

The Randolph Bulletin

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

PRICE ONE DOLLAR A YEAR
U. S. HAYES, Editor and Publisher.

Entered as second-class matter June 2nd 1865, at the post office at Asheboro N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd 1879.

Bourke Cockran says the Democratic party is not dead. Well, maybe it isn't.

Another trip abroad would assist Mr. Bryan in killing time between presidential conventions.

The kidnapping and murder professions have received some rather severe jolts of late.

Walter Wellman will try for the North Pole again. He will probably find it in the same old place.

Eighteen Democrats voting for a tariff on iron ore was something in the way of ironical Democracy, so to speak.

General confidence is expressed that the prosperity which is to follow the new tariff will be well worth waiting for.

The Wisconsin Legislature has killed the bill designed to grant the suffrage to women. Those wicked, wicked men!

If the women are to be required to remove their hats in church, they have the right to demand, we think, that they be furnished two seats each.

Carrie Nation—she was christened Carry—has bought a farm in Arkansas out of the sale of souvenir hatchets. Like Mr. Bryan, she turns her talents into cash.

And just to think the weather man should send a deluge the very day Charlotte was celebrating the Mecklenburg Declaration and President Taft there, too! Charlotte should never speak to the weather man again.

The "Greensboro Daily News," successor to the Daily Industrial News will soon begin publication. This announcement will be glad news to republicans throughout the state who recognize the need of a strong daily newspaper to uphold republican principles.

Mr. Mack's new magazine prints a picture of the late Thomas Jefferson on the front cover, the inference being that if Thomas were alive he would be an enthusiastic subscriber. The probabilities are he would at least prefer it to the Commoner, on the principle, "Of the lesser of two evils."

By a single act, that of appointing a democrat to a Federal judgeship, President Taft has endeared himself to the democratic heart as no other republican president has ever done. But yesterday the democratic press of the State had nothing but abuse and vilification for the president; today they slop over with blubber and laudation for him. If you want to reach a man's heart "feed the brute" if you want to reach the democratic heart give 'em "pie".

POLITICAL SPECULATION IN THE SEVENTH FOR NEXT YEAR.

Under the above headlines the Rockingham Post says:

Political speculation for next year has already begun. It is rumored that Congressman Page will be a candidate for reelection. It is also reported that Hector McLean of Scotland county, Frank Armfield, Union county, Senator Foster Hankins of Davidson county, and two solicitors, Robinson and Hammer, would like to have the job. Since the salary rose to $7,500 a year it is a soft berth and a nice one.

To which the Troy Montgomeri appends the following: S. E. Williams of Lexington, W. L. Parsons of Rockingham, U. L. Spence of Carthage and J. R. Blair of Troy, are also spoken of as candidates.

Does this look like democrats are hungry for office? The nominating convention is more than a year off and already ten avowed candidates in the field and there may be others.

An Expression of Thanks.

Mr. Editor:—I wish to express through your paper my sincere thanks to the kind-hearted, sympathetic, Christian-spirited girls and boys ladies and gentlemen, especially teachers and ministers of Asheboro and all sections of Randolph county where I have recently been. It has been a source of great pleasure to mingle with such unselfish people. Such unbounded generosity and hospitality as well as such unprecedented helpful kindness should be heralded everywhere. No one appreciates such more than the undersigned, since deprived of vision. The kind tone of the voice takes the place of the sympathetic countenance and the welcome "Come in" means much to the unfortunate.

Why do the Randolph people expec and feel so much? They are trained in the home and the schools, both day and Sunday, as well as having the gospel preached to them and practiced by this stirring, prosperous people. Randolph business men manufacturers, merchants, farmers, all classes join the Christian women and children in all kinds of church work. Such unity counts more than dollars and will tell on future generations. In taking my leave allow me to thank you all editors included for a pleasant and profitable stay among you.

Stand by your schools and churches, with your influence and means, and may God ever prosper you in your business, as citizens of the county and state, and as members of the church.

J. N. GARRETT.

May, 25 1909.

Lived 152 Years.

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurlock, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years Kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They are a godsend to weak, sickly, old or young people. Try them. 50c at Asheboro Drug Store. Standard Drug Co.

Graded School Faculty.

As a consequence of several teachers not accepting the positions to which they were elected by the commissioners sometime ago, the Board met last Saturday and employed other teachers to fill the vacancies.

The faculty as it stands now follows:

1st grade, Miss Maggie Erwin, 2d " " Annie Blair, 3rd " " Laura Stimpson, 4th " " Ila Blue, 5th " " Florene E. Corothers, 6th " " Estella Webster, 7th " " Ida Byrley, 8 & 9th " " Meta Liles, 10th " " Prof. O. V. Woosley.

It coaxes back that well feeling, healthy look, puts the sap of life in your system, protects you from disease. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea has no equal as a spring tonic for the whole family. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.

Inter-State Fiddlers Contest.

An Inter-State Fiddlers contest will be held in Greensboro Saturday evening, June 5th. Champion fiddlers from Tenn., S. C., Va. and N. C., will take part in the contest. An interesting program has been arranged and valuable prizes offered. Mr. O. R. Cox of Asheboro has been selected as one of the judges.

Kills To Stop The Fiend.

The worst foe for 12 years of John Deye, of Gladwin, Mich. was a running ulcer. He paid doctors over $400.00 without benefit. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve killed the ulcer and cured him. Cures Fever-Sores, Boils, Felons, Eczema, Salt Rheum. Infallible for Piles, Burns, Scalds Cuts, Corns. 25c at Asheboro Drug Co. Standard Drug Co.

The Prohibition victory of a year ago was appropriately celebrated at the Presbyterian church Wednesday night. Miss Elizabeth March of Winston-Salem made the principal address.

Sayings of Mrs. Solomon.

Being the Confessions of the Seven Hundredth Wife—Translated: Helen Rowland.

Washington Herald.

My daughter, these are the proverbs of thy mother, the married woman.

To know men and their round-about ways; to perceive the difference between near-lovemaking and a real proposal; to distinguish kisses—the kiss of love from the kiss of long practice, and all kisses from the kisses of graft. To give subtlety to the debutante, and to the wife a little "useful knowledge."

The understanding of man is the beginning of an allowance; but the foolish shall earn their own living and dwell in a studio apartment. They shall feed upon spaghetti and club sandwiches and weak tea seasoned with condensed milk.

Go to the kitchen! thou suffragette; consider her ways and be wise, which, having no opinions, sleepeth upon a down pillow and getteth the cream off the jug without working for it.

For a husband is better than a government position, and more profitable than school teaching.

Yea, if a man is the producer, shall not a woman be the consumer?

For this is reciprocity; and the more she consumeth the more she getteth. Then, let every wife be a walking advertisement of her husband's income, for a wife that looketh like ready money is as good as much credit.

Heed my instruction, for love is a gilded cage to which any woman can entice the bird, but matrimony is the door which only a clever damsel shutteth behind him. Therefore, mark the difference between the foolish and the wise.

For she that flirteth with the eye that will not behave shall cause havoc, but she that talketh too much shall give a man mal de mer. As a green persimmon to the roof of the mouth, so is a woman that telleth a man her "past."

All the ways of a man are "just right" in the eyes of a wise damsel, but the foolish woman saith "I told you so."

I charge thee a good temper is rather to be chosen than good shoulders, and a tenderness than curling hair.

Yet boast not of what thou art going to marry, for thou knowest not what the market shall bring forth, and she that starteth out to win an Adonis, peradventure shall one day gladly wed a tub.

Verily, verily cozy corners are deceitful, and pink teas are vain but a man that proproth by letter is a bird in the hand.

Lo, a proposal deferred maketh the heart sick; yet when it cometh it shall be so garbled that thou shalt not recognize it. But do not turn it down, for, as the whirlwind passeth so are old maids no more, yet the bachelor girl endureth forever.

Then be up and doing, for it is never to late to mend; but a time cometh when it shall be to late to marry, and ye shall cry unto your selves "My mother told me so!" Selah!

COMING.

The Jethro Almond Bible Show and moving picture exhibition is coming to Asheboro, and will show one whole week, commencing Monday night May 31. This show is favorably remembered, being here last year and as the show is this year enlarged to double its last years size, carrying its own military band organ, and travelling on its own private train of Palatial railway cars, we predict for it a large patronage while here. The show is as was last year featuring the "Passion play" or "Life of Christ" but of course many other things will be shown, such as "Ten nights in the bar-room," "The counterfeiter," "Jim's apprenticeship," and concluding with a fine concert performance.

The admission remains the same, General admission 10 cent. Tents will be pitched just across the railroad from the depot, and near the Bulletin office. Performance every night starting at 8 o'clock. This is a rare opportunity to see the biggest electrical production of the season.
