At The Auditorium. The managers of the Lyceum course were extremely fortunate in securing the Temple Quartet Company for the initial attraction this season. This celebrated company appeared at the auditorium Monday night and for two hours delighted the audience with the best entertainment ever given in this city. Every number on the regular program was enjoyed and was responded to with something still better. If the management can keep up to the quality of this first attraction, the people of Asheboro should give liberal patronage.

Would Mortgage the Farm. A farmer on Rural Route 2, Empire, Ga., W. A. Floyd by name, says: "Duckden's Arnica Salve cured the two worst sores I ever saw; one on my hand and one on my leg. It is worth more than its weight in gold. I would not be without it if I had to mortgage the farm to get it." Only 25c. at Ashboro drug store Standard drug Co.

Had Seven Gallons Left. Messrs Leachman & Edelin, Grafton, Va, had been selling a paint, which they thought well of; and this had occurred. They had sold a customer 18 gallons of it to paint his house. A few years later, they sold the same man Devoe lead-and-zinc the same number of gallons to paint the same house. He had 7 gallons left. The point of the tale is: 11 gallons Devoe paints an 18-gallon house. Of course, that isn't all. Why does 11 gallons Devoe go as far as 18 gallons of other paint? Because it is all paint, all true, no sham, and full measure. But that isn't all. Devoe lasts longer. No, no; you haven't got to wait ten years to find that out. Ten thousand people know it. They think a heap of Devoe. There's no difficulty in showing our townspeople what to expect of Devoe. $10 will paint a $15 house; and the paint'll last twice as long.

Where Bullets Flew. David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The good Electric Bitters have done its worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." 50c. at Ashboro drug store. Standard drug Co.

The remains were placed in the cemetery at this place Sunday at two o'clock. He was respected at home and abroad. The people of Ramseur say in answer to the question in the Bulletin last week that Mr. C got the $25. This shows whether or not the Democratic party is clean. Doesn't it? The big Boss also made a statement the other day, so we hear; one of his merry-go-rounds Bulldozing speeches. That no white man would vote the Republican ticket. A large crowd will be at Ramseur Thursday night to hear the county candidates, also Hon. A. E. Holton who will address the voters of the county in general. Fred Deweerd is conducting a tent meeting at Sawyersville. He is an able preacher and no doubt he will meet with great success in this meeting. The people of this community forgot to attend the great democratic rally held at Ashboro Wednesday.

L. D. Mendenhall of Randleman was in the city Saturday.

HE WAS ENRAGED.

(Contributed to the Bulletin.) And behold certain soothsayers and astrologers, even Reece the mighty gusher from the land lying to the South round about Troy, Overman from Salisbury, the city where much grog is kept, Simmons, the arch ballot box juggler, Bickett, Kitchin, Spence from Carthage, Page the distributor of many pumpkin seeds, Kelly, the verdant lawyer from Bull Durham, the home of the American Tobacco Trust and certain magicians also, Romulus, the pompadour, Thomas, John, Stephen and Frank who keepeth the swag, went fourth haranguing the people and to persuade them and perchance tempt them by the sight of the goody pile of shining shekels kept by him who holdeth the county's purse strings, even Frank the noted setter. But the people went not to hear, neither would they be tempted with the shining gold, and certain messengers were sent to convey the news to the Big Boss, surnamed Hammer, who when he had heard how his "subjects" had behaved so unseasonably rose up and stamped the ground, gnashed his teeth, rent his clothes, tore his hair and covered his carcass with sackcloth and rolled in ashes, saying "Curs-ed is this people whom I have held under my galling yoke for many generations. Some hated Rads—even fige, Charley and the Professor hath done this thing—they it is who hath opened the eyes of the people and turned them away from me." And he forthwith called his wise men together even his underlings in that upper room over Spoon & Reddings store and took council with them how that the hated Rads might be wiped from the face of the earth, and when they made known unto him that free lunch was being served across the Uwharrie in the village called Farmer and that a multitude of women and children would be there because of the feast and when they besought him to go also, he said unto them, "Saddle me an ass," and they saddled HIM. And when he was come to the feast or his wrath was kindled within him because the women and children were to the number of men as ten to one, and being exceeding wrath he mounted a stump in their midst and rebuked them saying: Oh generation of vagabonds and carpet baggers, why have ye left me and will not hearken to my voice? Do ye not know that I have power to make or unmake you with a wave of my powerful hand? Know ye not that no WHITE man can vote the Republican ticket? Know ye not that if the Rads gain the election that niggers will be put in office and that at the county seat one of Ethiopian descent will sit in the judgment seat now filled even by my Sherman, the learned judge late of Cedar Grove? And till far toward the going down of the sun foamed he, pouring out the vials of his wrath upon the hated Rads, but the people only laughed him to scorn. X. Pounder.
