ticket—and this insult from the Governor!

SEND HALL TO CUBA.

The United States is sending a few thousand soldiers to Cuba for police duty till peace and order is restored on the island. As Col. Convict Hall of Salisbury was proved to be the mob of two thousand that stood off the State militia, the sheriff and deputies, the judge, a United States Senator and the SOLICITOR and strung up three niggers to a limb all himself, why would it not be economy for the Secretary of War to hire Col. Hall from Governor Glenn and send him to take over the whole job. If the insurgents could see Col. Hall multiply himself a few thousand times by sleight of hand they would quit insubordinating and be good.

Republicans should be on their guard, as all kinds of political tricks and democratic "green goods" will be palmed off on them before the election. The democrat bosses and candidates are desperate and are resorting to some very small tricks. As an example of their peanut politics, the opponent of John H. McDaniel who is candidate for treasurer is spreading the news that Mr. McDaniel will not accept the office if elected, or if he does accept will not move to Asheboro. The Bulletin assures the voters of Randolph that every man nominated by the Republican convention Sept. 8th will make an active canvass and if elected will serve the county the full term.

When democratic bosses meet and discuss the subject of republicans buying votes, they never look each other in the face.

The registration books will close at sundown October 27th. Register your name now in the precinct where you now reside and have your name erased from all other registration books. This is important.

THE HABIT OF READING.

"I have no time to read," is the common complaint, and especially of women whose occupations are such as to prevent continuous book perusal. They seem to think because they cannot devote as much attention to books as they are compelled to devote to their avocations, that they cannot read anything. But this is a great mistake. It isn't the books we finish at a sitting which always do us the most good. Those we devour in the odd moments, half a dozen pages at a time, often gives us the most satisfaction, and are more thoroughly digested than those we make a particular effort to read. The men who have made their mark in the world have generally been the men who have in boyhood formed the habit of reading at every available minute, whether for five minutes or five hours.

It is the habit of reading, rather than the time at our command that helps us on the road to learning. Many of the most cultivated persons whose names have been famous as students, have given only two or three hours a day to their books. If we make use of spare minutes in the midst of our work, and read, if but a page or paragraph, we shall find our brains quickened and our toil lightened by just so much increased satisfaction as the book gives us. Nothing helps along the monotonous daily round so much as fresh and striking thoughts, to be considered while our hands are busy. A new idea from a new volume is like oil which reduces the friction of the machinery of life. What we remember from brief glimpses into books often serves as a stimulant to action, and becomes one of the most precious deposits in the treasury of our recollection. All knowledge is made up of small parts, which would seem insignificant in themselves, but which taken together, are valuable weapons for the mind and substantial armor for the soul.

"Read anything continuously," says Dr. Johnson, "and you will be learned." The odd minutes which we are inclined to waste, if carefully availed of for instruction, will, in the long run, make golden hours and golden days, that we shall be ever thankful for.—Exchange.

Indians Increasing.

It is rather a jolt to the sentimentalities of the East who deplore the untimely "end" of the Indian race, to learn that the noble red man is more numerous now than at any time since Columbus first landed, yet such is the fact and the jolt must be administered.

Those who have given the subject study believe there are more Indians today in the United States than there was when Columbus landed. The Indians were never populous. They roamed the prairies and hunted through the forests, but they never had local habitations and were never many in one spot.

The first actual census of the Indians were taken seventy years ago. At that time there were found to be 253,464. Prior to that time everything had been by guess. Beginning with the count of 1836 the official reports of Indian population are as follows. In 1860 at the beginning of the civil war, there were 254,200. Twenty years later in 1880 there were 272,023. Today, by count of the Indian agents on the reservations of the country, there are 284,000 Indians.

The Indian is not dying out, and there is no reason why he should. The government has pursued a policy, mistaken in many respects, but yet calculated to give the Indian a chance in the race of civilized life, and the Indian is showing considerable aptitude. The Indians of the new state of Oklahoma are intelligent and wealthy, and they will be heard from in national affairs.—Phoenix.

ELECTION LAW.

4319. QUALIFICATIONS AS TO RESIDENCE FOR VOTERS; OATH TO BE TAKEN.

In all cases the applicant for registration shall be sworn before being registered, and shall state as accurately as possible his name, age, place of birth, place of residence, stating ward if he resides in an incorporated town or city, and any other question which may be material upon the question of identity and qualification of the said applicant to be admitted to registration. The registrar, if in doubt as to the right of the applicant to register, may require other evidence satisfactory to him as to the qualification of the applicant. And thereupon if the applicant shall be found to be duly qualified and entitled to be registered as an elector, the registrar shall register the applicant, giving his race opposite his name, and shall record his name, age, residence, place of birth and the town, county or state from whence he has removed, in the event of a removal, in the appropriate column of the registration books containing the said record shall be evidence against the applicant in any court of law in a proceeding for false or fraudulent registration.

4320. POLL TAX MUST BE PAID BEFORE PERSON CAN VOTE; RECEIPT EXHIBITED.

No person shall be entitled to vote unless he shall have paid his poll tax for the previous year, or on or before the first day of May of the year in which he offers to vote, as prescribed under article five, section one, of the constitution. Every person liable for such poll tax shall, before being allowed to vote, exhibit to the registrar his poll tax receipt for the previous year, or issued under the hand of the sheriff or tax collector of the county or township where he then resided; and unless such poll tax receipt shall bear date on or before the first day of May of the year in which he offers to vote, such person shall not be allowed to vote: Provided, that in lieu of such poll tax receipt it shall be competent for the registrar and judges of election to allow such person to vote upon his taking and subscribing the following oath:

4321. WHO MAY VOTE WITHOUT PAYING POLL TAX.

No person who has become of age since the first day of June of the previous year, or who was fifty years of age or over on the first day of June of the previous year, shall be required to produce any poll tax receipt, or take oath as to payment of poll tax hereinafter provided, in order to vote. No person who has been exempted by the commissioners of the county wherein he resides on account of poverty or infirmity shall be required to produce any poll tax receipt or to take said oath as to payment of poll tax in order to vote. No person shall be allowed to vote on any exemption granted by the board of commissioners unless the same shall have been granted on or before the first day of May of the year in which he offers to vote and bears date on or before said date.

4322. WHEN PERSON CAN REGISTER ON ELECTION DAY.

No registration shall be allowed on the day of election, but if any person shall give satisfactory evidence to the registrar and judges of election that he has become qualified to register and vote after the time for registration has expired, he shall be allowed to register on that date.

4323. REGISTRATION BOOKS KEPT OPEN, WHEN; REGISTRAR TO TAKE OATH.

The registrar of each township, ward or precinct shall be furnished with a registration book prepared as hereinbefore provided and it shall be his duty, vote after the time for registration has expired, he shall be allowed to register on that date.

4327. NAMES PUBLISHED; VACANCIES FILLED; QUALIFY BEFORE ACTING.

The county board of election shall, immediately after the appointment of judges of election as herein provided, publish the names of such judges so appointed, at the courthouse door of said county; and if any person appointed judge of election shall decline to serve and so notify the chairman of the county board of elections, said chairman shall have the right to appoint another qualified elector of such precinct, who shall be of the same political party, if possible, to serve as judge of election in his name shall be published at the courthouse door, and notice of his appointment served upon him as above provided. If any person appointed judge of election shall fail to attend at the polls at the hour of opening the same, the registrar of the township, ward or precinct shall appoint some suitable elector of the same political party as the judge failing to appear, if practicable, to act in his stead, who shall be by him sworn before acting; and if the registrar shall fail to appear, then the judges of election may appoint another to act as registrar, who shall be sworn before acting.

4342. POLLS HOW OPENED AND HELD.

The polls shall be open on the day of election from sunrise until sunset on the same day, and no longer, and each elector whose name shall appear registered shall be entitled to vote, unless he is successfully challenged for good cause on the day of election. A space of not more than fifty feet in every direction from the polls or rooms in which the election is held may be kept open and clear of all persons except the judges, registrar and election bailiffs herein provided for, which space may be roped off with a narrow passage leading to and from the polls, and each elector shall approach the polls from one direction through such passage, and after his ballot is deposited in the ballot box, with as little delay as possible he shall depart by the passage leading from the polls. Only one elector shall enter the said passage at a time, and after the elector has entered, no one except the registrar or judges of election shall be permitted to speak to him or make any sign to him, nor shall he be permitted to speak or to make any sign to any one except the registrar or judges of election, until his ballot has been deposited in the box and he has passed out of the enclosure. The said roped space shall, at all times during the hours for balloting, be kept open and clear of all persons except officers as aforesaid, and it shall be the duty of the election bailiffs to keep such space so cleared and open: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall make it compulsory for the judges and registrar to rope off said space: Provided further, that when any person is challenged, one challenger for each political party shall be entitled to enter the space roped off during the hearing of such challenge, but they shall retire therefrom upon the challenge being decided.

4343. VOTER MAY DEPOSIT HIS OWN BALLOT.

The ballot may be deposited for the voter by the registrar, or one of the judges of election, or the voter may deposit it if he chooses.
