Hammond left Tuesday for Guilford College where he goes to attend commencement. Engineer E. E. Kephart has returned from a month's visit with his mother in Pa. The Methodist Sunday school children are enjoying an outing at Cedar Falls today. The Randolph Chair Co. factory is shut down for a few days in order to recase the boiler. Several Asheboro folks attended Friends quarterly meeting at Holly Springs Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Burns of High Point are visiting their son Cap A. E. Burns. Miss Ola Lowe passed through the city Tuesday enroute to Guilford commencement. Mrs. Dr. Hunter and children have returned from an extended visit with relatives at Charlotte. Miss Edith Moring attended commencement at the State Normal, Greensboro, this week. Thornburg and Brown is the name of a new mercantile firm soon to begin business at Kemps mill. Oscar Coffin has returned from Chapel Hill where he has attended the university for the last year. Rev. Eli Reece, pastor of Friends church High Point, preached at the Presbyterian church, this city, Sunday night. The special election held in Ramdean to vote on issuing $22,500 bonds for street improvement was carried for bonds. A Sunday train was put on last Sunday between Asheboro and High Point. It leaves Asheboro at 12:15 and returns at 3:35 p. m. Miss Maud Tucker of the Bulletin force attended Why Not commencement and carried over Sunday with friends near Seagrave. Asheboro sent a large delegation to Why Not commencement last Thursday. Chas. L. Holton of this place delivered the literary address. Prof. and Mrs. Chas. M. Staley and children drove through the country to Staley Wednesday and will be the guests of Prof. Staley's parents for some days. W. D. Stedman & Co. are making preparations to move their grocery building off its present location in order to commence the erection of their new brick building. Johnson, and many others from Randolph joined the party at Greensboro. My Best Friend. Alexander Benton, who lives on Rural Route 1, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. It has also performed a wonderful cure of incipient consumption for my son's wife. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and this accomplished, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equalled it. Fully guaranteed by Asheboro Drug Co. Standard Drug Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Trouble at Ulah again. Last Thursday evening another fight was pulled off between Mabe Ledwell and Shufe Russell near Ulah. The same parties had an encounter some weeks ago, but it was compromised and peace seemed to reign. However the truce was of short duration and when they met Thursday the old feud was reopened and a scrimmage followed. When the smoke cleared away it was found that Russell's face was badly battered and that Babe Yow, who had no part in the fuss had received a lead of number 4 shot in his legs. Ledwell was arrested and brought to Asheboro and locked up Friday night in default of $400.00 bond. On Saturday he gave the required bond for his appearance here today (Thursday) when he will be given a preliminary hearing. REVIVAL MEETING. At John Wesley's old Stand. A series of revival meetings will begin at John Wesley's old stand, now known as the Robbins graveyard, 7 miles west of Asheboro, on Friday night before the 3d Sunday in June. A large brush arbor will be erected and the grounds put in good condition for the occasion. The public is invited to assist in this work and to attend each service. For further information call on or write, J. F. BIRKHEAD, Asheboro, N. C. New Machine Shop. Ground has been broken for a two story 50x70 brick building for machine shops. McCray's Redding Hardware Co. are backing the enterprise and the new building will join their warehouse on the north between the railroad and North St. The shops will be equipped with best improved machinery and will employ quite a number of skilled machinists. Bond Issue Carries. The election held here yesterday to empower the school commissioners to sell $500,000 bonds and to provide for the payment of the whole issue of $15,000 to build a graded school building for Asheboro resulted in 87 for and none against the bonds. Of course those who registered and did not vote were counted against the issue. As only 114 registered the majority was good and safe in favor of better school facilities. Ramseur, R. F. D. The hardest as well as the largest rain fall of the season so far last Saturday evening. The quarterly meeting was held at Holly Springs on Saturday and Sunday the 25th and 26th and was pretty well attended in spite of the unfavorable weather. Among the visiting ministers we noticed Eli Reece of High Point, Herbert Reynolds of Prosperity, Michael and David Farlow of Marlboro and others. The commencement at Why Not was largely represented from this section and all report a larger crowd than was ever seen there. Misses Adeline and Ollie Scott have returned from an extended trip at the Gulf. J. C. Allen killed a black snake on the morning of May 25th measuring 72 inches in length and 6 inches in circumference. (Has any one beat this?) The writer is requested to announce that the next meeting at Pleasant Ridge has been changed to ten o'clock instead of eleven as before on account of Town-ship S. S. convention at Union Grove the same day. Let every body attend both. John Moffitt and Cleveland Wright dined at J. C. Allen's Sunday enroute north. S. S. Allen and wife visited at G. T. Williams Sunday evening. Mrs. Margaret Welborn is critically ill at this writing we are sorry to note. Miss Beatrice Craven is again attacked with chills. Among those purchasing new buggies in this section are J. L. Bray, Bethul Cox and John Moffitt. Shall we call for Buffalo Ford correspondent again? He or she as it may be seems to be silent since the good roads question has arisen. What is the matter? I will stop hoping the many correspondents will get a good breath of good will and come again. We ask our Ramseur correspondent to give us another round and you shall be rewarded with good will to all. A Narrow Escape. G. W. Cloyd, a merchant of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bur into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at Asheboro Drug Co. Standard Drug Co.

Franklinville. Rev. J. T. Barnett preached two very nice and instructive sermons at the Baptist church Saturday night and Sunday. T. C. Frazier who has been on the sick list for a few days is convalescent. E. B. Yow of Ore Hill was in town last week. The Franklinville Mfg. Co. has just received a new warp mill which will be put in operation in a few days. Shelby Frazier of Liberty was in town last week visiting his brother T. C. Frazier. W. C. Ramseur, Siler City, and probably other places. A. L. Ramseur. Rev. W. C. Hamner of A. L. Ramseur, Siler City, preached at New Hope Sunday morning and Rev. J. A. Leubert in the afternoon. Misses Rodia Lowdermilk and Jewel Allen spent Thursday night at J. H. Spencers near Seagrave. Quite a number of the people of this community attended commencement at Why Not Thursday and all report a fine time. Mr. A. Lowdermilk of High Point spent Thursday night at his mother's, Mrs. N. J. Lowdermilk. Holy. Wheat in this section is damaged considerably by the fly. Farmers are not through planting yet. The boys have received their baseball supplies and will begin to practice soon. Sunday school was organized last Sunday at Mt. Lebanon. Rev. Stove will fill his regular appointment at New Union Sunday. Wm. C. Winslow attended Friends quarterly meeting at Holly Springs Friday and Saturday. Some of the young people attended Why Not commencement. Prof. P. S. Blair of Guilford College visited some of his friends last week in this community. Miss Lizzie Lowe returned from Ashboro Saturday on a visit to her parents. Pleasant Ridge. Farmers are about done planting corn at last. Wheat is looking fine in this section. Several of our young people as well as the old attended commencement exercises at Why Not Thursday and say there was the largest crowd ever seen at that place. A large crowd attended Friends quarterly meeting at Holly Springs Saturday and Sunday. Miss Beatrice Craven who has been sick is slowly improving we are glad to say. William Cox is all smiles-it's another boy. Messrs John Moffitt and Bethel Cox have purchased themselves new buggies-look out girls. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allen visited M. T. Allen's Sunday evening. Messrs John Moffitt and Cleveland Wright were welcome visitors at H. C. Cox's Sunday. Isaac Routh and Miss Flarrath Routh visited friends in these parts Saturday and Sunday. Miss Beman Craven is visiting friends and relatives in these parts. Misses Adeline and Ollie Scott have returned from their visit to the Gulf and say they had a fine time. Eleazer Allen and little son Elbert visited M. T. Allen Sunday. Don't Pay Alimony. To be divorced from your appendix. There will be no occasion for it if you keep your bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Their action is so gentle that the appendix never has cause to make the least complaint. Italian Bees For Sale I will offer for sale a limited number of full colonies of pure stock Italian bees on the eight frame hive, 24 one lb. sections to the hive. A few colonies will pay any farmer as Italian bees are superior honey gatherers to the black or Caucasian breed of bees. Write for prices. N. V. Long, Biscoe N. C. For Sale I offer for sale 80 acres of land all lying inside the corporate limits of Asheboro. There are more than 1000 cords of wood, also maple, chair stock and cross-tie timber on the premises. The lands are well watered with a number of excellent springs, and well adapted to the usual crops grown in the vicinity. The rapid increase in population in our thriving town and advance in price of real estate makes this a safe investment for the prudent man who likes to see his money grow. A bargain for somebody. Call on or talk to me through the mails. J. E. WALKER. Seagrave R. F. D. Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Allen of Flower Hill spent Thursday night with their daughter Mrs. J. M. King. Charlie Presnell of Siler City is spending a few days with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Black of Ramseur spent Thursday night in the community.
