FIFTEEN YEARS OF ECZEMA

Terrible Itehing Prevented Sleep-Hands, Arms, and Legs Affected —Cured in 6 Days by Cuticura.

"I had eczema nearly fifteen years. The affected parts were my hands, arms and legs. They were the worst in the winter time and were always itchy, and I could not keep from scratching them. I had to keep both hands bandeged all the time, and at night I would have to scratchthrough the bandages as the itching was so severe, and at times I would have to tear everything off my hands to scratch the skin. I could not rest or sleep. I had several physicians treat me, but they could not give me a permanent cure, nor even could they stop the itching. After using the Cuticura Soap, one box Cuticura Ointment and two bottles Cuticura Resolvent for about six days the itching had ceased, and now the sotes have disappeared, and I never felt better in my life than I do now. "I trained for the mile and the half-mile runs (those events which require so much endurance) and then the long daily 'jogs,' which before had been such a task, were clipped off with ease. I won both events.

"The Grape-Nuts-food put me in perfect condition and gave his my 'ginger.' Not only was my physical condition made perfect, and my weight increased, but my mind was made clear and vigorous so that I could get out my studies in about half the time formerly required. street, on the above theme, the Rev. Ira Wemmell Henderson, pastor, took as his text 1 John 2:17, "The world passeth away, and the last thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever." He said: Hadviness is a universal human longing. The search for it is a worldwide human characteristic. The longing of living souls for that which ministers to the satisfaction of the noblest and most lasting of human needs and desires is natural. God created us to be happy. We were not men did we not search for joy. Jehovah meant us to live in the possession and exercise of all that is peaceful and lovous and lovable. It would be strange if we did not seek to possess them. We are foolish if we do not use them.

Not otherwise pleasure, or the satisfaction of lesser human desires and human needs, is a universal human craving. As we long for those things that are eternally and finally satisfying, so do we long for those things that are or immediate and of contemporaneous value. And this craving is natural. The desire is divinely granted. It is not strange that we necessarily to be found in that (and al! Or when did it increase our we shall deliberately circumscribe the application of the word) which God? Or when did the theatre or the we call amusement. Happiness may be far from the heart that is amused. Many a soul that is seared and heavy with sorrow has been amused. But amusement brings such soul no abiding joy and ministers no balm of solace to heal their wounds. Pleasure is not amusement. For a man may find much pleasure outside of that which in the common use and acceptation of the term is called amusement. Happiness is a matter, at the base, of subjective satisfaction. Happiness is centrally a concorn of the soul. Pleasure may conserve happiness. But a man may be well pleased and yet not be happy, A man may be amused and find pleasure in the amusement. But a man may be superlatively unhappy though his face may be forced to smiles through the power of amusement.

For amusement is a diversion, a dissipation, an indication of inward discentent. Happiness indicates contentment. The desire to be amused is very nearly always an indication of the incapacity of a man to achieve happiness:

the terms of eternity, of divinity, of conscience. The happiness of man is, in the mind of the Church of Jesus Christ and in the light of His ruth, dependent upon its perdurability, its divineness, upon the clarity of the conscience of the man who possesses it. In the conception of he church happiness is eternal, it is the gift of God and a force that propels man nearer to God; it cannot be enjoyed except the conscience of men are void of the consciousness of their unworthiness before God. A man is not really happy unless his soul is satisfied in an eternal fashion. unless he has the joy and peace that are the gift of God unto those who love Him and who keep His commandments as his innermost possession, unless his mind and heart are certited of his personal acceptability before God. The church expresses righteous and worthy pleasure in the terms of the conservation of that which is eternal, the promotion of that which is divine, the satisfaction of duty. Any pleasure that does not augment happiness is unworthy. That is to say, that if our pleasures militate against our growth in that which is eternal and divine, if they dull our consciousness of the imperatives of the Almighty that are law and life to the human soul, they are unright-Now, the Church measures amusements by these same standards. She asks us what our amusements do to afford us a larger vision of the eternities, to increase our certainty of the reality and of our self-possession of divinity, to draw us into correct relationships with God. By these standards we have a right to measure our amusements and by these judgments they must stand or fall. they cannot be justified by them or

If they can meet these tests they may remain steadfast and they will. If squared to them they will fall and they ought to. For life is short. Time advances. Opportunities come and go. There is much to be done. We must do it. We have little time to waste. Our efforts must tend, be they little or momentous, to the enlargement of humanity's comprehension of those things that are eternal and divine. If happiness lies in the achievement of these graces we have Abihu. stipulated then we ought to be about the Master's business.

No country in the world needs the white light of publicity and philosophy and of uncommon sense to glare upon its amusements more than America. For we are amusement crasy. Our catch-penny, tinseled, gaudy summer places of amusement are evidence of our ampsement fever. Our theatres are jammed with people who wast not to be compelled to think or to be brought face to face with reproductions of real life in miniature. They go largely to be amused. Our amusements are almost wholly superficial. They minister to the needs of the mind that is mo-mentarily surfeited, to the jaded They are strictly temporal. They are very nearly always inex-pressibly cheep and tawdry when we eift them to the bottom. They are unrelated to duty. For they are primarily intended to aid us to forget our multitude of amusements we shall consider four: the card table, the dance, the theatre, the racetrack. And they are taken for consideration, not because they are per se evil, but because they have become perverted, because 1 or and the means of entertainment for the mighty majority of our population, because there is wide difference of opinion as to their morality and propriety in the hands of Christian men and women or of anybody else

It is far from my purpose to insinuate that either the dance, he theatre or the race is, under oper and normal conditions, wicked. They become so, however, when men control them. It is far from my intention to assert that these forms of amusement are incapable of proper use and that the host of moral. well-meaning Christian people who indulge in them are not perfectly sincere. I have seen card games that were harmless and horse-races that were above reproach, and theatrical painfully conscious that I became who played the game. The questionableness of most of the performances upon the American stage make it necessary for even a grown man who possesses any remnants of self-re-spect to secure a the trical Baedeker before he attempts to go to see a show. I have seen so many pure, lovely girls (not in dancehalls, but at the dances of approved and conventional society of the best type) locked in the embraces of lechcrous, villainous men whom they would not allow within a yard of them in the seclusion and privacy of their own parlors, that I have passed Brooklyn, N. Y .- Preaching at the from wonder to disgust. Any one Irying Square Presbyterian Church, who has ever taken a good, honest, Hamburg avenue and Weirfield long look at the class of men who frequent the racetracks of a metropolitan district will be convinced, if he never was before, that the average of the devotees of the turf go to the track least-of all to see the "pontes run.". If gambling was disallowed by law at the tracks half the racing associations of the country would go out of business. All these amusements are supplied in some measure by church people. All of them have been so perverted that they have become stumbling blocks to human souls. For they have led many a man over the brink wretchedness into the depths of espair. And these men have not nfrequently fallen into the meshes of Injustry because of the ostensibly harmless pastimes of Christian men and women. As an obsession it is paltry for me to say that they are wholly evil. For we are agreed that when they are allowed to dominate a life they are of the devil. The question is, shall the Church sanction them or shall she ban them? Let us look them over one by one. When did a game of cards minister to the enlargement of our conscious-But happiness and pleasure are not ness of that which is divine and etersense of responsibility to the world or dance or the race? Seachingly.

honestly! The truth is that the more we are laware of divinity and eternity, the more exalted our conception of the demands of conscience, the less we need these things and have time for them. We find our happiness elsewhere; we secure our pleasure through unquestionable channels. We neither care nor need to be amused. When I know that amusements are stultifying the spiritual efficiency of the people of God, when I see the flagrant perversions of the amusements of the day that exist. then I am persuaded that the fathers were right to condemn these things with no uncertain sound. And I am tal stock. further convinced that it is not only the duty of the Church to denounce them, but also to transform and purify them. . I am certain that it is our duty to divert the energies of the multitude from following their chean amusements to the service of Almighty God

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacements, secure a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and nerbs, right away and begin its use. The following letters should con-vince every suffering woman of its virtue, and that it actually does conquer tumors.

Mrs. May Fry, of 836 W. Colfax Ave , South Bend, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham :-"I take great pleasure in writing to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I also took the Blood Purifier in alternate doses with the Compound, Your medicine removed a cyst tumor of four years' growth, which three of the best physicians declared I had. They had said that only an operation could help me. I am very thankful that I followed a friend's advice and took your medicine. It has made me a strong and well woman and I shall recommend it as long as I live."

Mrs. E. F. Hayes, of 26 Ruggles St.,

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-"I have been under different doctors' treatment for a long time without relief. They told me I had a fibroid tumor, my abdomen was swollen and I suffered with great pain. I wrote to you for advice, you replied and I followed your directions carefully and today I am a well women. Lydia E. Mrs. Perry Byers, of Mt. Pleasant,

"I was told by my physician that . I had a fibroid tumor and that I would have to be operated upon. I wrote to you for advice, which I followed care-fully and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am not only cured of the tumor but other female troubles and can do all my own work after eight years of suffering. Mrs. S. J. Barber, of Scott, N. Y. writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-"Sometime ago I wrote you for dvice about a tumor which the doctors thought would have to be removed. Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to day am a well woman.

Mrs. M. M. Funk, Vandergrift, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham :-"I had a tumor and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetuble Compound removed it for me after two doctors had given me up. I was sick four years before I began to take the Compound. I now recommend Lydia E Pinkham's Veget-

A Bumper Wheat Crop.

To produce a "bumper" wheat crop, it is absolutely necessary that you supply to your land one or more of the three elements of plant food which your soil so badly needs: phosphoric acid, nitrogen (or ammonia) and potash. The liberal use of Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers, to coo nounds to the acre) will meet this deficiency. You know the highest grades are always cheaper, as they produce greater ylelds. These fertilizers on account of the phosphoric acid they contain, promote the growth and development of the grain and hastens maturity; the nitrogen or ammonia of which they are a part, increases the growth of leaves and stalk and its potash gives strength to the stalk and assists in the development of the grain. So use VIRGINIA-CAROLINA FERTILIZERS and greatly "Increase your yields per acre." Don't buy any substitute brand, which some dealer may fell you "Is just as good."
