GO RIGHT AT IT.

Friends and Neighbors in Asheboro Will Show You a Way.

Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it, but won't cure it if the kidneys are weak. You must reach the root of it—the kidneys. Reach the cause; relieve the pain. Begin at once with Doan's Kidney Pills. Are recommended by thousands. Here is a statement from a resident of this vicinity. Joel Presnell, R. F. D. No. 2, Seagrave, N. C., says: "I began to suffer from disordered kidneys about six months ago. The kidney secretion were so frequent in passage that I was obliged to get up several times at night. I had a dull pain through the small of my back and it was very hard for me to stoop or get up after sitting. I had heard Doan's Kidney Pills highly praised for complaints of that kind and finally I began using them. The results were satisfactory and it was only a short time before I was cured." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Presnell had. Foser-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. Jack Pugh, aged 77 years, died at his home near Gray's Chapel Monday and the funeral was held from the church on Tuesday. Mr. Pugh is a native of the county, having been born and reared near Ramseur. Surviving are three brothers, Martine, Tom and Felix and one sister, Mrs. Lovie York, of Ramseur.
Perhaps one of the most popular conductors on the Southern, all things being considered, is Capt. A. E. Burns, of the Asheboro unlimited. It's easy to be pleasant on these fast trains on the main line, but it takes a real genius to keep the passengers smiling on a two hour run of 28 miles from here to High Point. Capt. Burns has been a candidate for office two times, but 'tis a blessing to the railroad and to the passengers who circulate up and down this line that he was humbugged out of the nomination.
Rev. J. E. Thompson returned yesterday afternoon from High Point, where he had been to take part in the opening services of the new Wesley Memorial church. Rev. Mr. Thompson was formerly pastor of the Washington street M. E. church, of which the new Wesley Memorial is an outgrowth and enlargement. Rev. Mr. Thompson preached to a crowded house on Sunday night in the new church. His visits are a real pleasure to his friends as well as the people of High Point, who hold him in the highest esteem. Rev. Gilbert T. Rowe, formerly presiding elder of the Greensboro district, and one of the ablest preachers in the conference is the pastor of the new church.

Entertainment Friday Evening.
Misses Florence and Bessie Burkheimer of Charlotte, N. C., will give an entertainment in the graded school auditorium Friday evening, Jan. 15, at eight o'clock, under the auspices of the Randolph Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy.
These young ladies come to us highly recommended. They are endorsed by the North Carolina division U. D. C. They have been well received in all of the larger towns of the State.
The Daughters of the Confederacy are not only building monuments of bronze and stone. They have an educational fund to educate the sons and daughters of our Confederate soldiers who could not have a college education without help. When we build monuments of bronze and stone they must some day crumble to the ground. When we build character we build for eternity. It is this monument that we ask you to help us build by coming out to the auditorium Friday evening. Price 25c. You will enjoy the entertainment and help a good cause.
A Correction.
An item in last week's paper, in the Flint Springs items, stating that Mr. Garrett Leach and Miss Gracie Beck were married is incorrect. This was an error of our correspondent and we wish to correct same.
Heavy Wind in Sand Hills.
A heavy wind and rain storm last Wednesday night destroyed any outhouses and smaller buildings in the neighborhood of Star and throughout the lower edge of Montgomery county.
Death of Mrs. Allred.
Mrs. W. F. Allred passed at her home at the "Y," near Randleman last Wednesday, following a stroke of paralysis, from which she never rallied. Deceased was in her 77th year, and has been a resident of Randleman for many years. Mrs. Allred is survived by a husband and two children. They are M. H. Allred, of Asheboro, and Mrs. E. E. Mendenhall of Greensboro.
Mr. and Mrs. Allred have resided alone since the death of their son, Alpha, about six months ago, and it was while doing chores about the barn that she was stricken with paralysis and was carried to the house unconscious. She was a woman of the highest type of christian character and much beloved in the neighborhood. The funeral and burial were conducted on Thursday afternoon from White Hall church and all that was mortal laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.
Following her death her husband, 79 years of age comes to Asheboro and will reside at the home of his son, Mr. M. H. Allred.

The Germans have taken PILSNER and are now surrounding DELICATESSEN, where the wurst is expected. The Belgian has had a falling out with the Welch Rarebits and the Swiss Cheese is shot full of holes. This will make the Irish Stew and the English Mustard Hot, and if the Russian Caviar sees the French Pastry it may start a Swiss movement watch. The Spanish Onions are strong for a mix-up and if the Home Preserves are called out and spread over the German Noodles they may Ketchup with the Na y Beans, thereby causing an uprushing of the Brussels Sprouts.

And hereby comes the whole tale. People must eat and wear clothes. Natural they want to economize and buy the best at the cheapest price. Here is where we come in try us and see.
