Good Roads Association. A large number of the citizens of the county met at the court house Monday, Dec. 7, and organized a good roads association for the county. The meeting organized by calling C. C. McAllister to the chair. E. H. Morris acted as secretary. On motion, the by-laws of the National Good Roads Association were adopted and the Randolph County Good Roads Association was adopted as the official name of the organization. A committee was appointed to suggest permanent officers, in accordance with the by-laws of the National Association. Upon the report of this committee the temporary officers were made permanent. The election of the other officers was deferred until the next meeting which is called for the first Monday in February. It is made a part of the duty of the executive committee to appoint a legislative committee who will draft and present to the present legislature a Good Roads Law for Randolph County, which law will authorize a bond issue together with the necessary power to build and keep in repair a system of roads in the county second to none in the state. The Association, very sensibly, decided that politics was to play no part in its work and that its work was to be done by and for the benefit of the whole county.

Marrriage of Mr. Ragan. Wednesday evening at 8:30 in the Friends church at Archdale there was celebrated a very pretty wedding when Miss Lena Freeman became the bride of Mr. Horace S. Ragan.

The church was artistically decorated for the occasion with holly, ferns and potted plants, and these with the brilliant lights presented a beautiful scene.

before the entrance of the bride party Mrs. Charles Ragan of High Point, rendered sweet music and Miss Hazel Harmon sang sweetly "Answer."

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bride party filed in. The four ushers, Messrs. R. R. Ragan, O. E. Wilson, H. A. Tomlinson and Charles Ragan, of this city came in first, followed by Miss Annie Ragan, sister of the groom with Mr. Will Pickard, of Randleman. Following these came the bride with her sister, Mrs. H. A. Tomlinson the dame of honor, and the groom with his brother, Mr. E. L. Ragan, best man. At the chancel Rev. D. C. Cox spoke the vows which pronounced the couple husband and wife.

The bridesmaid and maid of honor wore a dress of net over pink taffeta and carried pink carnations. The bride was costumed in a princess dress of white satin trimmed with duchess lace. She carried a bouquet of roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was tendered. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Freeman and is a charming young woman of high character and culture.

The groom is the son of the late Amos Ragan and is one of the most successful business men of the country.

As an evidence of the popularity of the bride and groom many handsome and costly presents were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Ragan will reside in Archdale.—High Point Times.

"Mama, I've got a stomach-ache," said Nellie, six years old, according to Judge's Magazine of Fun.

"That's because you've been without lunch. It's because your stomach is empty. You would feel better if you had something in it."

That afternoon the pastor called, and in the course of conversation remarked that he had been suffering all day with the headache.

"That's because i is empty," said Nellie. You'd feel much better if you had something in it."

Salt in a little warm water is an old fashioned remedy for tooth ache and soreness of the gums. It makes a splendid gargle for soreness and sore throat, and its regular use is said to eradicate catarrh of the head.
