Sugar as Food.

Two scientists have recently reached very different conclusions in regard to the nourishing value of sugar. In recent years experts have shown an inclination to recommend with great warmth sugar as an article of food. Now, however, an entirely different view of the matter is taken by Dr. von Bunge, in an article published in the Journal for Biology, under the title "The Increasing Consumption of Sugar, and Its Dangers."

The investigator concludes from the well-known fact that children who eat sugar are pale and have bad teeth, that sugar, owing to the fact that it does not contain iron and lime, and that it is substituted for other foods containing these materials, has an injurious effect, and its use should not be recommended. For this reason Dr. von Bunge advocates an increase of the German sugar tax.

Another important physiologist, Prof. Legnie, of Lyons, takes a diametrically opposite position, and shows from von Bunge's own tables that there is very little lime or iron in any of our food. His conclusion is that an increased consumption of sugar could not for the reasons advanced by von Bunge have a deleterious effect. He, moreover, calls attention to the fact that in France, where, owing to its high price, sugar is really an article of luxury, and where accordingly only one-third as much per head of population is used as in Germany, the people do not seem to enjoy better health than the Germans.

The only bad result of the large consumption of sugar in Germany appears to be an increased demand for the services of dentists, but in this respect Germany's dental troubles are not greater than France's. Prof. Legnie declares that, from the standpoint of a hygienist, he would rejoice to see his fellow-countrymen increase their consumption of sugar fourfold and that he would not have the slightest anxiety in regard to consequences therefrom.

A FATAL MISTAKE

Revenue Officers Shoot Each Other For Blockaders

FOUR WOUNDED: ONE MAY DIE

Three Others Wounded in Unfortunate Encounter Near Chapel Hill—Each Party Mistook the Other for Blockaders and Got Busy With Winchester—Deputy Collector Jordan of Raleigh, Deplorably Wounded.

Greensboro, N. C., Special.—Two raiding parties composed of revenue officers and possemen, neither knowing that the other party was composed of their friends, met while searching for an illicit distillery near Chapel Hill at 2 o'clock Friday morning and as a result of their mistake engaged in a miniature battle, in which four were seriously injured—two probably fatally. The two who are in the most serious condition are Deputy Marshal Jordan and Posseman Banks, Deputy Collector Hendricks who was in charge of one party was shot in the hip. He was brought here Friday evening. The name of the other man injured was not obtained.

Two raiding parties, one from Raleigh and the other from Durham, having received information that an illicit distillery was in operation about five miles from Chapel Hill, in Orange county, started out and reached the distillery at almost the same time. The party first arriving was busy cutting up the still when the other party arrived. The party in the still was taken by surprise and the officers opened fire on the others, thinking that they were the moonshiners who had been operating the illicit distillery.

There were just three men in each party, and all began shooting. Four of the six men were struck by one or more of the many shots that were exchanged. After the firing had ceased the men found to their surprise that no moonshiners were near and that they had been fighting their friends. The wounded ones were removed to Hill farm house and physicians called in from Chapel Hill and Durham.

Neither party knew that the other was out, but were aware that moonshiners in that part of the country had given the officers much trouble. They were not surprised when they were fired upon and both sides felt sure that they were fighting the hardy men of the country.

Additional Details Reported From Durham.

Durham, N. C., Special.—At late hour Friday night all the men wounded in the raid of a still near Chapel Hill were doing well and are expected to recover. The wounded are as follows: Robert Hendricks, of Greensboro, deputy collector, wounded in the hip, this being a flesh wound and not serious; J. B. Jordan, of Cary, deputy marshal, wounded through side of stomach and in the hip. His wounds serious but not thought fatal; T. E. Riggsbee, of this city, posseman, shot through arm, not serious; John R. Banks, Raleigh, posseman, bone in leg below knee crushed by bullet and it may be necessary to amputate leg. That has not yet been decided.

The only two of the six officers who escaped without being wounded are D. C. Downing, deputy collector, of Raleigh, and A. L. Pendergrass, posseman of this city.

Will Demand the Books.

New York, Special.—Defined by the officials of the Interborough Metropolitan Company, William M. Irvin, inspector for the Public Service Commission will appeal to the courts for an order requiring the corporation to submit its books for examination. Attorney Cravath for the Belmont-Ryan concern says the Interborough is not a railway but is a holding company, and that the commission has no right to demand its books.

The complaint is that the failure to get the books hampers him in his efforts to get the investigation of the concern's condition.

Will Be No Tariff Revision.

Washington, D. C., Special.—There will be no revision of tariff in the House, said Chairman Payne of the Ways and Means Committee of the House. "In my opinion, there is a tacit agreement among the Republicans that it would be unwise to agitate revision on the eve of a presidential election. I don't anticipate any depression in the industries of our country and I am certainly not at all worried by the so-called financial panic."

Five Men Entombed.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Special.—Five men were entombed by a fall of rock in No. 14 tunnel of the mine at Port Blair, near here, operated by the Erie Coal Company. Michael Naughton, one of the men caught in the fall after several hours effort, crawled from under the debris badly injured. He reported that four other men were caught in the fall.

British Steamer Glenway Rammled.

Norfolk, Va., Special.—The Merchants & Miners' Transportation Company's steamer Glenway, bound from Norfolk for Savannah, Ga., rammled the British steamer Glenway, while the latter was lying off the Lambert Point coal piers awaiting a berth to take bunker coal. The Glenway's port bow was injured.

Explosion in Powder Mill.

Racine, Wis., Special.—In an explosion in the coming mill of the Lafin & Rand powder mill, at Pleasant Prairie, Kenosha county, Norman Phillips, of West Virginia, 35 years old, was killed, and Walter Harlan and John Nolan fatally burned. The damage to the buildings is slight. This is the second mill that exploded several months ago, killing nine men and injuring others.

CREW IS ARRESTED

Criminal Negligence Alleged Cause of Auburn Wreck

WHEREIN THREE WERE KILLED

Dispatchers Ketchum and Parvin, Conductor Oakley and Engineer Ripper Must Answer for Auburn Wreck, in Which Criminal Negligence is Alleged.

Raleigh, N. C., Special.—Chief Train Dispatcher B. P. Ketchum, of the Durham division of the Southern Railway, and Train Dispatcher Victor Parvin were arrested on warrants charging manslaughter, the coroner's jury having found them guilty of gross negligence and carelessness in the matter of a head-on collision of a freight and passenger train near Auburn on August 11 when three men were killed.

The men waited examination and were bound over to September term of court. Ketchum's bond being $1,000 and Parvin's $500. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Engineer W. W. Ripper and Conductor C. M. Oakley, of the passenger train who admitted having forgotten their orders to meet the freight train. The magistrate says he will grant bail to them in $1,000 each when they appear before him.

Passenger Engineer W. W. Ripper and Conductor Oakley, of the Southern, came here and gave themselves up to Justice Separk. He had issued warrants for their arrest, charging manslaughter for criminal carelessness in causing the collision at Auburn, ten miles from Raleigh, August 11, which caused three deaths. Bonds of a thousand dollars were given in each case. All the men waived examination. Their cases may be tried at the September term of Superior Court here.

OSTUED MAYOR KILLS HIMSELF

Paul C. Barth, of Louisville, Ends Life in Private Office of Utica Lime Company, of Which He Was General Manager.

Louisville, Ky., Special.—Paul C. Barth, for a year and a half Mayor of Louisville, and ousted recently by the decision of the Court of Appeals, shot and killed himself Wednesday. Mr. Barth ended his life in his private office at the headquarters of the Utica Lime Company, of which he was general manager. The shot was heard by his business associates, who rushed into the room to find Mr. Barth unconscious on the floor, with a bullet hole in his head. He never recovered consciousness and died about 1 o'clock. Mr. Barth was a man of means and was president of the board of aldermen for several years. It was Mr. Barth who welcomed to Louisville President Roosevelt when on his Southwestern tour two years ago. The cause of the suicide is unknown.

Since the ousting of Mr. Barth's administration by mandate of the Court, a number of his associates during his term have been subjected to severe scrutiny by the officials who came in with Mayor Bingham, appointed by Governor Beckham. Nothing was found that reflected any discredit on Mr. Barth personally, but the methods of conducting some of the city institutions have been under fire both in official reports and in the press. Mr. Barth was very sensitive to criticism and his friends at times remarked that the condition of affairs seemed to gall him. However, he gave no evidence that he was in any danger of breaking down, physically or mentally, and since the shooting had been conducting his business affairs as usual.

Negro Kills Two Women.

Camden, N. J., Special.—Mrs. Frances Horner, aged 67 years, wife of Edward Horner, a farmer on the Browning road near Merchantville, and Mrs. Victoria Napoli, a servant, were chopped to death in their home, it is charged, by Charles Groson, a negro who was formerly employed on the farm. The assassin first set fire to the Horner barn. While Horner and Mrs. Napoli's husband were trying to rescue some of the horses from the barn, Mrs. Horner and her servant came upon the negro in the act of robbing the house.

Captured in Florida.

Columbia, Special.—A requisition has been issued by Gov. Amos for Alexander Hillian, a negro wanted in Chesterfield county, for assault with a dangerous weapon, and believed to be a prisoner in the Southern part of Florida. Sheriff Douglas of Chesterfield was in the city and went to Florida as agent for the State to bring back the fugitive. The crime charged against the negro was committed about a year ago.

Mail Bags Missing.

The train left Denver with seven sacks and but four remained when it reached Oxford. Detectives and postoffice officials are at work on the case.

SEEK FINAL TEST OF THE BOYCOTT IN BIG LAWSUIT

Action Begun at Washington Against the American Federation of Labor.

Manufacturers Would Stop Use of the "Unfair" and the "We Don't Patronize" Lists.

Washington, D. C.—A significant legal action was begun in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia by the National Association of Manufacturers, to enjoin Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and the other officers and the 2,000,000 members of the American Federation of Labor and several of its subsidiary organizations from using the boycott and so-called "unfair" lists. Van Cleave starts the suit on behalf of a large manufacturing company in St. Louis, Mo., which is president, having been declared "unfair," so it is said, by the labor unions, but the significance of the action lies in its being a test case, wherein Mr. Van Cleave, as head of the Manufacturers Association, seeks to permanently enjoin organized labor from using the "unfair" or "we don't patronize" lists in its fight against firms and individuals. The papers were filed here in order that personal service might be immediately obtained against a large number of the labor leaders named in complaint, who are in Washington.

The injunction in question is an injunction against Samuel Gompers and Frank Morrison, of Washington; John Y. Lennon, of Bloomington, Ill.; James Duncan, of Quincy, Mass.; John Mitchell, of Indianapolis; James O'Connell, of Washington; Max Morris, of Denver; Dennis Hayes, of Philadelphia; Daniel J. Keefe, of Detroit; William D. Hill, of Cincinnati; Arthur H. Hays Sulzberger, of New York; C. O. Buckingham, H. C. Poppe, A. J. Cooper and E. L. Hickman, as individuals and officers of the Manufacturers Association, and the International Typographers and Printers' Union No. 17 and members of the International Stereotypers and Engravers' Union, of New York, and Range Company, of St. Louis.

Alleges a Conspiracy.

The plaintiff asks that the defendants be enjoined on nine special points, first alleging a conspiracy unlawful to injure, defame, or oppress, by carrying on a conspiracy to restrain and destroy the business of the plaintiff, and secondly, that the plaintiff's factory has been boycotted, and that its goods should not be dealt in. Safeguard is also asked from any attempt to injure the plaintiff; from any giving of orders to committees, associations or agents for any kind of boycott or other interference with the plaintiff's business, or from the carrying on of the alleged conspiracy against the plaintiff's proper business.

The steps leading up to this action are set forth in the complaint to be the outcome of a strike. The complaint says that on August 29, 1906, without previous notice, the members of the Metal Polishers' Union, No. 13, of St. Louis, in the employ of the stove company, struck in a body and without notice to the company, which action is said to have been in violation of an agreement between the International Union of Metal Polishers and the Stove Founders' National Defense Association, of which the Bucks company is a member, under which all differences have for four years been successfully adjusted by a conference committee.

Lords Pass Dead Wife's Sister Bill.

DOCTORS PRESCRIBE SULPHUR.

That Sulphur Should Be Used in Liquid Form Only.

"Hanceck's Liquid Sulphur is the most wonderful remedy for Eczema I have ever known," writes Dr. W. W. Leake, of Orlando, Fla., who was cured of a case of years' standing.

Dr. W. A. Heard, of Maitland, Fla., was cured of Eczema after he had suffered for years, and says: "Hanceck's Liquid Sulphur is the finest remedy for all Skin troubles I have ever used or prescribed."

Doctors everywhere prescribe it, but they say Sulphur should be used in liquid form only, as it is in Hanceck's Liquid Sulphur. Druggists sell it. Booklet free, if you write Hanceck Liquid Sulphur Co., Baltimore.

It cures all Skin and Scalp Diseases, if used in connection with the wonderful Hanceck's Liquid Sulphur Ointment.

HOUSEKEEPING HINTS.

Starched muslin, laces and prints will look nicer and iron more easily if dampened with hot water instead of cold.

To impart extreme stiffness to starch add to one quart of starch a teaspoon of gum arabic and the same of baking soda, dissolved in a little water.

The contents of the inner vessel of a double boiler will cook much more rapidly if the water in the outer compartment is salted in the proportion of half a cup of salt to two quarts of water.

Soak new brooms in strong hot salt water before using. This toughens the bristles and makes the brooms last longer.

If jelly has been set away to cool in a earthen or agate mould, set the mould in a dish of very hot water and count down the time it will be ready to turn out on a plate.

Always wash red linen tablecloths in water in which borax has been dissolved.

Soap and candles should be bought in quantity as they last longer and are more effective when dried.

Meat will keep sweet for several days by covering it entirely with milk. Sour or buttermilk will answer the purpose as well as sweet milk.

To remove stains from the fingers, caused by peeling onions, rub well with a lemon.

To clean a gold chain place for a moment in a cupful of ammonia and water, using three parts of water to one of ammonia. Polish finally with a clean chamois leather.

To save incandescent mantles, when lighting turn on the gas for a few seconds, then hold the match one inch above the chimney. It is through apertures in the chimney that soot enters.

LABOR TO FIGHT.

Gompers Says Manufacturers Sought to Delay Criminal Action.

Washington, D. C.—The injunction proceeding brought in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia against the officers of the American Federation of Labor by the National Manufacturers Association will be answered by a conspiracy suit from the labor organizations against the Manufacturers Association. The authority for this statement is President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, who said that he authorized to instruct the attorneys of his organization to prepare the papers in the action.

Another development in the contest between organized labor and the Manufacturers Association is likely to be an application to the Postoffice Department for an injunction against the American Federation of Labor, which is the organ of the American Federation of Labor that prints the "unfair list" of labor organizations. This list is sought by the Manufacturers Association, which has taken the case to the Postoffice Department.

President Gompers declares that the officers of the Manufacturers Association have their suit hurriedly to forestall the criminal prosecution of themselves by the American Federation of Labor. He insisted that the American Federation of Labor has had under consideration plans for the prosecution of the Manufacturers Association, and that by some means President Van Cleave, of the Manufacturers Association, learned of the Federation's purpose and brought the injunction proceeding to counteract the effect of the contemplated suit.
