ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

ENUMERATORS' TEST EASY

Census Director Durand Sets February 5th as the Date.

Washington, D. C., December 27, 1909.—Any person of good judgment, who has received an ordinary common school education, can readily and easily pass the test to be given applicants for Census enumerators' places on Saturday Feb. 5th, the date finally set by U. S. Census Director Durand, according to an announcement from the Census Bureau today. This will be a confronting assurance to the several hundred thousand who are believed to be contemplating application for the places.

It was emphatically stated at the bureau that the test will be an eminently reasonable and practical one, similar to that applied to applicants at the Twelfth Census. It will consist of filling-out a sample schedule of population from a description, in narrative form, of typical families; and, in the case of enumerators whose work will be in the rural districts, they will be called upon to fill out an additional sample schedule of agriculture, from information furnished by the Census Bureau.

All persons, whether women or men, who may desire to become Census enumerators must be citizens of the United States; residents of the supervisor's district for which they wish to be appointed; must be not less than 18 nor more than 70 years of age; must be physically able to do the work; must be trustworthy, honest and of good habits; must have at least an ordinary education and must be able to write plainly and with reasonable rapidity.

Those who can comply with these requirements are invited to put in their applications, as there will be at least 68,000 enumerators' places to be filled by the middle of March in preparation for the enumeration beginning April 15th.

Application forms, with full instructions for filling-in, and complete information concerning the test and the method of appointment, can be secured by writing to the supervisor of census for the supervisor's district in which the applicant lives. All applications, properly filled-in must be filed with the supervisors not later than Jan. 25th as any received after that date cannot be considered.

A Wild Blizzard Raging

brings danger, suffering—often death—to thousands, who take colds, coughs and lagrippe—that terror of Winter and Spring. Its danger signals are "stuffed up" nostrils, lower part of nose sore, chills and fever, pain in back of head, and a throat-gripping cough. When Grip attacks, as you value your life, don't delay getting Dr. King's New Discovery. "One bottle cured me," writes A. L. Dunn, of Pine Valley, Miss., "after being laid up three weeks with Grip." For sore lungs, Hemorrhages, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, its supreme. 50c. $1.00. Guaranteed by J. T. Underwood.

First Operation For Appendicitis.

Dr. Carl Webber, still practicing in New York city, performed in 1866 the first operation for appendicitis. There was no knowledge of stomach cuttings at that time. The operation was performed without antiseptics. The instruments and appliances were comparatively primitive. The patient is alive and well in New York today.

EXPERIENCE OF A YOUNG MAN.

"The housekeeping went to pieces," says Francis C. Wilson in the Woman's Home Companion for January; "we spent every cent of my salary, and on account of the doctor's bills I had scarcely a balance of three hundred dollars in the savings bank. At the office, too, things were not going well. The firm had changed hands, and the new partners, of a driving suspicious type, were anything but welcomed. One day the senior of them thought that he discovered a mistake in my work; he would listen to nothing, speaking insultingly and with threats of dismissal. Eighteen months before I should have resigned, confident that I could get another good position. But my hostages to fortune had made me cowardly. I dared not risk even what looked like a certainty. I listened with hatred in my heart to all he said, and when he added, 'Get out of here now, and don't let it happen again or you can get out for good,' I went back to my work in the drafting room. Later in the day he sent a scrawl by an office-boy saying that he had been mistaken this time, but perhaps it was just as well for his force to know how he would feel if a blunder really happened. This substitute for an apology only made my rage blacker. Before the day closed, salaries were cut ten per cent. "I could not go home at once to Amy. I sent a message that I could not return for dinner and I set out for a long walk. Instinctively I walked toward my old home, and strange enough to me it was to feel that it was my father I was seeking. Not a clever man, my father, and up to this time I had felt distinctly superior to him. But now I was going to him because he was the best person I knew. I went to him now, like a woman, for strength. We said nothing much, but I believe that in some way he felt some arrears of filial allegiance going out to him."

IN MEMORIAM.

Mr. Rassie Craven, son of W. S. and Elizabeth Craven died of typhoid pneumonia in Greensboro December 27, 1909 and the remains were brought to his father's Dec. 28. His body was quietly laid to rest in the cemetery at Holly Springs Dec. 29th to await the resurrection morn.

He was a deaf mute, 22 years and three months old and had been sick only two weeks. All was done for him that was possible by physician, loving parents, faithful and untiring friends but nothing could be done by them to relieve his suffering until the Savior came and took him to his home above where no pain nor sorrow sin nor death can come.

Rassie was a good christian boy. He was educated at Morganton D. & D. school. It can well be said that he was loved by all who knew him. He was always our pet and loved by every one. He leaves a father and mother five sisters and three brothers to mourn their loss.

It had not been the writers privilege to be with him for a few months but the last time he visited us he told us that he was a child of God and he said he was a life child for Jesus.

Rassie treated every one kindly and honestly and had a smile for everybody.

All is dark in our dwelling,
Lonely are our hearts today.
For the one we loved so dearly,
Has for-ve passed away.

What is a Gentleman?

What is a real gentleman is thus defined by an eastern exchange: "A man that's clean inside and out; who neither looks up to the rich nor down on the poor; who can loose without squealing and who can win without bragging; who is considerate of women, children and old people, who is too brave to lie, too generous to cheat, and who takes his share of the world and lets other people have theirs."

CENSUS APPLICATIONS FORMS.

Those for Enumerators Received by the District Supervisor.

Census Supervisor A Turner Grant, Jr., whose office is at Mocksville, N. C. has received from the Census Bureau a supply of blank applications for persons applying for positions as census enumerators. These will be forwarded to his list of applicants as soon as possible.

The applications, properly filled out, must be returned to the Supervisor not later than January 31, the Census Director having extended the time for filing from January 25, which was the date first set for closing the consideration of applications. The "test" will occur February 5, as previously announced.

The instructions printed on the application form state that a definite answer is required to each of the questions.

Indorsements of each applicant must be secured from two representative citizens of the community in which the applicant resides. They must be at least 21 years of age and acquainted with the applicant not less than one year. Indorsements will not be accepted from any person who is in any way related to an applicant. The indorsement certifies that the applicant "is a thoroughly trustworthy and honest person, of good habits, and in my opinion, is fully capable of discharging the duties of a census enumerator, if appointed."

TO HONOR THE CONFEDERATE DEAD OF RANDOLPH COUNTY.

We have set our hands to the sacred task of erecting in the town of Asheboro, near our beautiful new courthouse, a monument to commemorate the bravery and valor of the Confederate Soldiers of Randolph County who fell in the war between the States.

Love for our county and loyalty to the men who nobly died for Southern liberty and independence impel us to this undertaking. It is true indeed that the Confederate Soldier needs no costly tomb to glorify his memory since the whole Southland is his sepulcher, and the people for whom he laid down his life have prepared for him, in their own hearts, an imperishable memorial. But there are deep and sacred sentiments which demand a material expression of our reverence for their memory, and our admiration for their self-forgetting devotion to duty.

A due regard for posterity demands it, lest the lesson of their heroism and the purity of their patriotism be not duly impressed upon the generations that will come after us.

In every county in our state there should stand a memorial in bronze or stone that the heroic deeds of the Southern Soldiers may never be forgotten. We feel that there should be erected at our county's capitol, under the shadow of our new "Temple of Justice", a shaft of noble proportions, worthy of the spot, worthy of the illustrious deeds of our Confederate Soldiers, and worthy of the people of the county.

We would that all men in looking upon it might feel that it was a fit expression of the glory of the dead and of the love and reverence of the people for whom they died. It will speak to generations yet unborn of the simple loyalty and sublime constancy of the Soldiers of Randolph county who fought without reward and who died for a cause that was to them the embodiment of liberty and sacred right. And now, citizens of Randolph county, in the name of our heroic dead and for the honor of our county, we appeal to you to aid us in our undertaking.

It is fitting that this monument to the honor of the Soldiers of Randolph county should represent the devotion of each and every citizen of our county. Surely the kindred of those who gave their best and bravest men to the standard of the South in that tremendous struggle should be eager to contribute their part to the sum necessary to erect, here in full view of the capitol of the county, a shaft worthy to commemorate the valor and the virtue of those heroic men whose deeds have never been surpassed, and who have shed imperishable renown on their county and the commands under whose banners they fought. The Randolph Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy, appeal to you by the sacred memories of that lost cause, and by the honor due to our glorious dead, to make a prompt and liberal contribution to further the worthy achievement of so honorable an enterprise.
