Rev. W. H. Eubank of Wilmington, will preach in the Presbyterian church morning and evening next Sunday, Sept. 20.
Mrs. J. A. York and children accompanied by Mrs. Henry Fugh visited the family of Mrs. Ed York at Central Falls last week.
It was seven degrees colder Sunday night than Saturday night; 48 was the lowest and 72 the highest. Saturday night it was 55.
The Cox & Lewis Hardware Company has an attractive ad in this issue of The Bulletin advertising the well known Range brand.
Mr. W. I. Sumner of Randleman was here a short while Monday evening on business. He was accompanied by his son, Emmett.
Mrs. L. D. Mendenhall and daughter, Miss Mary, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thornburg at Race, Saturday and Sunday.
Misses Mabel Parish, Jessie Wood and Louella Lowe left yesterday morning for Greensboro, where they go to enter the State Normal college.

Miss Maude Anderson of Albemarle was the guest of Miss Ina Auman last Saturday and Sunday.
Mrs. W. C. Hammer, Miss Harriette Hammer, Mrs. Jennie Hancock and Miss Lillian Bunch spent a few days at Jackson Springs last week.
Misses Catherine Burns and Lucile Scarborough left yesterday morning for Greensboro where they enter the State Normal College for the coming term.
Rev. J. B. O'Brian of Randleman, who has been assisting Rev. Mr. Bowman in a revival at Charlotte church passed through the city last Friday on his way home.
Miss Annie Moring returned home last Friday from Cape Henry, Va., and Washington, D. C., where she has been spending several weeks with relatives and friends.
Mrs. W. F. Redding and sons, Masters Frank and Thomas, returned home Friday night from Lynchburg, Va., where she has been the guest of relatives for a week.
Beginning next Sunday night and continuing through the week the Friends will conduct a series of meetings here in the Armory conducted by Mrs. Milner Angel Cox.
Mrs. E. H. Bean, who has been spending several weeks with relatives in Randolph county left Friday for her home at Augusta, Ga. Accompanying her was Miss Dora Bean.
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hedrick returned home Monday night from Linville Falls, and other points in western North Carolina where they have been spending their honeymoon.
This cool weather is said to be holding back the tobacco crop. It takes hot sun and plenty of it to ripen the weed, according to several growers who seem to be afraid that the frost will catch it.
Frank Whitaker of Salisbury arrived here last week and is acting as relief clerk in the Lexington Grocery company office in the absence of Ed. L. Herrick, who is away on his honeymoon.
Ray Hayworth left Monday morning for the University of North Carolina, where he will be a student at the present term. The University opened last week with nearly 1000 students registered, the best attendance in the history of the institution.
Tomorrow is the last day allowed by law for wearing straw hats. The weather has been cool enough to run them in for some few days past, but they are still to be seen. If the boys do not shuck 'em the city will have to "pass a law" prohibiting them.
Among the college students passing through Asheboro last week were: Misses Kate Dorsett, Alma and Maud Lassiter of Farmer who went to Guilford College, Miss Mary Smitherman of Troy and Miss Mabel Bruton of Biscoe to Greensboro College for Women, and Miss Watkins of Wadeville to Guilford College.
Mrs. Irvin N. Cox is spending several days in the city the guest of relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Cox have just returned home from New York, where he has been on business. Mr. Cox says that the cotton goods market is very dull and that the big New York firms are advising all Southern mills to let cotton alone and that the price will be 5 cents in less than six months.
Ten squads are at present employed in this county on road work. Three of them are convicts the balance free labor. At the present rate the county would soon have a literal network of good roads leading in every direction and soon as the neighboring counties connect with them we will have good highways to and from every section of the country. Good roads make towns more neighborly and draw them closer together.
Spark's circus comes to town Friday. This show has the record of being one of the cleanest on the road. It is a North Carolina aggregation, backed by North Carolina people and now has winter quarters at Salisbury. It is remembered by several here that some six years ago the circus was wrecked on the old Asheboro and Aberdeen road and almost stranded, nearly everything being ruined. A big crowd will be here, for a circus is something that people just will come to see no matter how many times they have seen it before.
Central Hotel Changes Hands.
Mr. A. Auman tonight releases management of the Central Hotel to Mrs. M. L. Swaringer, who will continue to conduct the hotel. Mrs. Swaringer comes hither from Duke, and brings with her an enviable reputation.

SUICIDE NEAR TRINITY

Known Reason for Act Brooding Over Loss of Mule

Lee Briles, the 21-year-old son of John Briles, committed suicide by shooting himself with a gun Friday night at his home five miles in the country from Trinity. It is stated that the young man was out hunting with friends that afternoon and seemed to be all right; but that he had been brooding over the loss of a mule—his one piece of property—which was injured in an accident several days ago and had to be killed.
Except for this no cause is known for the deed, which produced much excitement in the community where he lived and had many friends.

School Opens This Morning

The Asheboro graded school opens this morning and the indications are that the enrollment will be good, with prospects for an excellent year of school work. Prof. Teague and his able corps of assistants are in the city ready for the opening.
The teachers for the different grades are:
First—Miss McCloud.
Second—Miss Burgess.
Third—Miss Miller.
Fourth—Miss Parrish.
Fifth—Miss Phillips.
Sixth—Miss Fentriss.
Seventh—Miss Barnes.
Eighth—Miss Younts.
Ninth—Miss Lamb.
Tenth—Prof. Teague.

Miss Laughlin Entertains Alpha Deltas

Miss Edna Laughlin delightfully entertained the Alpha Delta Club at her home on Sunset avenue Saturday afternoon. Forty-two were enthusiastically played at six tables, when scores were counted. It was found that Miss Nellie Spoon had made the highest and was given a lovely box of stationery.
A delicious ice course was served. Besides the club members quite a number of Miss Laughlin's friends enjoyed her hospitality.

Revival at M. E. Church

A series of meetings began at the M. E. church on last Sunday morning and the services are being well attended by the people of the town, regardless of denomination. The pastor Rev. J. E. Thompson, is being assisted by Dr. Charles W. Byrd, pastor of West Market street church, Greensboro, who is one of the ablest preachers in the Western North Carolina conference.
Dr. Byrd arrived Monday on the 10 o'clock train and conducted the Monday morning service, and will be in Asheboro over next Sunday.
The meeting thus far has been quite a success, and there is every good indication that Asheboro will have a real, good old time revival this week.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE

A Night in the Jungles of Central Africa.

To hear the thunderous roars of the man-eating kings of the forest, to feel their hot breath wafted through the barred windows of a tiny cabin in the jungles is certainly thrilling.
Fritz Brunner, the famous animal trainer with the Sparks' Famous Shows, which are to exhibit here next Friday, Sept. 18, was raised in a cabin in the wilds of equatorial Africa. His father was an agent of the Royal Zoological Society of Germany, and spent many years securing specimens for that institution. Hence from childhood Mr. Brunner was accustomed to hear nightly the roars of monster lions, the hideous tiger's growls and the snarling of leopards and hyenas, which would engage in deadly combats around the cabin, often hurling their huge weight against its frail walls and scampering over its roof. As he grew up in those surroundings he became a fearless hunter, meeting the wild denizens of the forest face to face and engaging in fierce struggles with the infuriated beasts. He afterwards became a trainer, and his absolute mastery over the brute creation is not equalled by any living man.
A large steel enclosure will be erected in the center of the exhibition tent, into which the ferocious animals will be turned loose. Mr. Brunner will then enter the enclosure, unarmed, and put them through a remarkable series of performances that will vividly illustrate their tremendous strength and agility. It is a thrilling, hair raising sight and one that you will never forget.
The program of the Sparks' Shows is entirely composed of marvelous, expensive and carefully selected features, which make it so vastly superior to all similar exhibitions.
