

Nothing I Ate Agreed With Me.

Nothing I ate agreed with me. I was very nervous and experienced a continual feeling of uneasiness and pain. I took medicine from the doctor, but it did me no good. I found in one of your Peruna books a description of my symptoms. I then wrote to Dr. Hartman and asked him to send me a bottle of Peruna. I took it and I feel as well as I ever did. I hope that all who are afflicted with the same symptoms will take Peruna, as it has certainly cured me.

The above is only one of hundreds who have written similar letters to Dr. Hartman. Just one such case as this entitles Peruna to the credit of curing every one similarly afflicted. If this be true, the testimony of one person would be worth a hundred. We have thousands of them, sincere people. We have in our files a great many other testimonials.

TRAVELING HINTS.
One of the discomforts of traveling is the difficulty one experiences in standing or walking in a moving train. The secret lies in allowing the body to sway with the motion of the train, the knees being slightly bent and the feet placed as far apart as possible. Those who find difficulty in sleeping on an all-night journey may profit by the experience of salesman and other travelers, who insist upon having the bed made up with the head towards the locomotive. Just why this should make sleeping easier is not explained, but the plan is highly recommended.

1907 COTTON ACREAGE

Estimate Based on Replies From All Parts of Cotton Section.

The following estimate of cotton acreage for the current year as compared with the season of 1906, is furnished in a special bulletin issued by Messrs. Latham, Alexander & Co., the well known cotton people of New York:

With the view of obtaining the most reliable information possible concerning the cotton acreage of the United States for 1907, we addressed 6,000 letters to banks, bankers, cotton commission merchants and responsible planters, embracing every cotton growing county in the South, asking acreage estimates.

Up to this date we have secured 4,562 replies, of average date May 16, and the following tabulation is the result. In our opinion it is as approximately correct an estimate of the cotton acreage as could be secured by direct communication with parties competent to judge, residing in the Southern States.

State	1907	1906
Alabama	3,525,000	3,750,000
Ark. and Mo.	1,744,200	1,938,000
Florida	229,800	240,000
Georgia	3,974,800	4,056,000
Louisiana	1,134,000	1,594,000
Mississippi	1,193,180	3,207,000
N. C. and Va.	1,201,800	1,214,000
S. Carolina	2,276,540	2,323,000
Tennessee	703,430	774,000
Texas, etc.	1,392,000	9,392,000
Totals	27,674,770	28,868,000

The total estimated decrease of cotton acreage in the United States for 1907 is 3.52 per cent, of 1,911,230 acres less than last year, and the average planting of the crop is two to four weeks later than normal.

At the opening of the season the conditions were very favorable for the preparation of the land, and much cotton was planted earlier than usual, and the inclination was to plant all the acreage possible.

Weather conditions during August and the first half of May have been abnormal over the entire cotton belt. Temperature has been unusually low, and rains have been constant and excessive. The unfavorable weather conditions have generally eliminated the early start.

Farm work has been greatly interfered with and replanting has been generally necessary. Much of the contemplated acreage is yet to be planted.

Sunshine has been deficient and there has been no growing weather, and poor stands have been the rule. Many of our correspondents complain of the scarcity and poor quality of the seed.

We consider the outlook for the crop very unfavorable. It is in fact at a critical moment and depends more than usual on favorable weather conditions for the balance of the season.

A Case of Leprosy?
Gaffney, S. FROM MOUNTAIN TO SEASHORE
Minor Occurrences of the Week of Interest to Tar Heels Told in Paragraphs.

A Monument for Federal Soldiers.
Salsbury, Special.—There is a movement on foot by the State of Maine which will cause to be erected a handsome shaft to the soldiers of the Federal armies who died and were buried in Salsbury. The State had two visits by this week making arrangements and fifty returned, make the necessary plans with the War Department. The soldiers who had been buried in Maine were given a handsome shaft, which will be unveiled in the fall. All of the Governor's staff will attend at that occasion and will be a big one.

Meets Death Suddenly.
Greensboro, Special.—H. Turner Wright, a miller, who has a mill in southeastern Guilford, was suddenly killed early Friday morning while endeavoring to start a water wheel at the mill. His body was horribly mangled. This Southern accident were not available, but it seems that he must have been carried over by his clothing having caught in the wheel. He is survived by a wife and three children.

Tar Heel Brevities.
It is learned that while Fred Woodard, of Wilson, has not personally announced his candidacy for nomination for Governor, this announcement will be made in a day or two by his friend, ex-Governor Aycock.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction is notified by the superintendent of Sampson county that his school districts there have voted for a special tax.

The Supreme Court decides that express companies are liable for delay in making deliveries with a reasonable care. This Southern accident Company contested this case on the ground that it was only one of several common carriers. In other words was involved with the railways in handling freight.

The installation of the agricultural exhibit from North Carolina at the Jamestown Exposition has begun. William H. Robbins of Raleigh, will assist in the work. Much of the collection was made by him last year at a State fair and was shown at the Southern fair and then reserved for display at the Jamestown Exposition. The exhibit was one of the finest ever made in a county.

It is now understood that the name of the new life insurance company will be "The Standard." Raleigh will be the office. The charter is being drafted, a meeting being held early next week by the stockholders, when there will be an organization and temporary directors, to retire as soon as their successors are elected by a general meeting of the stockholders which will be called at Winston last week.

The Charlotte assay office is now handling from $15,000 to $30,000 in gold bullion every month.

IRISH HOPEFULNESS.
Sure, Things Are Never So Bad but They Might Be Worse.
The Irishman sees everything through rose colored glasses, says a writer in the Guidon. He is a spirit of resignation and unworriedly worthy of the saints of old.

The dread blight had fallen on the fields in most of the district where we were visiting in Ireland, and the potato vines hung limp and brown, and when the likelihood of famine was mentioned the answer came:

"Danger, ma'am? Yes, there is, indeed, but God is good. He'll find a way." High Point, N. C., July 10.

"So, too, about the hay. The summer had been terribly wet, and for days the new mown hay had laid on the ground. It was an anxious time. 'What will you do?' I said to Mike. 'If this weather keeps up? Your hay will surely be ruined.'"

"Oh, please God, it won't keep up," he answered. "He'll send us a bright day soon, just to see how well we'll use it."

"A fine night, indeed, ma'am. Thanks be to God for giving it to us." The path of duty is the path of safety.—German.

A Lazy Liver
May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to load it with strong drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It regulates the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the deflection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feeble, easily tired, dependent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," indigestion or distress in stomach, or nervousness, or "risings in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms, you need a tonic on a medical basis. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will relieve you more promptly than any other tonic. It is a powerful tonic, and a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, acidic cereals and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to it until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure diseases for which it is advised. ECZEMA COVERED BABY.
Worst Case Doctors Ever Saw—Suffered Untold Misery—Perfect Cure by Cuticura Remedies.

"My son, who is now twenty-two years of age, when four months old began to have eczema on his face, spreading quite rapidly until he was nearly covered. The eczema was something terrible, and the doctors said it was the worst case they ever saw. At times his whole body and face were covered, all but his feet. I used many kinds of patent medicines to no avail. At last I decided to try Cuticura, when my boy was three years and four months old, having had eczema all that time and suffering untold misery. I began to use all three of the Cuticura Remedies. He was better in two months; in six months he was well. Mrs. R. L. Riley, Piermont, N. H., Oct. 24, 1905."

BETWEEN SEASONS.
The Need Which Spring Brings to All, and How It Is Met.

That after the long and weary struggle with Winter, there is need of a revitalizing agency of some sort, the almost universal demand for what is popularly known as a "spring medicine," would seem to indicate. People feel, without doubt, that there has been a drain on their vital forces, and that they are not up to the standard of health and strength required by the demands of daily life. They want a purgative, an invigorant, and they look forward to the coming heat of Summer with apprehension, dreading the further call that is to be made on their already impaired forces. In fact, they want a Spring medicine.

And the want is natural, and, fortunately, as naturally supplied. Nature has provided the means, and science has applied them. In Yager's Sarsaparilla with Celery, is found a combination, which, while of the greatest general value, is especially adapted to the needs of the weakened physical condition which follow Winter and precedes Summer. By purifying and enriching the blood, strengthening the nerves, giving restful sleep, creating appetite, and aiding digestion, Yager's Sarsaparilla, with Celery, builds up the entire system and restores it to its maximum of health and vigor. So effectual is it, so unrivaled in its sphere, that in thousands of families its use has become as regular as the recurrence of the seasons. It is "par excellence" the Spring medicine. All druggists sell it, 50c. a bottle. Made by Gilbert, Bro. & Co., Balt., Md.

EIGHTY-YEAR-OLD WOMAN CURED
Had Suffered Tortures From Rheumatism For 20 Years.

No matter how long you have been sick, no matter how discouraged you are from having tried so many remedies in vain, there is at last hope of a complete cure for you. The new scientific remedy, Rheumacide, has cured hundreds of cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Gout, Catarrh, Indigestion, Constipation, Liver and Kidney Trouble, La Grippe and Contagious Blood Poison, and other ailments have failed. Rheumacide cured James Kenely and J. F. Elme, of Baltimore, of terrible cases of Rheumatism, after all the specialists at the famous Johns Hopkins Hospital had failed. Rheumacide cured J. H. Hughes, of Okla., Va., after noted New York doctors had failed.

Here is a case of a woman eighty years of age who has suffered for twenty years. "After suffering for about 20 years with Inflammatory Rheumatism I was induced to try a bottle of Rheumacide. After taking one bottle I have felt five years younger. I am now 80 years of age, and I feel that I believe Rheumacide is the best remedy for Rheumatism. And I highly recommend it to all who are suffering with any of the forms of this dread disease."

WOMEN SUFFER
Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? This case may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is
